

SOCIETY and CLUB NEWS of the WEEK

By OLIVE STARCHER

Murphy-Applegate Wedding Ceremony Held In New York

Announcements have been received here of the wedding last Sunday of Miss Joan Murphy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Patrick Murphy of Throgg's Neck, New York, to Lt. John L. Applegate, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Applegate, 618 South Oakdale avenue. The wedding took place at St. Benedict's Roman Catholic church in New York City, the double ring ceremony being read at 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

For the service the bride wore a gown of Copenhagen blue velvet. She carried a white lynx fur muff with an arrangement of gardenias. Maid of honor was the bride's sister, Miss Frances Murphy, who wore raspberry velvet and carried a white fur muff with red roses.

Best man for Lt. Applegate was Lt. Eugene Tighes.

Following the service a reception was held at Judge's Riviera. Lt. and Mrs. Applegate are on a wedding trip and will leave soon for the west coast since the officer is to report November 4 at Santa Ana air base in California. Lt. Applegate, until recently with an infantry unit in New York, has been transferred to the air corps. He attended St. Mary's academy in this city as a boy, graduating from the high school, and then attended St. Benedict school at Mount Angel, Ore. His officer training was at Ft. Benning, Ga.

Lt. Applegate's family is one of southern Oregon's oldest and best known, his ancestors having arrived in Oregon 100 years ago this month.

State President Of Women's Club To Visit Group

Mrs. Isabelle Brixner, president of the Oregon State Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs, will be a guest of the Medford club at its meeting to be held November 4. Plans for the president's visit were made at the meeting of the local club last Thursday night at the Girls' Community club, with Miss Frieda Gebers presiding.

Following the business meeting of the program committee, Miss Hazel Swayne and Mrs. Eve Prentice, presented two five-year-old musicians, Sonja Peterson and Susan Brill, who entertained the group with several solo and duet accordion numbers, displaying much skill and stage presence.

Subject for discussion during the evening was "Traffic Control," and what the people on the home front can contribute toward the prevention or elimination of accidents. Guest speaker was Ken Grant, who discussed that phase of traffic control having to do with air traffic, which is carried on by the government for the safety of all aircraft.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Prentice and Miss Swayne.

Surprise Shower At Denney Home

Mrs. Robert Young, the former Bettie Lue Reich, was honored at a surprise shower given by Mrs. Glen Bailey Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Denney in the Oak Grove district. Mrs. Young, whose wedding took place in September, recently returned to Medford to make her home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reich on Stewart avenue, after spending several weeks in Vallejo, Calif., with Mr. Young. Mr. Young, radarman third class in the navy, is now at sea.

Refreshments were served after an evening of cards, and the honored guest was presented with a set of crystal. Invited to the pleasant affair were Miss Betty Carmen, Miss Donna Thomas, Miss Beverly Pearsan, Miss Virginia Sims, Miss Lee McGlothlin, Miss Virginia Lovell and Mrs. Young.

Corporal and Bride

Cpl. and Mrs. Norman Compton were married October 14 at the home of Mrs. M. Sefredo, at 1700 North Bayshore Drive in Miami.

Catherine Ford Is Honor Guest Thursday Night

Miss Catherine Ford was complimented at a miscellaneous shower Thursday night given by Mrs. Charles Gilbert of Klamath Falls, former Medford resident, and Mrs. B. L. Sanderson, at the latter's home, 16 Ross Court. Miss Ford is to be married next month to Major Sam Schlankey, Jr., of the 91st Infantry division.

Bridge was played during the evening, with Mrs. R. F. Kyle taking high honors. Later Miss Ford was presented with her gifts and with a recipe file of the guests' favorite recipes. Supper was served from a table cleverly arranged with pink and white dwarf chrysanthemums, white tapers and bride and groom figurines.

Guests of the affair were Miss Ford, her mother, Mrs. H. L. Ford; her grandmother, Mrs. Roberts; Mrs. Lewis Ulrich, Mrs. Clyde Webb, Mrs. A. O. Tolleson, Mrs. Henry Zacharisen, Mrs. R. F. Kyle, Mrs. Elmer Kyle, Mrs. Hazel Roberts, Mrs. Arvilla Carbiener, Miss Lucella O'Brien, Mr. C. T. Steward and Mrs. Sam Koehler.

National Officer Degree Of Honor To Visit Lodge

Mrs. Lois A. Gelsler, Battle Ground, Wash., national second vice president of the Degree of Honor lodge, and regional director for Oregon and Washington, will be in Medford tomorrow and Tuesday. Mrs. Gelsler will inspect the local lodge Tuesday at a meeting to be held at the K. of P. hall at 8 p. m. Officers of the lodge request a full attendance.

Guests at Perl Home
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Perl and son, Frank, of Chicago, are in Medford to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Perl, Rt. 1. Tuesday the Perls and their guests made a trip to Crater Lake, encountering a snow storm in the park. The visitors plan on leaving Tuesday of this week.

Miss Jeanne McKay And Ensign Racine Married In Florida

Of much interest here are details of the wedding of Miss Jeanne Elizabeth McKay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A. McKay, 1025 Reddy Ave., who became the bride of Ensign Arthur Charles Racine, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Racine of Salt Lake City, Utah, recently. The military ceremony took place October 2 at 8 o'clock in the evening at Trinity Episcopal church in Miami, Fla.

Miss McKay's wedding gown was of white crepe with which she wore elbow length gloves and her tulle veil was draped from a white calot. Her bouquet was an arrangement of Florida gardenias surrounded with small white blossoms and with ribbon streamers. Attending the bride was Ensign Florence M. Babcock of Seattle, Wash., and best man for Ensign Racine was Ensign Alfred D. Kennedy of Georgia.

The reception was held at the home of Mrs. M. Sefredo, at 1700 North Bayshore Drive in Miami.

Mrs. Racine has resided in Medford her entire life and has many friends. She attended the Medford schools, graduating from Medford high school, and later attended the University of Utah at Salt Lake City for three years. There she was a member of Delta Gamma, national social sorority, and of Apmim, honor society. Ensign Racine attended the University of Idaho and graduated from Reed College in Portland. His social fraternity is Sigma Nu. The ensign received his naval training at Notre Dame and Columbia universities and is now stationed in the port director's office of the naval control station in Miami.

Ensign and Mrs. Racine are making their home at 519 North East 72nd St. in Miami.

Mrs. McKay went south with her daughter for the wedding and returned to Medford last Sunday.

Several pre-nuptial affairs were given for the bride before her departure from Medford and she and her fiancé were entertained in Miami prior to the wedding.

Medford Couple Wed In Alturas

The wedding of Mrs. Cordia Deatherage to Lawrence Nash, both of Medford, took place Monday, October 18, in Alturas, Calif. For the ceremony Mrs. Deatherage wore a suit of brown with accessories of powder blue.

Mrs. Nash is the owner of the Harmony beauty shop in Medford. She has made her home here many years and has many friends. Mr. Nash is with the Medford staff of the Office of Defense Transportation. Mr. and Mrs. Nash have taken up residence at Cargill Court.

Recent Bride

Mrs. Frank Douglas, who became the bride of Mr. Douglas at a large wedding at the First Christian church October 6. Mrs. Douglas is the former Miss Nellie Nipper, her parents being Mr. and Mrs. Roy Nipper of Rt. 4. Mr. Douglas is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Douglas, also of Medford. (Photo by Evergreen Studio.)

Past Officers Reames Chapter To Be Honored

Past matrons' and past patrons' night, an annual affair, will be held by Reames Chapter, Eastern Star, this coming week on Thursday night. Planning the program are Mrs. Clinton D. Wood and Mrs. George H. Hiles. The evening will close with refreshments served by the October committee of which Mrs. Florence Butler is chairman.

All past matrons and patrons of the chapter are cordially invited to attend the special meeting. At present 29 past worthy matrons and 12 past worthy patrons are still members of Reames chapter. Present worthy matron is Mrs. C. E. Kunz and E. C. Root is the present worthy patron.

Medford Students Home From University Campus

Several Medford students are home this week-end from the University of Oregon, visiting friends and relatives. Included in the list are Betty Frey, Helen Webb, Ludella Luper, Eva Hedrick, Carol Tengwald, Anne Scripser, Lois Peining, Ann Van Valzah, Susan Vilas, Joyce Utz, Betty Rose, Nina Tuttle and Bob Davis.

Newly Wed Couple Live In Boston; Both Are Doctors

Dr. and Mrs. Max George Carter, who were married September 25 in Boston, Mass., have established a home in that city, both being physicians on the staff of Boston City hospital. Dr. Max Carter is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Carter, 821 East Jackson Blvd., and his wife is the former Dr. Barbara Ford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. W. Ford of Boston.

Dr. Carter this month completes a year as resident surgeon for the Boston City hospital and the first of November reports to the naval hospital near Boston for duty as a navy physician. His wife is resident physician specializing in internal medicine for the city hospital.

Dr. Max Carter graduated from Medford senior high school, the University of Oregon and from Harvard Medical school. Dr. Barbara Carter graduated from Bryn Mawr before attending medical school. The couple visited in Medford in July at the home of Dr. Carter's family.

Georgia Currier Is Honor Guest At Shower Party

Miss Neva Childreth and Mrs. E. O. Reinking were hostesses Friday evening for a bridal shower honoring Miss Georgia Currier, who is leaving this week for Corpus Christi, Tex. There Miss Currier will become the bride of Frank A. Ralston, United States Navy, who formerly resided in Rogue River, Ore.

The shower party was given at the home of Miss Currier's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Currier, at 402 Hamilton St. Games were played and refreshments served. Present were the Mesdames Melvin Cannon, Curtis Fitch, George Childreth, Verl Walker, Howard Glascock, N. Thompson, I. D. Murray, H. F. W. Spilver, Lewis Smith, J. R. Seiler and George Currier, and the Misses Florence Erb, Caroline Leaders, Adabee Seiler, the guest of honor, Miss Currier, and the two hostesses.

The bride-elect has been teaching in eastern Oregon for the past three years. Her fiancé county was a teacher in Klamath county before going into the navy, is a radio technician at the naval air station in Corpus Christi. Both Miss Currier and Mr. Ralston are graduates of the Southern Oregon College of Education and Miss Currier later graduated from the University of Oregon.

Dr. A. A. Soule, M. D.
201 Medford Center Bldg.
Phone 2870
(War Ends—Return to Klamath)

Long Island Girl Is Betrothed To Lt. James Henry

Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Ude of Great Neck, Long Island, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Lorraine Evelyn, to Lt. Rupert James Henry of the United States naval air force. Lt. Henry is the son of Mrs. Rupert James Henry, Sr., and the late Mr. Henry, of Medford, and is now stationed at Oakland, Calif. No definite date has been set for the wedding.

Miss Ude studied at Lasell Junior college, Auburndale, Mass., Adelphi college and the Katherine Gibbs school in New York. Lt. Henry graduated from Medford senior high school and then attended the University of Washington at Seattle where he was a member of Phi Gamma Delta national social fraternity. Lt. Henry has been on active duty with the navy for more than two years.

The Henrys have lived in the valley for many years.

In England, Ireland, Wales, Scotland, Australia, and New Zealand, the crowds witnessing soccer games dwarf the biggest football multitudes of this nation.

OLD-FASHIONED REVIVAL
Charles E. Fuller, Director
Old Hymns and Gospel Preaching
KMED Sundays 8:00 P. M.
Continuous International Gospel Broadcast

FUR
Restyling Cleaning Repairing Glazing
Frances Dallaire Phone 2524

PIANO STUDIO
Margaret Osenbrugge
711 E. Main Phone 4256

ADRIENNE'S A Complete Showing of SWEATERS

All wool, complete with all styles, come and see our stunning new wools.

- Sloppy Joes
- Cozy Cardigans
- Slipovers
- Matching Sets
- Ski Sweaters

Colors—
BLACK
RED
NAVY
ALL PASTEL SHADES

- Styled By—
- Peggy Parker
 - Snyder
 - Tisu Knit
 - Koret of California

$3.98 to $10.98

FASCINATORS

Misty, lacy soft headed neck shawls in a fine fish weave. White and pastel shades.

$1.98 - $3.98

On The Beam With—

Junior Fashions Cream of Junior Classics GAY GIBSONS

- With the new Jersey prints and ever popular "Date Dresses"
- Wool Jerseys with bright embroidery

$8.98

$12.98 - $14.98

See—

See Adrienne's stock of coats and suits... The largest in Southern Oregon. Priced from $18.98 and up... Styles for everyone.

SKIRTS

- Clever 6-button closing
- 32 graceful tuck-gores
- By Koret of California

$5.98

ADRIENNE'S

You Are Cordially Invited

TO ATTEND A

FREE LECTURE ON CHRISTIAN SCIENCE TUESDAY, OCT. 26

8:00 P. M.

Enjoy A Stimulating Lecture Entitled:

"Christian Science: Scientific Mind-Healing"

BY
WILL B. DAVIS, C.S.

OF CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

Member of the Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church
The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM
SOUTH OAKDALE AVENUE

WE HAVE IT!

WHAT?
Christianity in Action!

WHERE?
The Big White Church on North Central Avenue at 3rd Street.

WHEN?
Now! Two Great Meetings Sunday—11:00 A. M. and 7:45 P. M. Tuesday and Friday at 8:00 P. M.

The APOSTOLIC FAITH

Inspiring Music by Large Orchestra and Chorus—
Testimonies of Marvelous Answers to Prayer—
Dynamic Preaching of the Bible
"The Church Without a Collection Plate"