Wartime is Weartime

Homemaking is a war industry—with thrift the necessary theme. Two "musts" appear on every housewife's wartime list of rules—wear and comfort. When it comes to wear, the homemakers of America know that Pequot will give them the maximum in lasting quality. And comfort? Just ask any housewife who has used Pequot. The name Pequot is, and always will be, a symbol of dependable quality—before the war, during the war, and after.
