

LOCAL and PERSONAL

CALENDAR

Council to Meet—The city council will hold its regular semi-monthly meeting in Mayor C. A. Meeker's office in the city hall at 7:30 tonight.

Plans Changed—Pythian sisters will not hold initiation to night as originally announced but the order will hold the regular meeting at the K. of P. hall.

Visits in Pass—George H. Emerson, special agent for General Insurance company, with offices in Medford, was a business visitor in Grants Pass Monday.

Unit to Meet—The Home Extension unit of Central Point will meet with Mrs. Downing tomorrow, Nov. 3, at 10 a. m. Members are asked to bring covered dish or salad.

Meeting Cancelled—The regular meeting of the Social Studies group of AAUW will not be held Thursday night of this week in order that the group members may attend the lecture of George J. Roney at the high school auditorium.

Day Changed—The meeting day for Delta Debs has been changed from Wednesday and in the future the club will meet every other Tuesday night. The group will meet tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the home of JoAnn Humphrey, 825 East Jackson Blvd., with Peggy Young as co-hostess.

Arrives at Field—Aviation Cadet Harry Lyle Thurman has arrived at Seymour Johnson Field, N. C., for officer basic training at the pre-technical school of the AAF technical training command there. Cadet Thurman, who entered the service in July of 1942, was a student at Oregon State college before enlisting. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle B. Thurman, 722 West Fourteenth St.

Completes Training—Pvt. Mable Sherwood has completed her training in the WAC motor transport school at Ft. Des Moines, Ia., and will shortly be assigned to a station for active duty. WACs attending motor transport school learn inspection, maintenance and operation of army trucks and motor vehicles, according to a news release from the fort. Mrs. Sherwood's husband, Stanley Sherwood, is in the naval postal service and is stationed at Vero Beach, Fla.

Sees Fichtner—George S. Green of 1410 Euclid avenue, plant superintendent of American Fruit Growers here, returned yesterday from San Francisco where he spent a week on business. While there he attended a dinner in the Palace hotel for wounded soldiers and sailors, sponsored by San Francisco bankers and the Shrine, at which Clyde Fichtner, former Medford traffic officer now in the navy and stationed at Treasure Island, gave a gas demonstration with a squad of six WAVES. Green said the demonstration highlighted an excellent program and that Fichtner was looking very well and sent his regards to friends here.

Women Who Suffer from SIMPLE ANEMIA

Here's One Of the Best Ways To Help Build Up Red Blood!

You girls who suffer from simple anemia or who lose so much during monthly periods that you feel tired, weak, "dragged out"—due to low blood iron—start today—try Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound TABLETS (with added iron)—one of the greatest blood-iron tonics you can buy to help build up red blood to give more strength and energy—in such cases.

Taken as directed—Pinkham's Tablets are one of the very best and quickest home ways to get precious iron into the blood. Just try them for at least 30 days—then see if you, too, can "appreciably benefit." Follow all directions.

DAV to Meet—Disabled American Veterans and auxiliary are asked to meet at the Chamber of Commerce Wednesday at 2:30 p. m. with their official lodge caps. From there, the group will go to Camp White to sell the DAV's "Forget-Me-Not."

Examiner Coming—A traveling examiner of operators and chauffeurs will be in the K. P. hall next Friday and Saturday between the hours of 9 a. m. and 5 p. m. and all those wishing permits or licenses to drive cars are asked to contact the examiner between those hours.

At Nebraska—Harold Trautman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Trautman of Central Point, is studying electrical engineering at the University of Nebraska in Lincoln under an army college training program. A former Oregon State college student, Cadet Trautman worked for the Walker Radio Repair Shop here before entering the army.

To Fort Ord—Pvt. Lee Reynolds of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Reynolds of 36 North Peach street, left Saturday night to report at Ft. Ord, Calif., after spending a 10-day furlough visit with his parents. He had just completed his 17 weeks of basic training at Camp Roberts, Calif. Pvt. Reynolds is a graduate of Medford high, where he starred in sports.

Eagles Meeting—Crater Lake Aerie No. 2093 and auxiliary, Fraternal Order of Eagles, will meet at the armory Thursday at 6:30 p. m. for a covered dish dinner. Following the dinner, meetings of both the Aerie and auxiliary will be held. Both groups are planning initiations, and the business to be handled consists of committee reports. A dance will conclude the evening.

URGES CARE OF HOGS

Chicago—(AP)—Better care of hogs at birth and vaccination against hog cholera can produce millions of pounds of additional pork next year, according to the American Veterinary Medical association. "Strict sanitation will prevent the infections which cause death of thousands of newly-born pigs," the association said.

STINSON FUNERAL TO BE WEDNESDAY

Mrs. Nancy Johanna Stinson, widow of the late Oscar Stinson, passed away at her home, 324 Haven street, yesterday, after a lingering illness. She had resided here for the last 40 years, and was 69 years of age.

Born in Appanoose county, Iowa, Aug. 26, 1874, she came to Medford with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Daily, and was married here to Oscar Stinson, who passed away in 1927.

Surviving are her two daughters, Mrs. William Strode and Mrs. Louis Putman, and grandchildren, Louise Putman and Jerry Warren, all of Medford. Also two sisters, Mrs. A. B. Culey of Medford and Mrs. A. J. Zimmerman of Jamestown, Kas., and brothers, T. W. Daily of Medford and M. L. Daily of Prospect.

Mrs. Stinson was a long-time member of the Methodist church and services will be conducted by the Rev. Louis C. Kirby in the Conger chapel at 10 a. m. Wednesday with interment following in Jacksonville cemetery.
