FOUND WILDERNESS

Waldoboro, Me.—(U.P.)—Germany apparently had a Goebbels as far back at 1748. This town was settled in that year by Germans, who immigrated to this place with the promise and expectation of finding a prosperous city. Instead, they found nothing but wilderness.

DRIVES AMBULANCE

Albany —(U.P.)—New York state's capitol city has its first woman ambulance driver—Mrs.

Helen Salmond on duty at Memorial hospital. Mrs. Salmond was a volunteer aide at the hospital when she learned a replacement was needed for the man sized job. A driver for 17 years, she volunteered her services, changed uniforms and took over.

"PITCHING" FOR ARMY

Hendricks Field, Fla.—(U.P.)— Back in 1925, Kent Greenfield, then one of the New York Giants' leading hurlers, was serving 'em hot across the plate.

Now a private here, and a mess hall cook, he's once again serving up hot stuff—this time from the base's kitchen.
