Wednesday Club Fall Luncheon Opens 36th Year

Opening its 36th consecutive year, the Medford Wednesday Study club will meet Wednesday afternoon of this coming week at the Holland hotel for the annual fall luncheon. The luncheon has been scheduled for 1 o'clock and members are asked to assemble in the hotel lounge.

One of the oldest women's clubs in the Rogue river valley, the Wednesday club still retains in its roster five charter members. They are Mrs. F. K. Deuel, Mrs. E. B. Pickel, Mrs. H. E. Snedcor, Mrs. E. N. Warner and Mrs. H. G. Wortman.

Presiding over the meeting this week will be the new president, Mrs. Frank Albert, who succeeds Mrs. A. W. Aya, retiring president. Mrs. J. W. Jacobs is the new vice-president, replacing Miss Helen Bullis, and the secretary this year will be Mrs. O. H. Brenneman, who replaces Mrs. Frank Albert. Mrs. W. J. Warner retains the treasurer's post.

The committee arranging the luncheon is Mrs. F. E. Nichols, chairman, assisted by Miss Helen Bullis, Mrs. Dolph Phipps and Mrs. R. B. Hammond.

Membership in the club is limited each year to 30 members.

Surprise Shower Tuesday Evening Honors Mrs. Howe

Mrs. Roy Howe, the former Thelma Heard, was honored Tuesday evening with a surprise shower given by a group of friends at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heard on the South Pacific highway. Mrs. Howe was presented with many lovely gifts and late in the evening refreshments were served.

Guests at the affair included Mrs. M. R. Stanton, Mrs. Beebe Howard, Mrs. R. L. Bussey, Miss Cornelia Tjoelker, Miss Mura Mills, Miss Jeanette Tjoelker, Mrs. Vivian Lawrentz, Mrs. Ruth Anderson, Mrs. Cathryn Heard and Mrs. Charles Heard.

Honored Queen

Miss Jo Ann Humphrey is the newly installed honored queen of Medford Bethel Daughters of Job. Miss Humphrey is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Humphrey, 825 E. Jackson Blvd., and is a senior in Medford senior high school.

Swinson Cosbie Wedding Rites Announced Here

News of the wedding of Mrs. Marie Swinson, Napa, Calif., former Medford resident, is of much interest to friends and relatives in the city. Mrs. Swinson and George Cosbie of Berkeley were married Sunday, Sept. 26, in Berkeley at St. John's Presbyterian church.

The service was read by Dr. Stanley Armstrong Hunter and was attended only by the bride's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard T. Wilson of Napa, Calif., and her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Eldridge of Medford. Mrs. Swinson wore an ensemble of black and white with silver fox furs for the ceremony. Her flowers were white orchids.

The wedding of Mrs. Cosbie's daughter, the former Barbara Leigh Swinson, preceded that of her mother by only a week. Mr. and Mrs. Cosbie will reside in Berkeley.

Greek Sororities On Eugene Campus Announce Pledges

With the end of formal "rushing" Wednesday on the University of Oregon campus at Eugene by national Greek letter sororities, the names of eight Medford co-eds were announced as pledges. Informal rushing continues throughout the year and additional pledges are announced from time to time.

Pledged to Alpha Delta Pi were Miss Ann Scrippler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Scrippler, 60 Rose avenue, and Miss Betty Rose, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Rose, 358 South Oakdale avenue. Three Medford girls pledged Alpha Phi, the three being the Misses Dorothy and Virginia Hayes, daughters of Dr. and Mrs. James C. Hayes, 835 East Main St., and Miss Jean Walters, daughter of Major Eugene P. Walters of Camp White. Miss Betty Frey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Frey, 820 East Main St.; Miss Susan Vilas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Vilas, 1018 South Oakdale Ave., and Miss Eva Hedrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hedrick, 503 South Oakdale Ave., are pledges of Pi Beta Phi.

Lady Elks Plan First Meeting

Another women's organization which resumes its fall program of activities this coming week is the Medford Lady Elks. The first meeting has been set for Tuesday afternoon, October 5, at the temple. Dessert will be served at two o'clock and will be followed by bridge, other card games or any game in which the members are interested.

Mrs. Melvin Plaskett, chairman of the group this year, states that women should make up tables for cards or other games in advance. Wives of all members of the local Elks club are welcome to attend and the chairman hopes that the first meeting will be well attended. Advance reservations are not necessary.

The Medford Lady Elks meet the first and third Tuesday afternoon of each month.

Electa Members Are Entertained By Victory Club

Electa club members and all Eastern Star non-affiliated members in the city were entertained at a luncheon Wednesday at the Masonic building on West Main street given by members of the Victory club of O.E.S. The committee in charge was composed of the officers of Reames chapter of O.E.S., with Mrs. A. W. Denney as chairman.

Lunch was served from tables centered with bowls of fall fruits and vegetables. After luncheon, each one present read a verse attached to the favors.

At cards Mrs. George W. Neilson, president of Electa club, was awarded the pinocchio prize. Mrs. Fred Purdin first, and Mrs. Josephine Clark, second bridge prizes. Mrs. Edith Olsen was also awarded a prize and Miss Ann Detweiler received a gift for being the farthest from her home chapter.

Mrs. Maude Swan of Paonia, Colo., Mrs. Lorena Simmons of Oakland, Calif., were among those present, as well as Mrs. Elton Waldron, worthy matron of Adair chapter of Jacksonville and Mrs. Lilly Holt, worthy matron of Nevita chapter, Central Point.

During the afternoon a program of vocal numbers was given by Mrs. Elsie Carlton Strang, accompanied by Mrs. O. C. Failing, who is a member of the Yreka chapter.

Christening Rites For Emmens Infant Sunday At Church

James Jocelyn Emmens, nine-months-old son of Capt. and Mrs. T. H. Emmens, was christened at a service at St. Mark's Episcopal church last Sunday. The service was performed by the Rev. Francis Ball, rector of Grants Pass Episcopal church.

Godmother for the infant was Mrs. Russell D. Davis and godfathers were Charles Clay, Jr., Medford, and Dr. Jack Gules of Portland. In the absence of Dr. Gules, John Day of Medford acted as proxy godfather.

The child's father was not present for the service since he is stationed in North Africa with the U. S. army medical corps. Young James is the grandson of Mrs. J. J. Emmens, 1443 East Main St., and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Inch, 602 Catherine St. Mrs. Emmens and her son are making their home with Mr. and Mrs. Inch during the absence of Capt. Emmens.

Zonta Clubs Plan District Meeting

Plans for attending a district convention of Zonta clubs were made at the meeting of the Medford club held Monday at the Girls' Community club. The conference is to be held in Eugene, Oct. 16 and 17, and is to be attended by a large group from here.

A guest of the club was Miss Hazel Cook of Portland. Miss Cook is president of the Portland club.

Hostesses for the luncheon meeting were Mrs. Effie Kurtz and Mrs. Katherine Satterlee.

Women Of Rotary Meet Wednesday At Gilstrap Home

Medford Women of Rotary will open the group's fall program with a covered dish luncheon Wednesday afternoon of this coming week at the home of Mrs. Ernest R. Gilstrap, 35 Geneva St. The luncheon will be at 1 o'clock and hostesses for the afternoon will be Mrs. Gilstrap and retiring and incoming officers.

Retiring officers are Mrs. Stanley E. Phillips, president, Mrs. Melvin R. Plaskett, vice-president and Mrs. Martin Sands, secretary-treasurer. The new officers are Mrs. Leonard Mayfield, president; Mrs. Ray Wright, vice-president and Mrs. Kenneth Denman, secretary and treasurer.

The affair will be between the hours of 3 and 5 o'clock.

The new president, Mrs. Mayfield, states that the organization will meet this year the first Wednesday of each month at the homes of members and that in addition to the group's social activities the usual program of philanthropic projects will be carried out.

Second Meeting Of Garden Club To Be Thursday

Mrs. W. C. Rookard, Mrs. Martin Heitkamp and Mrs. D. R. Wood will be on the program for the second meeting of the Medford Garden club which will be held Thursday afternoon of this week at the Girls' Community club on North Bartlett avenue. The meeting will be at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. Rookard will talk on conservation of fruit. Mrs. Heitkamp will exhibit tuberous begonias and will give a talk on their history. Mrs. Wood will present the club's usual feature of a 10-minute talk on horticulture.

Mrs. O. H. Brenneman is in charge of entertainment for the afternoon.

All Garden club members are urged to attend and others interested in flowers and desiring to join the group are invited.

Miss Gaddis Leaves For Oregon College

Miss Dorothy Gaddis left Friday night for Corvallis, where she will enroll for her senior year in home economics at Oregon State college. She was accompanied north by her mother, Mrs. Earl Gaddis, who continued on to Portland where she will stay for the coming month to transact business. The Gaddis family resides at 609 East Main street.

Miss Vera Humphrey To Address Council
