TORNADO KLAMATH
TILT HIGHLIGHTS
STATE PREP PLAY

Coaches Say Teams Ready
—Grants Pass Plays at Ashland—Others Listed.

Oregon's high school football state this week-end will feature the clash in Klamath Falls tonight between the undefeated and untied Pelicans and the unbeaten-in-Oregon Medford Black Tornado, with the winner becoming favored to capture the southern Oregon district championship and enter the playoffs for the official state title.

Both Frank Ramsey, Klamath coach and Lorne Arnold, Medford mentor, declared their teams were in tip-top condition for the struggle, which will be played before a sell-out crowd of over 5,000. Klamath, in four games, has scored 140 points to their opponents' 32, while Medford has accumulated 53 points against 20 in three contests.

Another game which is attracting state-wide interest is the Grants Pass-Ashland fracas in Ashland tonight. The Cavemen are unbeaten and untied in three games, while the Grizzlies have lost only to Klamath Falls in three starts.

In the northwestern district, Forest Grove travels to West Linn for a game which will drop one from the unbeaten and untied ranks. Undefeated Milwaukie plays Astoria, Central Catholic of Portland meets Hill Military and Newberg plays Tigard.

Other games are as follows: Corvallis at Salem, Oregon City at Albany, Marshfield at Myrtle Point, North Bend at Coquille, Junction City at University high, Reedsport at Springfield, Cottage Grove at Roseburg, Sweet Home at Lebanon, Camas, Wash., at St. Helens, Hillsboro at McMinnville and The Dalles at Bend.

JUNIORS BATTLE
KLAMATH FROSH
TO 0-0 STANDOFF

The Medford junior high Bulldogs and the Klamath Falls freshmen battled to a scoreless tie at the high school stadium here yesterday afternoon in a game that saw the visitors outplay the locals in almost every department.

Klamath made three scoring threats, the most serious in the second quarter when they advanced to the Medford five-yard line. However, three plays lost 13 yards and the Bulldogs took the ball on downs on the 18 and Nick Greene punted out of danger.

Before the half ended the Klamathites passed their way to the Medford 20, but the gun halted the march. In the third period Klamath fumbled on the Medford 27 and lost the ball.

The Bulldogs showed their only flash of offensive strength in the fourth quarter. A 15-yard run by Earl Stelle on a reverse, and several smaller gains, advanced the ball into Klamath territory, but Stelle on that same reverse, fumbled on the 32-yard line and Klamath recovered. The game ended soon afterward.

AMATEUR HORSE
SHOW SCHEDULED
COMING SUNDAY

An amateur horse show for local riders will be held Sunday afternoon at the carnival grounds at the end of South Central avenue, beginning at about 1:30 p. m. The show will be sponsored by Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dodge of the Dodge Riding academy, who state that the show will be an informal affair just for the entertainment of valley riders and that no admission will be charged.

A similar affair was held two weeks ago and about 50 riders took part. The more or less impromptu program resulted in a lot of fun for both riders and spectators and it was decided to hold a second show. Probable events for the coming show will be a stake race, pleasure horse class event, a potato race, reined horse class and "musical chairs." This last event having produced a lot of merriment at the first show.

At the last show Miss Helen Hinck won first in the reined horse event, Mrs. Bertie Swearingen won the stake race and Tony Boitano the event for Palominos; Dale Smith, Jr., of Sams Valley won first in the men's pleasure horse event, Mrs. Owen of Sams Valley first in the barrel race, Platt Andrew won the musical chair event and Bill Dugan of Sams Valley the quarter mile race.

Sunday's show will be announced over a loud-speaker system by Lyle Fiddler. Anyone interested is welcome to attend, the Dodges state.

ROOSEVELT RAPS
ARGENTINA ACTION

Washington, Oct. 15.—(U.P.)—President Roosevelt today sharply criticized the government of Argentina for halting the publication of Jewish newspapers. He characterized this action as akin to the most repugnant phases of nazism.

"While this matter is, of course, one which concerns primarily the Argentine government and people," he said, "I cannot forbear to give expression to my own feeling of apprehension at the taking in this hemisphere of action obviously anti-semitic in nature and of a character so closely identified with the repugnant features of Nazi doctrine."

Mr. Roosevelt added in a statement that he believed his feeling was shared "by the people of the United States and the people of the other American republics."

GERMAN'S LETTER
REVEALS ROBBERY
OF ITALIAN FOLK

Conquered People Forced to
Bow to Whims of Nazis,
Captured Missive Shows.

With British Eighth Army, Italy, Oct. 15.—(U.P.)—The way German soldiers are robbing Italy and forcing Italians to bow to their whims was revealed today in the letter of a Nazi lance corporal that never reached a mail box.

The corporal was in a paratroop engineering battalion stationed in Termoli, which was captured by the British Eighth army.

The letter, written October 1, was addressed to a friend named Kurt.

Has Glorious Bed
"Things are quiet with us just now," it said. "At the moment we are in a fair-sized town in south Italy. We have a first class hotel at our disposal. I have a room all to myself where I've got everything, including a telephone, and can work away peacefully. . . ."

"I've also got a glorious bed. I had not slept for four nights, so it was just what was needed. "The food is terrific. We live on Italian produce but you had better not ask how we do it. Every day we kill a pig or a few geese. That keeps the kitchen busy for us. . . ."

"We see that they serve us like princes. And I think it is very fit and proper. Italians, the swine, must bleed. We won't raise our little finger. They've got to do everything. . . ."

Letters Unsent
"How is everything at home? I've had no post (mail) from home. I know, of course, they have written. In Rome there are 4,000 letters lying for our division but they are not being forwarded. . . . and it is the same with our mail. We are not allowed to hand in any so there is no point in writing. . . ."

The day after the letter was written, the Eighth army made an amphibious landing at Termoli, captured the town and caught the writer's commanding officer in one of those "glorious" beds, sound asleep.

MANY YOUNG MEN
AMONG REJECTED

Washington, Oct. 15.—(U.P.)—Eighteen and 19-year-old men have been rejected by the army at the rate of 23 per cent for whites and 45 per cent for negroes, according to recent figures compiled by Col. Leonard G. Rowntree, chief of selective service's medical division. The percentage was based on the reports of 45,585 youths examined at local draft boards and induction stations last December, January and February. They were among the first called up after 18 and 19-year-olds became eligible for induction on November 14, 1942.

Rowntree's data was published in a recent issue of the Journal of the American Medical Association. It showed that the rejection rate among the youths was only slightly lower than that among older men.

Army war dogs are trained as specialists for sentry duty, attack operations, messenger service, silent scouts, casualty relief, or as pack and sledge dogs.
