

HECTIC DAYS OF WAR LEND IMPETUS TO MAN'S INGENUITY

AN AID TO WAR-WORKING MOTHER IN THE HOME.

TORPEDO SHIELDS MAY PROVE THEIR WORTH.

This war, like all other wars, has added its specialized crop to the countless inventions which, in peace time, add to man's comfort and help to increase his span of life. New weapons, and mechanical improvement of existing ones, have made most of the World War armaments of a quarter century ago as obsolete as the smoothbore musket. And with these new weapons have come many wartime inventions to ease the impact of war upon civilian life, and to replace essential war material with non-strategic products. Concentrated foods, home labor-savers, substitutes for gasoline and rubber have taken their places alongside the new weapons of mechanized might. Shown here is a very small portion of the current crop of inventions which flood the war department and patent office. But the illustrated innovations are the cream of that crop—in the case of military inventions, those that have survived official rejection in the blueprint stage, have passed the more difficult test of the demonstration grounds, and finally have proved practical in actual use by the armed forces.

BELGIAN JUDGES STRIKE AGAINST ORDERS OF NAZIS

New York, Dec. 28.—(U.P.)—Jan-Albert Goris, Belgian commissioner of information, said today that the entire Belgian judiciary was on strike in a conflict with Quisling officials and German army occupation authorities.

The conflict started when the Belgian ministry of interior at Antwerp, in order to control big communal centers, decreed creation of a greater Antwerp. The decree was ruled illegal by the Antwerp court and was appealed to the appellate court at Brussels.

German authorities, hearing that the court intended to confirm the Antwerp verdict, asked that the decision be postponed for two months. The court refused and confirmed the Antwerp verdict, Goris said.

The magistrates were imprisoned. In protest, Goris said, the entire Belgian judiciary—supreme court, appellate courts, first courts and justices of the peace—went on strike.

Pvt. Robert G. Vogel of the 91st, now resting in the station hospital, meeting his good looking wife who just arrived from Butte, Mont. And what a meeting!

Pvt. James Gordon—a happy man! Just missed the furlough list. Then someone decided not to go and he moved into the vacant spot.

Pvt. Leslie Lewis, "Whisper" editor, reduced to a whisper himself, convalescing in the hospital. Get well, fellow!
