

LOCAL and PERSONAL

Return—Mr. and Mrs. George W. Howard, 713 West Tenth St., have returned from Redmond, Ore., where they were called by the death of Mrs. Howard's sister.

Permit For Garage—W. A. Whitelaw of 20 South Newtown street applied at the city building inspector's office Wednesday for a permit to construct a private garage at a stated cost of $80.

Bourbons to Meet—The executive committee of the Jackson County Democratic Central committee and leading democrats from all parts of the county will meet at the Plaza cafe in Ashland Friday at 7 p. m.

Date Wrong—The date of the bazaar and cooked food sale of the First Christian church is Saturday, Dec. 4. Instead of Friday as announced in yesterday's issue. The sale will be held at Cupp's Furniture Exchange store, Sixth and Front Sts., beginning at 9 a. m.

Is Commissioned—Horace David Wilson, son of David E. Wilson, Rt. 1, Box 148, Central Point, graduated Nov. 27 from the Naval Air Training Center, Corpus Christi, Tex., and was commissioned a lieutenant in the U. S. Marine Corp Reserve. He received his preliminary flight instruction at the Pasco, Wash., reserve air base.

Wife In Carlsbad—Mrs. Donald R. Marshall is in Carlsbad, N. M., with her husband, Lt. Marshall, recently commissioned in the air corps at Marfa, Tex., and transferred to New Mexico. Mrs. Marshall is the former Mildred Moore and her marriage to Lt. Marshall was an event of early November. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Grigsby, 824 Summit Ave.

Holliness Meeting—Rogue River Holliness association will hold its next service Friday, Dec. 10, at the Nazarine church in Prospect with the pastor, the Rev. Fendal. Major Morgan of the Salvation Army corps has loaned the Salvation Army's bus to transport local people. The council requests that all members and friends make an effort to be at the Salvation Army headquarters, 236 N. Bartlett street at 8:30 a. m. Dec. 10.

Volunteers Needed—Volunteers are needed to assist with the wrapping and mailing of Christmas packages for servicemen and women at the Main Street USO, Adj. Charles K. Cox, director, stated today. The adjutant points out that this work is a great help to the servicemen and is an enjoyable task. The adjutant asks for workers Monday through Friday between the hours of 3 to 5 p. m. and 8:30 to 10 p. m., and Saturday and Sunday from 1 to 10 p. m. The director states that women will do the "fancy" wrapping and that men will be assigned to the heavy wrapping and mailing and that either may be used to compute postage rates.

M. Francis. The colonel, in the army medical corps, is in Sicily and Mrs. Francis is making her home in Portland for the duration. The Francis family resided in Corvallis for many years.

Wins Trophy—New Grants Pass agent for Consolidated Freightways, V. E. "Bill" Falwell, who was employed by the concern for nearly six years in Medford and Portland prior to 1938 when he entered defense work, announced recently that Consolidated Freightways had won permanent possession of the Trailmobile Trophy. The trophy is awarded annually by the Trailer Company of America under the direction of the American Trucking association to the trucking company having the best record for safe operation. Winning the award for the third consecutive year entitles the company to permanent possession. Falwell said. The trophy is awarded not only for safety and service, but on preventive maintenance and better load planning as well. Falwell took over his duties in Grants Pass this week, replacing Lawrence Estes. Mrs. Falwell and their son, Eddie, went to Grants Pass to make their home last winter.

To Meet—The Southern Oregon Bar Association will meet at the home of William Briggs, Ashland city attorney, on the Pacific highway south of Ashland Saturday night. Circuit Judge H. K. Hanna is expected to attend and possibly J. O. Bailey, chief justice of the Oregon supreme court.

ORA HOUSTON OF PHOENIX PASSES

Mrs. Ora Belle Houston, wife of Frank W. Houston, Phoenix, passed away in Grants Pass late Wednesday evening. She had been ill but a short time and her death was unexpected.

She was born at Beagle on December 23, 1896, and lived her entire life in Jackson county. She moved from Central Point to their home on the Pioneer road, near Phoenix, in 1926. Besides her husband, she leaves two daughters at home, Mrs. Carmen Hust and Gloria Jane; her mother, Mrs. Susan Rainey, Central Point; and two sisters, Mrs. F. E. Miller, Central Point, and Mrs. J. B. Hanna, Shady Cove.

Services will be held in Conger Chapel at 1 p. m. Saturday with the Rev. Ward Rice officiating. Interment will be in the family plot in the Central Point cemetery.

WEATHER

Northern California—Mostly clear, but occasional light rains in extreme north coast and in northern mountains tonight and Friday; morning fog. Slightly warmer this afternoon and in north portion tonight.
