

RUBBISH THROWER
WAITS SENTENCE
IN JUSTICE COURT

James Green, who was given five days to clean up rubbish he scattered along Ross lane, has performed the task and is scheduled to appear soon in justice court for sentence. Green entered a plea of guilty and Justice of the Peace W. R. Coleman deferred sentence until the accused picked up the assorted debris and the clean-up had been inspected by the county court.

Members of the county court said Green had scattered the rubbish with many old bottles, along the road for 800 to 900 feet. Green told the court he had been hired to clean up the yard of a house on Maple Park court and had hauled the rubbish in a trailer to Ross lane. The sheriff's office and the county court teamed up in the investigation. Green was traced by means of a piece of wall paper and paper upon which items were written. The broken bottles and other glass were held a menace to auto tires.

County Judge J. B. Coleman said he had inspected the clean-up and that Green had done a thorough job.

William Flood charged with speeding a truck at 47 miles per hour on the Pacific highway was fined $7.50 and costs. He was moving his household goods from Grants Pass to Redding and was released to continue his journey with the condition he would pay the fine and costs by November 15.

William E. Longbothorn was assessed $1.50 and costs for lack of an operator's license.

GLORIA SMITH, 16
TAKEN BY DEATH

Gloria Ellen Smith, 16, passed away at a local hospital Thursday morning after a brief illness. She was born in Medford July 1, 1927.

She was a student at Medford Senior high school, and very popular with her fellow students.

There are left to mourn: her mother and stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Sheldon, three brothers, Roy Smith, Salem; Loyd Smith, Roseburg and Robert L. Smith of San Paula, Calif., also one sister, Mrs. Doris Severson, Klamath Falls, and one stepbrother, Dean Sheldon of Medford.

Funeral arrangements in charge of Perl funeral home will be announced later.

DELAY HEARING ON FLYNN DEMURRER

Hollywood, Oct. 21.—(U.P.)—Handsome Errol Flynn today encountered a week's delay in his efforts to sidestep a paternity suit brought against him by Stately Shirley Hassau.

Judge John Gee Clark postponed until October 28 a hearing on Flynn's demurrer which asserted Mrs. Hassau had failed to establish any connection between him and her three-year-old daughter.

Attorneys for Mrs. Hassau will appear in court to seek a similar week's postponement of their client's petition ordering Flynn to show cause why he should not temporarily support Mrs. Hassau and her daughter.

Flynn's demurrer said Mrs. Hassau's complaint made no case at all.

Francisco Solano—for whom Solano county, Cal., was named in 1850—was 6 feet 7 inches tall and chief of all Indian tribes north of Suisun and San Pablo bays.

Yes, Medford's Community and War Chest needs YOUR generous support more than ever before. We must continue the fine work of the six agencies of our own chest, plus the wartime activities under the United War Fund. Some of your money goes to the U.S.O., our boys' "home away from home"—some goes to men in prison camps, some to hospitals and nursing homes for helpless children of war-torn Europe and Asia, some goes for the needs of our own home front. The need is so great—give all you can to the —
