

LEAGUE TO SPUR THINKING ABOUT POST-WAR WORLD

A six-week campaign to start every adult to thinking about the post-war world is to be started by the National League of Women Voters Oct. 15. Locally the campaign was planned at a meeting of league members and interested women held last night at the home of Mrs. Justin Smith.

It was emphasized at the meeting that the league is not so much interested in what the person thinks, but in the fact that he should start to think and accept responsibility for making the future what American citizens want it to be. Leaders pointed out that in a democratic government, the people eventually get what they want but ideas have to be coordinated and impressed upon the nation's leaders.

A series of neighborhood squad meetings is to be held during the local campaign. Groups have already been organized under the chairmanship of Mrs. Leonard Carpenter, Mrs. Justin Smith, Mrs. O. A. Eden, Mrs. E. P. Leavitt, Mrs. Walter Inch, Mrs. I. E. Schuler and Mrs. William A. Holloway and additional groups are being organized among both members and non-members. In addition information about the campaign will be given to all members by telephone and through printed material from national headquarters. This latter work will be carried on by a committee composed of Mrs. Al Seekatz, Mrs. Frank Humphrey and Mrs. Richard Payne.

JITTERY JAPANESE JUMP OFF CLIFF

With Australian Troops in New Guinea, Oct. 15.—(U.P.)—Panic-stricken Japanese troops leaped headlong over the edge of a 150-foot precipice to their deaths when Australian infantrymen stormed their mountain positions one night this week.

The Australians, driving down the Ramu valley toward the enemy coastal base at Madang, charged up the steep slopes of a mountain ridge under cover of darkness and bayoneted the surprised Japanese in their foxholes.

Crazed with fear, many of the surviving Japanese dived head first over the edge of the cliff.

One Japanese soldier, crying with fear, thrust his head into a foxhole and began tossing out grenades between his legs, like a dog digging in the dirt. An Australian bayoneted him and tossed him over the precipice.

$4,450 BUMP FOR BUBBLE DANCER

Hollywood, Oct. 15.—(U.P.)—The fan and bubble dancing business today let one of its leading exponents, Sally Rand, down with a $4,450 bump.

The blond Miss Rand was declared the loser in a suit brought by Mrs. Olive I. Kephart, attorney's assistant, who said she loaned Miss Rand that amount, plus $1,800, on February 27, 1940.

The money, said Mrs. Kephart, was to outfit the Rand troupe for a gala Mexico City opening. Miss Rand's attorney, William A. Christlieb, said that was a bubble that burst.

"When the Mexican tour flopped, how could she pay?" opined Christlieb.

Mrs. Kephart said she had been assigned a claim on Miss Rand's "Nude Ranch" attraction at the San Francisco fair and had received a $1500 payment on the note.
