

LOCAL and PERSONAL

To Portland—Jean Brault, 208 Summit avenue, was called to Portland yesterday by illness of his father.

Rummage Sale—St. Anne's Altar society will hold a rummage sale Oct. 15 and 16 in the former Al Piche building, 304 East Main street.

Correction—The name of Mrs. Dorothy Jackson has been added to the list of graduates of the Aircraft Recognition school published previously, who completed the course last week.

Orput Home—Don Orput, publisher of the Grants Pass Bulletin, has returned to his home in Grants Pass following an operation in a Eugene hospital. He is still confined to his home.

Rummage Sale—Daughters of the Nile Patrol will sponsor a rummage sale on the ground floor of the Masonic Temple building at Main and Holly streets Saturday from 9 a. m. to 5:30 p. m.

In India—Word has been received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Martin of Medford, that Pfc. Lou L. Martin is "somewhere in India." Young Martin graduated from Medford high school in 1941 and is now serving in the air corps.

Meeting Tomorrow—Phoenix Thursday club will hold its first meeting of the winter season at the home of Mrs. Mathew Barkley, 1104 East Eleventh street in Medford, Thursday evening. A covered dish dinner will be served at 7 p. m. All members are invited to be present.

Eagles Meeting—Crater Lake Aerle No. 2093 and Auxiliary, Fraternal Order of Eagles, will meet Thursday at 8 p. m. in the armory. Committee reports on housing will be heard and an initiation held. A dance will conclude the evening. President Ora E. G. Meyers requests that all members be on time.

Club Meets—Two talks were given at the meeting of the Medford Toastmaster's club held Monday evening at the Jackson hotel. Milo M. Ross spoke on "Juvenile Delinquency" and D. D. Davis on "Did We Do Right?" Dr. F. J. Moffatt presided as toastmaster of the evening. The Jackson hotel has been selected as the new meeting place of the organization.

Barbecue Pit—S. D. Woodhouse applied at the city building inspector's office yesterday for a permit to construct a barbecue pit on the ground floor of the Liberty building, 201 East Main street at a stated cost of $5,000. T. A. Giebler of 108 Mistletoe street applied for a permit to reroof his residence and build a new chimney at a stated cost of $175.

W. C. T. U. To Meet—At the meeting of the Medford W. C. T. U. tomorrow afternoon at the Baptist church, representatives of several local churches will speak on the work which their church does among men of the army and navy. Maj. Brown of the Salvation Army will lead devotions and Dr. Susie V. Standard will preside. The meeting will open at 2 p. m.

Leaves For Kansas—L. D. Hodgkins left Monday night for Baxter Springs, Kan., to accompany the body of his mother, Anna Dale Hodgkins, there for interment. Mrs. Hodgkins, who had made her home here with her son for the past 11 years, died Saturday at the age of 91 years. Mr. Hodgkins, who has not visited in Baxter Springs, his former home, for 16 years, plans to remain there about a month.

Barbecue Pit—S. D. Woodhouse applied at the city building inspector's office yesterday for a permit to construct a barbecue pit on the ground floor of the Liberty building, 201 East Main street at a stated cost of $5,000. T. A. Giebler of 108 Mistletoe street applied for a permit to reroof his residence and build a new chimney at a stated cost of $175.

W. C. T. U. To Meet—At the meeting of the Medford W. C. T. U. tomorrow afternoon at the Baptist church, representatives of several local churches will speak on the work which their church does among men of the army and navy. Maj. Brown of the Salvation Army will lead devotions and Dr. Susie V. Standard will preside. The meeting will open at 2 p. m.

Leaves For Kansas—L. D. Hodgkins left Monday night for Baxter Springs, Kan., to accompany the body of his mother, Anna Dale Hodgkins, there for interment. Mrs. Hodgkins, who had made her home here with her son for the past 11 years, died Saturday at the age of 91 years. Mr. Hodgkins, who has not visited in Baxter Springs, his former home, for 16 years, plans to remain there about a month.

Barbecue Pit—S. D. Woodhouse applied at the city building inspector's office yesterday for a permit to construct a barbecue pit on the ground floor of the Liberty building, 201 East Main street at a stated cost of $5,000. T. A. Giebler of 108 Mistletoe street applied for a permit to reroof his residence and build a new chimney at a stated cost of $175.

W. C. T. U. To Meet—At the meeting of the Medford W. C. T. U. tomorrow afternoon at the Baptist church, representatives of several local churches will speak on the work which their church does among men of the army and navy. Maj. Brown of the Salvation Army will lead devotions and Dr. Susie V. Standard will preside. The meeting will open at 2 p. m.

Leaves For Kansas—L. D. Hodgkins left Monday night for Baxter Springs, Kan., to accompany the body of his mother, Anna Dale Hodgkins, there for interment. Mrs. Hodgkins, who had made her home here with her son for the past 11 years, died Saturday at the age of 91 years. Mr. Hodgkins, who has not visited in Baxter Springs, his former home, for 16 years, plans to remain there about a month.

Barbecue Pit—S. D. Woodhouse applied at the city building inspector's office yesterday for a permit to construct a barbecue pit on the ground floor of the Liberty building, 201 East Main street at a stated cost of $5,000. T. A. Giebler of 108 Mistletoe street applied for a permit to reroof his residence and build a new chimney at a stated cost of $175.

W. C. T. U. To Meet—At the meeting of the Medford W. C. T. U. tomorrow afternoon at the Baptist church, representatives of several local churches will speak on the work which their church does among men of the army and navy. Maj. Brown of the Salvation Army will lead devotions and Dr. Susie V. Standard will preside. The meeting will open at 2 p. m.

Leaves For Kansas—L. D. Hodgkins left Monday night for Baxter Springs, Kan., to accompany the body of his mother, Anna Dale Hodgkins, there for interment. Mrs. Hodgkins, who had made her home here with her son for the past 11 years, died Saturday at the age of 91 years. Mr. Hodgkins, who has not visited in Baxter Springs, his former home, for 16 years, plans to remain there about a month.

Barbecue Pit—S. D. Woodhouse applied at the city building inspector's office yesterday for a permit to construct a barbecue pit on the ground floor of the Liberty building, 201 East Main street at a stated cost of $5,000. T. A. Giebler of 108 Mistletoe street applied for a permit to reroof his residence and build a new chimney at a stated cost of $175.

W. C. T. U. To Meet—At the meeting of the Medford W. C. T. U. tomorrow afternoon at the Baptist church, representatives of several local churches will speak on the work which their church does among men of the army and navy. Maj. Brown of the Salvation Army will lead devotions and Dr. Susie V. Standard will preside. The meeting will open at 2 p. m.

Leaves For Kansas—L. D. Hodgkins left Monday night for Baxter Springs, Kan., to accompany the body of his mother, Anna Dale Hodgkins, there for interment. Mrs. Hodgkins, who had made her home here with her son for the past 11 years, died Saturday at the age of 91 years. Mr. Hodgkins, who has not visited in Baxter Springs, his former home, for 16 years, plans to remain there about a month.

Barbecue Pit—S. D. Woodhouse applied at the city building inspector's office yesterday for a permit to construct a barbecue pit on the ground floor of the Liberty building, 201 East Main street at a stated cost of $5,000. T. A. Giebler of 108 Mistletoe street applied for a permit to reroof his residence and build a new chimney at a stated cost of $175.

W. C. T. U. To Meet—At the meeting of the Medford W. C. T. U. tomorrow afternoon at the Baptist church, representatives of several local churches will speak on the work which their church does among men of the army and navy. Maj. Brown of the Salvation Army will lead devotions and Dr. Susie V. Standard will preside. The meeting will open at 2 p. m.

Leaves For Kansas—L. D. Hodgkins left Monday night for Baxter Springs, Kan., to accompany the body of his mother, Anna Dale Hodgkins, there for interment. Mrs. Hodgkins, who had made her home here with her son for the past 11 years, died Saturday at the age of 91 years. Mr. Hodgkins, who has not visited in Baxter Springs, his former home, for 16 years, plans to remain there about a month.

CALENDAR

Wednesday
7:30 p. m.—Chrysanthemum circle No. 84, N.O.W., K. of P. hall, potluck lunch.
8:00 p. m.—American Legion auxiliary, armory.

Thursday
9:30 a. m.—Thursday Morning Study club, Girls' Community club. Speaker, Mrs. Justin Smith, "Coordination of the United Nations' Foreign Policies."
1:00 p. m.—Loyalty circle of Methodist church, home of Mrs. Louis C. Kirby, 27 North Orange street, luncheon. Assistant hostesses, Mrs. John Carter and Mrs. Ray Harrison.
1:00 p. m.—Medford Sojourners club, Girls' Community club, for dessert. Guest day and "Barter Day." Phone Mrs. Charles Harkins, 3428, for reservations.
2:00 p. m.—W.C.T.U., at Baptist church.
8:00 p. m.—Crater Lake Aerle No. 2093 and auxiliary, Fraternal Order of Eagles, armory. Initiation and dance.
8:00 p. m.—Past Noble Grand club, Girls' Community club, Friday.
10:30 a. m.—Phoenix Extension unit, home of Mrs. Paul Freer, Anderson Creek Road. Subject, "Short Cuts in Meat Preparation."
2:30 p. m.—Woman's Society of Christian Service of Methodist church, church parlors. "Charter Day" program, followed by tea.

In Hospital—Miss Maureen Bradbury, former Medford resident, is seriously ill in the Jackson Lake hospital, Oakland, Cal., according to word received here from a neighbor of Miss Bradbury.

Hagen Here—Bill C. Hagen, seaman second class, arrived in Medford Tuesday morning from the naval training station at Faragut, Idaho, for a two-weeks' furlough. He was accompanied home from Portland by Mrs. Hagen, who went north last Friday to meet her husband.

Burdett Promoted—Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Burdett, 327 West Eighth street, have received word of the promotion of their son, Tommie, to first class aviation metalsmith in the navy. He has been in the navy two years and is stationed in Hawaii. Burdett's brother, Charles Robert Burdett, is also stationed in Hawaii with the navy and is a first class baker.

Examiner Coming—A traveling examiner of operators and chauffeurs will be in the K. P. hall Friday and Saturday of this week between the hours of 9 a. m. and 5 p. m., according to an announcement from the office of the secretary of state. All those wishing permits or licenses to drive cars are asked to get in touch with the examiner during these hours.

Barbecue Pit—S. D. Woodhouse applied at the city building inspector's office yesterday for a permit to construct a barbecue pit on the ground floor of the Liberty building, 201 East Main street at a stated cost of $5,000. T. A. Giebler of 108 Mistletoe street applied for a permit to reroof his residence and build a new chimney at a stated cost of $175.

W. C. T. U. To Meet—At the meeting of the Medford W. C. T. U. tomorrow afternoon at the Baptist church, representatives of several local churches will speak on the work which their church does among men of the army and navy. Maj. Brown of the Salvation Army will lead devotions and Dr. Susie V. Standard will preside. The meeting will open at 2 p. m.

Leaves For Kansas—L. D. Hodgkins left Monday night for Baxter Springs, Kan., to accompany the body of his mother, Anna Dale Hodgkins, there for interment. Mrs. Hodgkins, who had made her home here with her son for the past 11 years, died Saturday at the age of 91 years. Mr. Hodgkins, who has not visited in Baxter Springs, his former home, for 16 years, plans to remain there about a month.

Barbecue Pit—S. D. Woodhouse applied at the city building inspector's office yesterday for a permit to construct a barbecue pit on the ground floor of the Liberty building, 201 East Main street at a stated cost of $5,000. T. A. Giebler of 108 Mistletoe street applied for a permit to reroof his residence and build a new chimney at a stated cost of $175.

W. C. T. U. To Meet—At the meeting of the Medford W. C. T. U. tomorrow afternoon at the Baptist church, representatives of several local churches will speak on the work which their church does among men of the army and navy. Maj. Brown of the Salvation Army will lead devotions and Dr. Susie V. Standard will preside. The meeting will open at 2 p. m.

Leaves For Kansas—L. D. Hodgkins left Monday night for Baxter Springs, Kan., to accompany the body of his mother, Anna Dale Hodgkins, there for interment. Mrs. Hodgkins, who had made her home here with her son for the past 11 years, died Saturday at the age of 91 years. Mr. Hodgkins, who has not visited in Baxter Springs, his former home, for 16 years, plans to remain there about a month.

Barbecue Pit—S. D. Woodhouse applied at the city building inspector's office yesterday for a permit to construct a barbecue pit on the ground floor of the Liberty building, 201 East Main street at a stated cost of $5,000. T. A. Giebler of 108 Mistletoe street applied for a permit to reroof his residence and build a new chimney at a stated cost of $175.

W. C. T. U. To Meet—At the meeting of the Medford W. C. T. U. tomorrow afternoon at the Baptist church, representatives of several local churches will speak on the work which their church does among men of the army and navy. Maj. Brown of the Salvation Army will lead devotions and Dr. Susie V. Standard will preside. The meeting will open at 2 p. m.

Leaves For Kansas—L. D. Hodgkins left Monday night for Baxter Springs, Kan., to accompany the body of his mother, Anna Dale Hodgkins, there for interment. Mrs. Hodgkins, who had made her home here with her son for the past 11 years, died Saturday at the age of 91 years. Mr. Hodgkins, who has not visited in Baxter Springs, his former home, for 16 years, plans to remain there about a month.

Barbecue Pit—S. D. Woodhouse applied at the city building inspector's office yesterday for a permit to construct a barbecue pit on the ground floor of the Liberty building, 201 East Main street at a stated cost of $5,000. T. A. Giebler of 108 Mistletoe street applied for a permit to reroof his residence and build a new chimney at a stated cost of $175.

W. C. T. U. To Meet—At the meeting of the Medford W. C. T. U. tomorrow afternoon at the Baptist church, representatives of several local churches will speak on the work which their church does among men of the army and navy. Maj. Brown of the Salvation Army will lead devotions and Dr. Susie V. Standard will preside. The meeting will open at 2 p. m.

Leaves For Kansas—L. D. Hodgkins left Monday night for Baxter Springs, Kan., to accompany the body of his mother, Anna Dale Hodgkins, there for interment. Mrs. Hodgkins, who had made her home here with her son for the past 11 years, died Saturday at the age of 91 years. Mr. Hodgkins, who has not visited in Baxter Springs, his former home, for 16 years, plans to remain there about a month.

Barbecue Pit—S. D. Woodhouse applied at the city building inspector's office yesterday for a permit to construct a barbecue pit on the ground floor of the Liberty building, 201 East Main street at a stated cost of $5,000. T. A. Giebler of 108 Mistletoe street applied for a permit to reroof his residence and build a new chimney at a stated cost of $175.

W. C. T. U. To Meet—At the meeting of the Medford W. C. T. U. tomorrow afternoon at the Baptist church, representatives of several local churches will speak on the work which their church does among men of the army and navy. Maj. Brown of the Salvation Army will lead devotions and Dr. Susie V. Standard will preside. The meeting will open at 2 p. m.

Leaves For Kansas—L. D. Hodgkins left Monday night for Baxter Springs, Kan., to accompany the body of his mother, Anna Dale Hodgkins, there for interment. Mrs. Hodgkins, who had made her home here with her son for the past 11 years, died Saturday at the age of 91 years. Mr. Hodgkins, who has not visited in Baxter Springs, his former home, for 16 years, plans to remain there about a month.

Barbecue Pit—S. D. Woodhouse applied at the city building inspector's office yesterday for a permit to construct a barbecue pit on the ground floor of the Liberty building, 201 East Main street at a stated cost of $5,000. T. A. Giebler of 108 Mistletoe street applied for a permit to reroof his residence and build a new chimney at a stated cost of $175.

W. C. T. U. To Meet—At the meeting of the Medford W. C. T. U. tomorrow afternoon at the Baptist church, representatives of several local churches will speak on the work which their church does among men of the army and navy. Maj. Brown of the Salvation Army will lead devotions and Dr. Susie V. Standard will preside. The meeting will open at 2 p. m.

Leaves For Kansas—L. D. Hodgkins left Monday night for Baxter Springs, Kan., to accompany the body of his mother, Anna Dale Hodgkins, there for interment. Mrs. Hodgkins, who had made her home here with her son for the past 11 years, died Saturday at the age of 91 years. Mr. Hodgkins, who has not visited in Baxter Springs, his former home, for 16 years, plans to remain there about a month.

Barbecue Pit—S. D. Woodhouse applied at the city building inspector's office yesterday for a permit to construct a barbecue pit on the ground floor of the Liberty building, 201 East Main street at a stated cost of $5,000. T. A. Giebler of 108 Mistletoe street applied for a permit to reroof his residence and build a new chimney at a stated cost of $175.

W. C. T. U. To Meet—At the meeting of the Medford W. C. T. U. tomorrow afternoon at the Baptist church, representatives of several local churches will speak on the work which their church does among men of the army and navy. Maj. Brown of the Salvation Army will lead devotions and Dr. Susie V. Standard will preside. The meeting will open at 2 p. m.

Leaves For Kansas—L. D. Hodgkins left Monday night for Baxter Springs, Kan., to accompany the body of his mother, Anna Dale Hodgkins, there for interment. Mrs. Hodgkins, who had made her home here with her son for the past 11 years, died Saturday at the age of 91 years. Mr. Hodgkins, who has not visited in Baxter Springs, his former home, for 16 years, plans to remain there about a month.

THREE PERISH IN COASTAL STORMS

Seaside, Ore., Oct. 13.—(U.P.) Storms on the Oregon coast were known today to have taken the lives of three fishermen with the recovery of a body washed ashore here and identified as Arthur Cannon, 60, of Reedport.

The pilot house and fishing gear of Cannon's tuna boat had washed ashore at Camp Catsop yesterday.

Two other fishermen, Earl R. Olsen of Burns, found drowned aboard his boat and Jess Olden washed overboard from his craft at sea, were other storm fatalities.

BIRTHS

ROMILLY—To Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Trail, October 13, a boy, 9 lbs., at Osteopathic Clinic.

Use Mail Tribune Want Ads.

WARREN LODGE NO. 10, Jackson-villa, tonight. Stated communication by order of W. M.

Too Late To Classify

WANTED—Operator for super-service station, good location, leading brands, good money-maker. Salary or 50% commission. Address Box 4908, Tribune, giving age, references, past experience and phone.

30-35 SHELLS—Yes—I have in my possession 7 Winchester Super-Speed shells, good for seven deer. Will trade for 7 30-30 shells. Call at 35 Geneva, between 5 and 6 p. m.

BIG FUR Alaska, double load $6.50. Medford Fuel. Tel. 3111.

FOR RENT—Excellent lading, timothy pasture for horse. Phone 4858.

WANTED—Girl or soldier's wife to do general housework. Phone 4418.

WANTED—3 or 4-room furnished or partly furnished house by permanent civilian couple. Box 4908 Tribune.

FOR SALE—Man's bicycle. Good condition, new rubber. Rt. 4, Box 171, Medford.

LOST—Baton books 1, 2 and 3, for Vernon and Loretta Stoermer.

FOR SALE—Corner lavatory; also one 8-burner gas plate; large mill-wright tools. Bert McDonald, 104 King.

RUMMAGE SALE—By Pythian Sisters, October 22 and 23, at 125 East 6th street.

NOTICE to Pythian Sisters: Kindly deliver rummage to Ella Stout, Grace Reed or K. of P. hall by October 19.

FOR SALE—1941 Studebaker truck, good rubber, A-1 mechanical condition. $350. Call Central Point 462.

WANTED—Used grain drill. Tribune Box 4692.

WANTED—Someone to buzz pole wood. Rt. 3, Box 653, Eagle Point.

FOR SALE—2 tweed coats, sizes 12 and 14, 60 Rose Ave.

GUARANTEED AUTO PAINTING Motors, trucks, etc., steam cleaned.

SIMONIZING. MITCHELL'S PAINT SHOP, 608 S. Riverside.

FOR SALE—Real mahogany bookcase, $16; baby bathinette, $6.50; rocking chairs, $2 and $7.50. At 1127 W. Main. Phone 4897.

FOR SALE—1 Percheron gelding, 8 years, wt. 1600, sound and true; 1 black gelding, wt. 1400. Good word horses. Sell one or both reasonable. Inquire 1 mi. east Skeeter's Garage. Talent, 2nd house on right. R. E. Kincheloe.

CLEAN, intelligent couple for small country place. General farm work and light cooking. 2 in family. Separate unfurnished modern house and good wages. Permanent position. Tribune Box 3820.

WANTED—Fountain girl, experience preferable. Apply at Clays.

SPECIAL for one week only, 10 cents discount on each sack or block. We have a large supply of iodized sulphur and mineral blocks; also fine-ground, 4-ground, plain or iodized. Roy's Feed Store, 231 N. Riverside.

BUY your salt now. 20 cents discount on every hundred pounds of salt, this week only. Roy's Feed Store, 231 N. Riverside.

HAVE four-room house with washer, refrigerator, electric stove, to trade for same in Medford. Write Captain H. R. Hurst, 625 W. 6th St., Albany.

RUMMAGE SALE will be held by Patrol of the Daughters of the Nile, Saturday, Oct. 16, ground floor Masonic Bldg., cor. Main and Holly. Donations accepted.

ACHING—STIFF—SORE MUSCLES For Quick Relief RUB ON MUSTEROLE

A REAL COMBINATION OF FUN AND ACTION!

TODAY 4 BIG DAYS

JEEPERS! JUDY'S BACK IN A CONVULSIVE COMEDY...THE CANOVA WAY!

PLUS ACTION on the TERROR TRAIL!

RIALTO THEATRE DIAL 4900

HOLLY THEATRE DIAL 5094

Nights Only Weekdays—Starts 6:45

NOW! ENDS TOMORROW

PLUS A Musical Salute to Love!

FRIDAY & SATURDAY

SHE HAS WHAT IT TAKES

with JINX FALKENBURG and

Frontier FURY with CHARLES STARRETT

ROXY THEATRE DIAL 3901

Nights Only Weekdays Doors Open 6:45

Ends Tomorrow Nite

John SUTTON and Gene TIERNEY in Thunder Birds In Technicolor

A TRAGEDY AT MIDNIGHT with Margaret Lindsay John Howard

Fri. Nite & Sat. GIRL FROM ALASKA

Plus WEST OF CIMARRON

TOMATO pickers wanted. Paying 15c lug. Inquire Leo Potter, Box 220, Rt. 2, Rose Lane.

UPPER Applegate Grange dance, Oct. 15. Good music. Refreshments served.

151 ACRES, 5-rm. cottage, very best land in Jackson Co. Free irrigation water for part. Balance ideal for oats, wheat or alfalfa. A beautiful tract of land at $150 per acre, some terms.

Also 3 acres, 4-rm. modern house. Garage, small barn. Irrigated. 2 miles city center. $3000, terms.

Also 3 acres on 99 Highway. Irrigated. 1/2 in. lading clover. Lovely building site. Only $850.

FOR SALE—Simmons spring steel cot. Bert McDonald, 104 King.

WANTED—Gas heater. Wall or ceiling type with fan preferred. Might consider circulator. Phone 2525.

FOR SALE by owner: 6-room modern home, 304 S. Holly. Fireplace, furnace, 3 bedrooms, garage.

WANTED—Small phonograph. Phone 6331.

NEW shipment fur coats. Muskrat, Russian lamb, squirrel locks and caracul. Sower's Fur Shop, 2 miles south Grants Pass, Hwy. 99.

FOR SALE—1930 Challenger Essex sedan, good running condition, good rubber, suitable for panel job; also '40 Zenith, battery, table-model radio. Phone 3445.

FOR RENT—Small furnished apartment, 2 employed soldiers' wives. 415 Edwards.

MODEL A pickup for sale. Good tires. $125. 3rd house on Midway Rd. past the 4 corners. Everett Michael.

WANTED—Part-time janitor for 3 buildings. Cory Cafe, Phone 2546.

1937 PLYMOUTH de luxe coupe. Radio, heater, new paint. 80% rubber, pre-war, $645, terms. If interested Phone 6480.

WANTED—White enamel trash burner, immediately. Will pay cash. Phone 3188.

FOR SALE—World bicycle, balloon tires. 839 E. Jackson.

TRADE—250-3000 Savage shells for 300 Savage or 20-gauge shotguns. Phone 6949.

PUBLIC card party sponsored by Wagona club, Friday night, October 15, Redman hall, 8 p. m. 4th and Apple. Public invited.

WANTED—Local woman, Christian, well known, to fill highly responsible position. Good personality, capable of handling publicity. Some musical talent preferred. Good wages. Give age when answering. Box 4822, Tribune.

FOR SALE—Large synchronous Postal Telegraph electric time clock. Bert McDonald, 104 King.

FOR SALE—Sole sulphur. Last car for the season will arrive soon. Get your supply before too late. Monarch Seed & Feed Co.

CITY TRANSFER & Storage Co. Padded van service for your convenience. Phone 4594. 88 So. Fir.

FOR SALE—Best pulp. Put in your winter supply now. Monarch Seed & Feed Co.

RUMMAGE SALE—Given by women of the Episcopal church, Oct. 15 and 16, at Adrienne's old store building, 21 N. Central Ave., from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. each day.

FOR SALE—Hay rake, almost new, $50. Phone 5325 after 6 p. m.

WANTED—To rent or lease house, small acreage, without buildings preferred. C. W. Thomas, Box 530, Central Point. Phone 137.

FOR SALE—Spring flowering bulbs, daffodils, narcissi, hyacinths, tulips, etc. Monarch Seed & Feed Co.

$100 REWARD for return of large group of keys. Phone 5300 or 9101.

FOR SALE—Baled alfalfa and straw. Monarch Seed & Feed Co.

WANTED—Commercial spraying. Ph 6566. McGonagle.

MOVING to all parts of Oregon. Washington, California, by padded vans. Regular service. Eads Transfer. Dial 2525.

WANTED—Feeder or fat lambs. Write card or letter to P. O. Box 463, Medford, Ore.

PHILIPPI AND ROHR.

FOR oil heaters, new and old, see Joe J. Jones, 423 King.

FOR SALE—Sole sulphur. Second car will arrive soon. Monarch Seed & Feed Co.