

SOCIETY and CLUB NEWS of the WEEK

By OLIVE STARCHER

Nipper-Douglas Rites Are Held Wednesday Night

Miss Nellie Nipper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Nipper of R. 4, became the bride of Frank Douglas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Douglas, also of Medford, this past week. The ceremony was a candlelight service Wednesday evening in the First Christian church, and was read by the Rev. Ward Rice, pastor of the church.

The wedding march was played by Miss Vereba Bailey and preceding the ceremony Mrs. Effie Kurtz sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because". The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin and lace with a fingertip veil. Her flowers were pink and white carnations and rosebuds.

Attending the bride was Miss Opal Bryant, as maid of honor, whose gown was pink marquisette. She carried a colonial bouquet.

William Smith was best man for Mr. Douglas and Joe Douglas, uncle of the groom, was usher.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the Holland Hotel, with the traditional wedding cake being cut by the bride and groom. Mrs. Gerald Bryant and Miss Della Bigham assisted at the reception.

After a short wedding trip to Portland Mr. and Mrs. Douglas will reside here. Mr. Douglas being employed by the Medford corporation. Mrs. Douglas, a graduate of the Phoenix high school and of Medford Business College, is employed at the Southern Pacific railway freight office here.

Reception Honors Prospect Teachers

Prospect — Prospect Parent-Teacher association sponsored a reception for the teachers Oct. 7, in the school dining room. At 7:15 p. m. a chicken dinner was served. The local canteen corps, headed by Mrs. Weldon Zundel, prepared the food for the main course. At the close Earl Ulrich, chairman of the board of school directors, introduced the other board members, and Maurice E. Scheel, superintendent, who in turn introduced the high school staff. Mrs. Frances Pearson, Mrs. Elizabeth Flannery, Mrs. Mildred Petrie, and Milton Anderson, Mrs. Helen Huffman, principal of the grade school, introduced the elementary school teachers, including Mrs. Dorothy Golding, Mrs. Mabel Hundley, Mrs. Marjorie Belden, and Mrs. Mona W. Ferns. Groom singing closed the enjoyable evening.

Leaders Attend AAUW Conference

Mrs. Arthur M. Cannon and Mrs. Justin B. Smith were in Portland yesterday to attend a conference of American Association of University Women members. The conference, for chapter presidents and state board members, had as main speaker Dr. George V. Sheviakov, child psychologist for the school at Vanport, near industrial city between Portland and Vancouver. Dr. Sheviakov spoke on "The Child in War and Post-War School."

Mrs. Cannon is president of the local chapter of AAUW and Mrs. Smith is chairman of the state department of international relations.

OLD-FASHIONED REVIVAL

Charles E. Fuller, Director of Old Hymns and Gospel Singing, KXED Sunday 8:00 P. M. Continuous International Gospel Broadcast

Nile Queen

Queen Obera Dunn of Zuleima Temple No. 13, Daughters of the Nile, presided at the first fall ceremonial of the Temple held yesterday afternoon at the Masonic Temple in Ashland. Mrs. Dunn resides at 715 Pennsylvania Ave., in Ashland and is on the staff of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company in Medford.

Colleen Friend Becomes Bride Of Medford Man

The wedding of Miss Colleen Friend, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Friend of Antelope Orchard, and Maurice Imhausen, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Imhausen, also of Medford, took place Wednesday evening of last week at the home of the bride's parents. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Edwin C. Cox of Pilgrim Holiness church.

For her wedding Miss Friend wore a brown suit with matching accessories and a corsage of gardenias. She was given in marriage by her father. The bride and groom were attended by the bride's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Cummings.

Following the ceremony wedding refreshments were served and the newly married couple cut the wedding cake. Present for the wedding and reception were Mr. and Mrs. Friend, Mr. and Mrs. Imhausen, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Edgerton, Mr. and Mrs. J. Skaggs, Mr. and Mrs. John Cummings, Miss Eula Imhausen, Miss Leola Pool, Miss Marjorie Gabriel, Miss Maureen Friend and Miss Dorla Friend.

Mr. and Mrs. Imhausen will make their home in Medford in the Berrydale district. Mr. Imhausen is employed at Edgerton Motors.

Both the bride and groom attended the Medford schools.

Mrs. Randles Returns From California Trip

Mrs. J. E. Randles has returned from San Francisco after spending two weeks visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. T. J. Donohue. Other guests of the Donohues were Lt. and Mrs. J. T. Allen of Abilene, Tex. Mrs. Allen is the former Kathryn Shelley of this city and has made her home at Abilene since her marriage to Lt. Allen last February. Lt. Allen is in the administrative branch of the medical replacement training center at Camp Berkeley, Tex. He is the son of Mrs. F. H. Dammasch of Portland.

Valley Extension Unit Has Meeting Thursday

Evans Valley Extension unit met at the home of Mrs. Lottie Martin Thursday, Oct. 7. A covered dish luncheon was served. Next meeting of the unit will be at the home of Mrs. Sylvia Clark on October 21.

Zuleima Temple Fall Ceremonial Held Yesterday

Members of Zuleima Temple, No. 13, Daughters of the Nile, from Medford, Grants Pass, Ashland and Klamath Falls gathered at the Masonic Temple in Ashland yesterday afternoon for the first ceremonial of the fall. Presiding was Queen Obera Dunn of Ashland. This was Mrs. Dunn's first ceremonial since her installation last April.

The ceremonial services, during which degrees were conferred, followed luncheon served at 12:30 p. m. More than 50 women were in attendance for the luncheon and Nile ceremonial.

Memorial Service Monday Evening Honors Rebekah

A memorial service in honor of Mrs. Nellie Wing Albert, who had been a faithful member of Olive Rebekah lodge for 41 years and who passed away at her home in Berkeley, Calif., recently, marked the meeting of the lodge last Monday evening. The memorial was arranged and conducted by Mrs. Carrie McDannal, Mrs. Ethel Weed, Mrs. Grace Hamlin, Mrs. Julia Gregory, Mrs. Viola Aldredge and Mrs. Mary Cave.

Mrs. Albert is survived by her husband in Berkeley and a daughter, Fern, now living in Modesto, Calif.

Also on the program was a report by Mrs. Minnie Bryant concerning a recent visit to the I.O.O.F. Home in Portland. Mrs. Bryant stated that women at the home were in need of pieces of cotton prints for quilts which are being made and asked members to bring these to the next lodge session.

Initiation will be held at the next meeting, Oct. 18, and at that time entertainment is being planned by Mrs. Ethel Pease and Mrs. Katherine Satterlee. On the refreshment committee are the Mesdames Marie Hansen, Telitha Pickle, Veva Wimer, Mary Wiley, Florence Bousom, Bernice Clark and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Harvey.

Coming events also include a rummage sale for Nov. 12 and 13, and a Halloween party for both Odd Fellows and Rebekahs on Oct. 28. It is stated that any member of the Rebekah lodge stationed at Camp White, or visiting in the city is welcome to attend the party or lodge sessions.

Women's Society To Observe Day

The Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church will observe Charter Day Friday, Oct. 15, at the church parlors. The society was organized three years ago, following the union of the three branches of the Methodist church.

The program, to begin at 2:30 p. m., will be followed by a tea, honoring especially the charter members. All members and friends are invited to attend.

Mrs. Lulu Saulsberry Returns From Vacation

Mrs. Lulu Saulsberry of Jacksonville has returned home after spending two weeks at Santa Ana, Calif., where her son, John M. Saulsberry, is an aviation cadet at the Santa Ana army air base. While in the south Mrs. Saulsberry also visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rowland W. Hudson, and Mrs. Hudson's mother, Mrs. Amelia Elmer, in Alhambra. The Elmers were former residents of Jacksonville where Mrs. Hudson will be remembered as Miss Adale Elmer.

Officers' Wives October Luncheon Is Held Tuesday

Wives of officers of the 83rd General hospital unit at Camp White, headed by Mrs. Edwin H. Thornhill, were in charge of arrangements for the October luncheon and meeting of the Camp White Medical Department Officers' Wives group, held last week. The affair was Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank T. Chamberlin, 1114 South Oakdale avenue.

Mrs. Thornhill was assisted by Mrs. M. L. Steffl, as food chairman, and Mrs. L. M. Barger, who was in charge of decorations. Serving with Mrs. Steffl were Mrs. M. M. Kuhn, Mrs. H. B. McBride, Mrs. W. C. Agster, whose husband is with the 80th hospital unit, and Mrs. W. R. Miller, whose husband is with the Station hospital staff. Assisting Mrs. Barger were Mrs. E. A. Erickson and Mrs. E. W. Schneider.

The decorative motif for the house and garden, where lunch was served, had a patriotic theme and as a fitting part of the program, a "baby bond" auction was held. The auction was in charge of Mrs. W. L. Thompson, Mrs. James Hepplewhite, Mrs. William Levin and Mrs. Thomas R. Evans. Bonds went to Mrs. J. L. Gilbert and Mrs. Gale Rice.

During the afternoon a business meeting was held with reports by the secretary-treasurer and a reminder from the president concerning the work days which many of the women spend each week at Camp White performing tasks for the Station hospital. Among other projects, the group is endeavoring to complete equipping of the nurses' quarters.

Speaking also were Capt. Beatrice Darr, head nurse of the Station hospital, and Col. F. T. Chamberlin, medical director of Camp White, who spoke of the value and importance of the work being done by this group. The afternoon closed with bridge, prizes going to Mrs. R. O. Anslow, Mrs. James Hepplewhite and Mrs. Herbert L. Mattox, and bingo, at which Mrs. Ginsberg won a prize.

Among the 70 women in attendance were about 15 recent arrivals in the city who had not attended previous meetings of this group.

Annual Banquet Is Given Monday By Church Guild

Crater Lake Guild of the Presbyterian church held its annual banquet last Monday evening in the church parlors. The tables were gaily decorated with Halloween appointments, huge sunflowers and fall fruits and vegetables.

Following dinner members and guests adjourned to the fireplace room for the evening's program. A musical program consisted of solos by Miss Jean Farley, accompanied by Mrs. Roberta Ward Bebb, and piano numbers by Miss Betty Evanson. After the music Miss Vera Humphrey, program chairman, introduced the speaker of the evening, Mrs. Fred Rankin, executive secretary of the Jackson county chapter of the Red Cross. Mrs. Rankin gave an interesting and informative talk about the work of the Red Cross among soldiers during war time, particularly among the wounded and prisoners.

Study Club Opens Program For Fall Last Wednesday

Wednesday Study club members opened the fall season for the group with a luncheon last Wednesday at the Holland Hotel. This study club is one of the oldest women's groups in the valley and this fall is entering its 36th consecutive year of activity.

Mrs. Frank Albert, president, presided over Wednesday's meeting and roll call was answered by members telling of their summer activities. Miss Virginia Hammond, a guest, told of her interesting experiences as personnel director of the California Canning company. Miss Hammond is the daughter of Mrs. R. B. Hammond. Another guest was Mrs. A. W. Miller, daughter of Mrs. Bert Lowery.

Members of the committee in charge of the luncheon were Mrs. F. E. Nichols, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Dolph Phipps, Mrs. Wade Crawford, Mrs. Hammond and Miss Helen Bullis.

General's Wife

Mrs. Douglas MacArthur, wife of South Pacific war chief, has had her share of excitement and proved her courage in battle areas. She is with her husband in Australia now.

Program Features Talk and Display For Garden Club

Thirty members of the Medford Garden club met at the Girls Community club Thursday afternoon, with the interesting program planned by Mrs. F. E. Nichols. Mrs. W. C. Rookard spoke on conservation and preservation of fruits and Mrs. Martin Heitkamp discussed tuberous begonias and exhibited beautiful arrangements of blossoms of all colors and sizes. Mrs. D. R. Wood gave a brief talk on horticulture.

The club rooms were decorated with roses donated by Mr. Lester of the Medford Rose Garden, and the tea table centerpiece, a low bowl of red roses known as the Southport, drew considerable attention. During the tea hour Mrs. Heitkamp and Mrs. Wood poured.

Mrs. J. W. Jacobs and Mrs. C. C. Sater were presented with prizes. Mrs. C. H. Brenneman was chairman of the refreshments committee and assisting her were Mrs. W. H. Bailey, Mrs. Olen Arnspiger, Mrs. J. H. Butler, Mrs. H. E. Bush, Mrs. H. E. Cope, Mrs. R. J. Earl and Mrs. Herman Ekerson.

Mrs. Fred Whitman was a guest for the afternoon. Mrs. L. E. Guenther will be chairman in charge of the November meeting.

Lady Lion's Club Dinner Meeting Is Held Tuesday

Mrs. Elwood Hedberg entertained members of the Lady Lions club at her home, 1206 East Main St., Tuesday evening for dinner. Co-hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Claude Holmes and Mrs. C. C. Haggard.

Mrs. Earl Sims is serving as president of the group this year and Mrs. Cliff Proctor is vice-president. Mrs. J. W. Grigsby is secretary and treasurer. Chairmen of standing committees announced by Mrs. Sims are Mrs. Earl Miller, membership chairman; Mrs. R. M. Schino, attendance chairman; Mrs. Lyle Thurman, hostess chairman; Mrs. C. C. Haggard, program; Mrs. Claude Holmes and Mrs. Frank Runtz, ways and means; welfare; Mrs. Arnold Green; historian; Mrs. Leland Knox; war service; Mrs. Michael Beck and Mrs. Elwood Hedberg; transportation; Mrs. Frank Cullen; flowers; Mrs. Proctor.

Medford People Visit Brother in California

Mrs. Adrienne Steward returned Saturday after spending a week in San Francisco where she and Miss Joan Stoehr visited their brother and his wife, Capt. and Mrs. Al Stoehr, who were there on a short leave. Miss Stoehr plans to return to Medford Monday. Mrs. Steward was also on a buying trip for Adrienne's store.

Jack Benny's back! Tune in tonight!

NOTICE

The Apostolic Faith Church Announces

NO SUNDAY SERVICES

due to Refinishing of the Church

Business Women First To Meet At Project Hall

One of the most interesting and unusual recent meetings of the Medford Business and Professional Women's club was held last Thursday evening. The group met at the Girls Community club at 8 p. m. and then went to the community hall on the grounds of the Jackson County Housing Authority project on West Jackson street. The club had the honor of being the first group to use the community hall and its facilities.

Miss Frieda Geners, president, presided over the business meeting, at which time it was announced that Miss Dorothy Stanley had won the 4-H club scholarship given by the club. Also the Lake Creek 4-H Clothing club of which Miss Stanley is a member, has won for the second consecutive year the cup sponsored by the Business Women for outstanding work in 4-H club projects.

Further plans for participation in the observance of National Business Women's Week, Oct. 10 to 16, were discussed. Committees reporting on the progress of these plans stated that they had received excellent cooperation from local business houses, newspaper and city officials in advertising the event.

Guests of the evening were Miss Miriam Burton, Seaman Cherokee Seiler, who gave an interesting account of the training and work of the Spars, and Mrs. Anne Avery of Portland. Mrs. Avery is secretary to United States District Judge Claude McCulloch, who has been presiding over the federal court session here this past week. She is also recording secretary of the Oregon State Federation of B.P. W. clubs and secretary of the Portland club. She formerly made her home in Klamath Falls and has many friends in Medford.

Following the business meeting Mrs. Nina Moore, housing manager for the project, explained the activities and management of the project, then took the group on a tour of the community hall, offices and some of the individual units of the project. Upon returning, Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Clarice Rivers and Mrs. Gladys York served refreshments, using the Halloween motif in the table decorations.

Red Cross Recreation Corps To Meet Tuesday

A meeting of the Hospital and Recreation corps of the Red Cross has been called for 4 p. m. Tuesday, Oct. 12, at the Outpost. The meeting is for Gray Ladies and all other members of the corps.

Medford Teacher Speaks Thursday At Club Meeting

First meeting of the fall season of the Thursday Morning Study club will be held this coming Thursday morning at 9:30 o'clock. During the meeting plans for the year will be discussed and a program outlined.

Speaker for the meeting will be Mrs. Justin B. Smith and his topic will be "Coordination of the United Nations' Foreign Policies." Mrs. Smith, teacher of history and civics in the Medford senior high school, is considered one of the city's best informed persons on foreign policy and international relations and fills many speaking engagements.

Mrs. W. E. Lantis is serving as president of the Thursday Study club at this time. Mrs. Harold Thornhill is first vice-president, Mrs. W. F. Campbell is second vice-president and Mrs. A. A. Seekatz is secretary and treasurer. Mrs. M. N. Hogan is the retiring president. Serving as first vice-president last year was Mrs. Margaret Fabrick. Mrs. William P. Holt was second vice-president and Mrs. Frank W. Humphrey is the retiring secretary and treasurer.

Troutier-Nanney Wedding Service Is Held Tuesday

Mrs. Allie Eveline Troutler and Joe E. Nanney were married Tuesday afternoon of last week. The informal service was read by the Rev. T. O. Satterfield at the Satterfield home, 726 West Fourth St., at three o'clock in the afternoon. A small number of friends were in attendance.

Mrs. Nanney is well known in the city, having lived here for 16 years and operated the Wardrobe Shop on East Main St. Mr. Nanney is a retired railroad engineer of Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Nanney will make their home in Medford at 518 East Main St.

Mariner's Class Party Held At Church Parlors

Fourteen members of the Mariners class of the First Christian church met at the church for the regular monthly party Sept. 29. Games were played during the evening, the affair being in charge of the starboard crew. After a short business meeting, refreshments were served to the members and guests present.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Glenn-Yest, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Burnham, Mr. and Mrs. Price Shafer, Mrs. Eula Foley, Luzena Lewis, Virginia Younger, Claude Haggard, Pfc. and Mrs. Francis Pearson, and Irwin Doty.

Lt. and Mrs. Kenly Arrive From East For Medford Visit

Visitors in the valley this week are Lt. and Mrs. F. Corning Kenly, Jr., who are spending a few days with the lieutenant's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Corning Kenly, Sr., Rt. 1. Lt. Kenly and his wife are enroute to Los Angeles where he will be stationed with the aeronautics bureau of the navy for the time being. For some time past Lt. and Mrs. Kenly have been living in Washington, D. C., and prior to that the officer was stationed in Panama.

The couple arrived in Medford last Sunday and will leave the first of this coming week. Thursday afternoon Mrs. Kenly, Sr., entertained at a small informal tea in honor of her daughter-in-law. The affair was at the Colony Club.

Delta Debs To Meet Wednesday Evening

Delta Debs will meet Wednesday evening at the home of Mildred McKenzie, president. Co-hostess for the meeting will be Betty McKenzie. Several new members were recently voted into the organization.

PIANO

STUDIO

Margaret Osenbrugge

711 E. Main Phone 4256

FUR

Restyling Cleaning Repairing Glazing

Frances Dallaire Phone 2526

72 CAPS 36 days' Supply $1.49
144 Caps 72 days' Supply $2.59
WESTERN THRIFT

ADRIENNE'S

Three Piece Suit Ensembles All Wool Checks

Styled To Star For Many A Season

Meticulously tailored 3 and 4 button suit models. Suit and toppers with velvet collars.

- Black
- Brown Checks
- Blue
- Grey

Sizes 10 to 28 Priced separately

$25.00
$35 • $45

SUITS

In Plain Colors! All-Wool Gabardines, Tweeds and Coverts in

- Blues
- Browns
- Blacks
- Greens

OTHER SUITS Regular and 1/2 Sizes, Styles, Prices

BLOUSES

For dress, sport, and business suit, by such well known names as

- Tailor Maid
- Eclipse
- Wilshire

ADRIENNE'S

Just Arrived! BEAUTIFUL DRESSES

A Very Large Shipment of Lovely

FALL DRESSES Including Black NEW YORK'S LATEST STYLES

Select your early. These dresses are a value that will surprise you.

Regular and Half $8.98 $10.98 Sizes 8 to 22 1/2.

SPECIAL Purchase WOMEN'S COATS

Conservative styles. Black, Brown, Tweeds. 38 to 44.

VERY SPECIAL $21.98 $25.98

USE OUR LAY-AWAY PLAN - OPEN EVENINGS

MILLERS

Near 1st Nat'l Bank

