Speaker

Slated to speak at the annual picnic and reunion of the Southern Oregon Pioneer Society at Jacksonville Thursday is James T. Chinnock of Grants Pass, who will talk on the History of Southern Oregon. The reunion will start at 10 a. m.

JAMES CHINNOCK WILL BE SPEAKER AT PIONEER MEET

James T. Chinnock, Grants Pass attorney and former state legislator from Josephine county, will be the speaker at the annual reunion and picnic of the Southern Oregon Pioneer Society at the old courthouse in Jacksonville Thursday.

J. B. Coleman

The reunion starts at 10 a. m. and all members of the society, descendants of pioneers who came to southern Oregon prior to 1859, are urged to attend by J. B. Coleman, Jackson county judge and president of the society.

Chinnock will talk on the History of Southern Oregon, tracing its progress from the days of the early settlers and the roaring gold mining era, to the present time. Mrs. Chinnock will accompany him to the reunion.

The Jacksonville Grange will prepare and serve the dinner.

SALVAGE BOOMS

Erie, Pa. —(U.P.)— A depression-born occupation has given Frank T. Fabish a war-booming glass salvage business. Unable to obtain employment in 1929, Fabish became a junk-pile scavenger and found a ready market for broken and discarded glass, which can be melted and re-used. He now ships the material in freight carload quantities to help win the war.

SPUR TRAINING

Fort Jackson, S. C. —(U.P.)— Men of the 100th Division, recently on maneuvers, were surprised to meet two tanks cruising around the field with the Nazi swastika blazoned on their sides. When the order came to "fire," they put heart and soul into destroying them. Officers had swastika-ed the tanks to give the sham battle more realism.
