Conger Home Is Scene of Cator Wedding

In a candlelight service at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Conger of West Main street, Miss Nellie Cator became the bride of Sergeant Louie J. Izzi December 22. The rites were read by the Rev. Herald G. Gardner, rector of St. Mark's church, before an improvised altar, decorated with pink and white chrysanthemums and lighted with tall white tapers.

The candles were lighted by the bride's cousin, Miss Doris Cator of Corvallis and Medford. Traditional wedding music was played by Mrs. Ernest Conrad, who also accompanied Miss Joyce Bateman, when she sang "I Love You Truly."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, William Cator of Modesto, California, wore an aqua semi-princess gown with corsage of gardenias. Her only attendant was her cousin, Miss Mabel Cator of Corvallis, who chose a dress of white with corsage of Tallasman rosebuds.

Lieut. Corwin McClean of Corvallis was Sgt. Izzi's best man.

Mrs. Conger, aunt of the bride wore for the occasion a dress of black crepe with green trimming.

The wedding was followed by a reception, at which Mrs. Conger was assisted as hostess by Mrs. Arthur Hess. The bride's cake centered the table, which was decorated in white chrysanthemums. About 20 relatives and intimate friends of the couple attended the wedding and reception, after which the bride and groom left for Corvallis to spend the holidays with her uncle, B. J. Cator and family. They will be at home in Vancouver, Wash., Sgt. Izzi being stationed at Vancouver Barracks.

Garden Club Enjoys Illustrated Lecture

Mrs. Sadie Nichols presided over the business meeting of the Medford Garden club at the Girls' Community clubhouse Thursday afternoon. At that time Mrs. Jacobs was appointed chairman of the Victory Gardens for the year and she talked on the need of home gardens. Mrs. Woods and Mrs. Sater also discussed the same subject. Mrs. Gay of the Medford Rose Gardens gave an illustrated lecture on the pruning of shrubs and roses.

Westrup-Weiss Rites Read At Camp Chapel

Camp White, Ore., Jan. 7. (Spl.)—Post Chapel No. 10 was filled with the entire personnel of a post medical unit last Sunday at high noon when Miss Elaine Westrup became the bride of Staff Sgt. Linford E. Weiss.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. E. W. Westrup of Table Rock and the bridegroom the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Weiss of Red Hill, Pa. Attending the couple were Tech. Sgt. Charles J. Schable and Mrs. Schable.

The chapel was decorated with flowers and music was played on the chapel organ by Cpl. John Hastings and Cpl. Samuel Smith sang "Oh, Promise Me" and "Because." Chaplain Gebhart read the service.

The bride wore a powder blue dress with beige accessories and an orchid corsage. Her attendant chose a deep green afternoon dress with rust accessories and a gardenia corsage.

Following the marriage a wedding supper was served in the mess hall of the groom's detachment. The couple left on a short trip to San Francisco and will make their home at Table Rock.

Bride-Elect Honored At Buffet Supper

Mrs. C. B. Collins and Miss Betty Vilm were hostesses Friday evening at a miscellaneous shower honoring Miss Janet Mann, bride-elect of Lieut. John G. Crawford. The affair was held at the Collins home on East Main street and buffet supper was served at 7 o'clock to 17 guests.

Four tables of bridge were at play with Miss Catherine Conroy and Mrs. George Smith holding high scores. Miss Mann received individual gifts from those present and the group also started her china pattern. Decorations followed a patriotic motif with tiny model airplanes and red, white and blue streamers.
