

Deanna Durbin and Joseph Cotton in Romance on Craterian Screen Today

DEANNA'S SONGS FEATURED; STARS ABLY SUPPORTED

Charles Winninger, Evelyn Ankers in Cast — Gus Schilling Pleases Critics.

Stirring, romance and appropriate, believable drama, have been deftly blended and brought to the screen in the Craterian's new picture, "Hers to Hold," with Deanna Durbin and Joseph Cotton opening today for a three-day run.

Co-starred in a story, remarkable for its timeliness and completely satisfying for its vivid emotional appeal, the grown-up Durbin and popular young Cotton are potent when matched in a picture of the type that "Her's to Hold" presents.

Her new role is by far the most serious in which Miss Durbin has been presented. Though the plot has its lighter moments, musical interludes and other diverting highlights, the bright romantic thread is never obscured.

Deanna's songs include "Begin the Beguine," "Say a Prayer for the Boys Over There" and "Seguidilla."

Charles Winninger, Evelyn Ankers and Gus Schilling have important supporting roles and a large cast include Nella Walker and Ludwig Stossel.

Concise, effective dialogue adds to the film's impressiveness and a feeling of realism has been accomplished through the use of authentic backgrounds which have been photographed with newsreel fidelity.

Dick Powell, Fred Waring Head Cast At Rialto Today

Well timed for these days because of its laughs, songs and dancing, "Varsity Show"—headline on the double bill opening today at the Rialto—is welcomed for its relief from heavy, depressing drama and the presentation of stars of radio and screen.

Headed by Fred Waring and his Pennsylvanians, the effervescent songs and laughs of Dick Powell, and with a supporting cast of lovely ladies headed by Priscilla and Rosemary Lane, "Varsity Show" promises to be a lively, entertaining picture.

On the same program, and filled with laughs and fast, furious fun is the Hal Roach farce, "Taxi, Mister," pairing the hilarious team of William Bendix and Grace Bradley in a tournament of Brooklyn fun. With Joe Sawyer and a laugh cast of musical lovelies, "Taxi, Mister" completes the two-feature song, dance and fun program with whoops and hollers.

Added are latest news events and selected short subjects.

SHOWS WAY
Cleveland, O.—(U.P.)—Charles F. Johnson, 80-year-old former retired dry goods salesman, came out of retirement in February and got a job in the test department of the Pump Engineering Service Corp. The octogenarian hasn't missed a day's work and has been only tardy once. He was late during a streetcar strike when he was forced to walk from his home a mile away.

MEDAL TO MASON
Stockbridge, Mass.—(U.P.)—U. S. Rep. Allen T. Treadway, R., Mass., has been presented a 50-year medal by the Massachusetts Grand Lodge of Masons in honor of his half century as a Mason.

SOMERVELL PAYS M'ARTHUR VISIT

Allied Headquarters, Southwest Pacific, Oct. 10—(U.P.)—Lt. Gen. Brehon B. Somervell, chief of the army services of supply, conferred with Gen. Douglas MacArthur on a recent visit to supply installations in Australia and New Guinea.

He did not permit any interviews or press conferences.

General MacArthur's spokesman said "Somervell's trip to Australia merely was in the course of a routine inspection of supply establishments. He is visiting all war zones. No special significance should be attached to his Australian visit."

Judy Canova in Rialto Picture

Adding to a growing list of fun films playing at the Rialto, the hilarious "Sleepy Lagoon" opens Wednesday with Judy Canova heading the cast of funmakers. Also playing will be fighting Buster Crabbe in his latest western, "Western Cyclone."

LANDLORD'S OKEH NEEDED IN SWAPS

In answer to inquiries made by local landlords and tenants, the rent division of the Office of Price Administration in Portland has issued the following information to the Mail Tribune:

"A tenant moving from a rented housing accommodation either permanently or temporarily, who seeks to pass the quarters on to other persons, should first examine carefully his rental agreement with the owner or landlord. He may or
