

Storm Doors Will Add Holly Comfort

For the comfort of their many patrons, the Holly Theatre in Medford has just completed the installation of a set of storm doors. The doors are fitted with plate glass and add a definite new beauty to the already striking interior of the showhouse. This second set of doors has been placed inside the foyer and serve as protection for the guests already in the theatre auditorium against the cold air that rushes in when the outer doors are open.

BOLIVIA MINING AREA UNDER ARMED GUARDS

La Paz, Bolivia, Dec. 15 —(U.P.)—The government decreed a state of siege in the entire country today following disturbances by "extremist elements" in the Catavi mining district.

Declaring that the disorders were hampering production in the mining area, the decree dispatched army units to guard mines and transportation facilities.

HOTEL HAS FIRE
Pittsburgh, Dec. 15 —(U.P.)—One fireman was killed and approximately 100 overcome by smoke in a stubborn fire which burned through the night in a sub-basement of the William Penn, the largest hotel in the city. Firemen reported the blaze was confined to a room three floors below the street level, but that dense smoke and gasses from burning furniture and rug matting prevented effective fire fighting.
