Scout Leaders To Make Plans For Activities

Two meetings for Girl Scout leaders are scheduled for this coming week. Monday afternoon leaders in intermediate and senior troops are meeting at 1:30 o'clock at the Scout house, and Wednesday afternoon Brownie troop leaders are having their first training session at the Scout house at 1:30 o'clock.

At the Monday meeting plans will be made for the annual Girl Scout week and Scouts' Own Sunday, which is to be October 31. The songs and ceremonies will be planned and practiced. In addition Community service projects for the year will be outlined. Troop committee members and mothers are invited to attend this meeting to assist in the special program.

Hostesses for the social hour following will be Mrs. Paul E. Holderness of Gold Hill, Mrs. C. C. Sater and Mrs. O. W. Matheny.

At the Wednesday meeting plans will be made for a Brownie Revel and practice of songs and ceremonies for Scouts' Own Sunday held. Troop committee members and mothers of girls in the third and fourth grades who are interested in assisting in these special programs are invited to attend this meeting.

Mrs. Marjorie Pena Hopkins, executive secretary of the Girl Scout organization, will return from Tacoma today where she has been attending a northwest regional convention for Girl Scout executives.

Methodist Women Meet At Church

Women's Society for Christian Service met Tuesday afternoon at the Methodist church and with a good attendance to begin their fall activities. The program planned for October includes a combined rummage sale to be given by the entire group Oct. 29-30, and the annual bazaar will be held Dec. 3.

Just Folks Circle served refreshments. Mrs. C. A. Meyers gave an account of Christian work in Cuba and Puerto Rico, outposts of missionary work which are of great interest now.

Birthday Party Given For Son

Neighborhood children were invited to the home of Lt. and Mrs. Philip Steere, 1012 East Jackson Blvd., last Saturday afternoon to celebrate the birthday of their son, Philip. Little Philip was two years old that day.

The children played games, several being presented with prizes, and at the end of the afternoon birthday cake and ice cream were served by Mrs. Steere.

Mrs. Durno, Daughters Return Here To Live

Mrs. E. R. Durno and her three daughters have returned to Medford to reside at the family residence, 1913 Hillcrest road. The family lived for several months at San Antonio, Tex., going there last February when Capt. Durno was ordered to Ft. San Houston where he was stationed with the medical corps. At the time his family left San Antonio it was understood that Capt. Durno's unit would leave soon for overseas duty.

Easter Women Guests At A. D. Elliott Home

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Elliott, Stewart avenue and Thomas Road, have as their house guests Miss Katherine Beckwith of Essex, Conn., and Miss Janie Kremsler, Westbrook, Conn. Miss Beckwith is a cousin of Mrs. Elliott. The visitors, both of whom are registered nurses, are enthusiastic about the Rogue River valley and today are visiting Crater Lake with the Elliotts. They will leave tomorrow.

Club to Resume

Bridge fans of the valley will resume play with the Medford Duplicate Bridge club this coming Tuesday night at the Hotel Medford. In addition to members who have played with the club for the past several seasons, an invitation is being extended to servicemen and their wives to play this coming season.

Play is to start at 7:45 and those planning to play are asked to be in their seats by that time. Those planning to play are asked to secure partners.

Farewell Parties Mark Departure Of Three Officers

Three Camp White officers, Col. Warren S. Hood, Maj. Albert Frank and Capt. George C. Hester were tendered farewells by their fellow officers at the post last week since all are going on inactive duty at this time. Col. and Mrs. Hood and Capt. and Mrs. Hester have already left the city, the Hoods to Pennsylvania and the Hesters to Los Angeles, while Maj. and Mrs. Frank will leave this coming Wednesday for Detroit, Mich., where they previously lived.

Col. Hood came to Camp White in May of 1942 and is in the quartermaster's corps, Maj. Frank arrived May 1st of 1942, being one of the first three officers to arrive here, and Capt. Hester has been at the post 11 months. Maj. Frank was the first commanding officer of the Camp White training cadres and later was made post reclamation officer. Capt. Hester has been property adjustment officer.

Mrs. Frank has worked many months in the office of the local ration board as a volunteer, and at the time of leaving Friday had served about 2,500 hours at the sugar ration desk.

A farewell party was given the officers by the Quartermaster's corps and Thursday night Service Command Unit officers gave a farewell dinner at the Officers' club for the three men.

Montana Man Visitor At McAllister Home

John M. Sullivan of Butte, Mont., arrived last Wednesday to spend two weeks visiting his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McAllister of 1024 East Jackson boulevard.
