National Officer Is Honored Guest At Formal Affair

Miss Ora Cox, recently elected president of the National Department of the Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War, was honored at a formal reception given by the members of Elta Deuel Hubbs Tent of Medford yesterday afternoon. The reception was at the Girls Community club between the hours of two and five o'clock.

In the receiving line were Miss Cox, Dr. Susie V. Standard, department patriotic instructor; Mrs. Francis Brisbane, president of Hubbs tent; Mrs. V. I. Margerle, president of the Grants Pass tent and Mrs. Alice Turner, Ashland tent president.

Speaking during the afternoon were Mayor Clarence Meeker of Medford who extended the city's greetings to the honored guest, and E. H. Hedrick, superintendent of city schools. Miss Cox has long been associated with Superintendent Hedrick in the public schools, having served as principal of Medford grade schools for 25 years. Also on the program were Mrs. Eleanor Curry Hamilton and Mrs. Corinne Harwood Robbins, both granddaughters of Union Veterans and Medford teachers, who gave vocal solos.

The reception room was decorated with red, white and blue flowers and flags and the beautifully appointed tea table was arranged with pink rose buds from the garden of Mrs. Clarence Harwood. Pouring were Mrs. Walter Kindred and Mrs. George W. Neilson, assisted by Mrs. Stella Hendrickson and Mrs. Richard Klemm. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Walter Rowley, Mrs. Larry Schade, Mrs. Maude Holmes and Mrs. Oliver Rogers.

About 50 guests attended the reception, including 20 from the Ashland and Grants Pass tents. Greetings from other tents throughout Oregon arrived during the day. Miss Cox became a member of Elta Deuel Hubbs tent early in its organization. She was initiated into the group during the presidency of Mrs. Neilson, who yesterday praised the new national officer stating "through her efficient work and untiring loyalty she has progressed through the Department of Oregon to the highest position of honor by the organization which numbers nationally some 50,000; she is well equipped for the position of National Department president."

Miss Della Shults And Cpl. Compton Married Thursday

The wedding of Miss Della Shults, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Shults, 806 West Main St., to Cpl. Norman Compton, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Compton of Klamath Falls, was an event of last Thursday evening. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents, with the Rev. C. W. Frost of the Apostolic Faith church reading the service.

The bridal party stood by the livingroom fireplace for the candlelight ceremony. Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Martin Girard sang "I Love You Truly" and the wedding march was played by Miss Laura Compton.

For her wedding the bride wore a white gown and a fingertip length veil which fell from a seed pearl crown. Her bouquet was of pink roses and white carnations. Attending the bride were her twin sister, Miss Stella Shults, and Miss Dorothy Young, as bridesmaids. Miss Shults wore a floor length dress of pink and Miss Young's gown was a floor length blue taffeta with net. Each carried an old-fashioned nosegay.

John Friesen was best man for Mr. Compton and Duane Jones was usher.

Following the ceremony wedding refreshments were served and the newly married couple cut the wedding cake.

Out-of-town guests present for the wedding were the groom's mother, Mrs. S. B. Compton, Miss Geraldine and Miss Dorothy Compton and Miss Agnes Penner of Klamath Falls, Miss Laura Compton of San Francisco, Miss Leone Nix and Miss Maxine Slater of Portland. Others present were the bride's parents, Miss Lavena Shults, Mrs. L. Allen, Mrs. C. W. Frost, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Beattie, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Girard, Mrs. Belle Ludwig, Mrs. Sadie Dale, Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Shults, A. Neff, Mrs. Wilmer Wallace, Miss Oretta Jones, Mrs. G. E. Shults, Mr. and Mrs. L. Wallace, Miss Bessie Brown, Mrs. P. Hanlin, Mr. Parker and Mrs. G. Seely.

Cpl. and Mrs. Compton left after the wedding for a brief trip, the bride wearing for traveling a suit of powder blue and a pink orchid corsage. Cpl.
