

LOCAL and PERSONAL

Here on Business—J. M. Ambrose, who spent a few days in Medford on business, returned this morning to his home in Portland.

In WAC—Frances Anne Fraedrick of Prospect has reported to the Women's Army Corps at Ft. Des Moines, Ia., for basic training in the corps. She was one of eight young women from Oregon in the group. Miss Fraedrick's sister, Jean, is also in the WAC and is now stationed at Spokane.

Return—Col. and Mrs. Oliver L. Overmyer returned to Medford last week after spending over two and a half years in Philadelphia, where the colonel was stationed in the Quarter Master Depot. Prior to that time, they had lived here eight years. They are again living in their home at 610 S. Holly street.

Accident—A Greyhound bus operated by Charles B. Cook of Route 1 struck a parked truck registered to Clendon O. Garner of Junction City on the Pacific highway a mile north of Central Point Tuesday night, according to a report on file today. The report quoted Cook as saying the truck was parked on the highway and that he didn't see it in time to stop.

Plan Party—The Young People's group of the First Christian church is sponsoring a folk-name party at the Lincoln school gymnasium Dec. 10 at 7:30 p. m. to which all young people are welcome. Serving on committees for the party are the Rev. and Mrs. Ward A. Rice, advisers; publicity Derva Sater and Vera Smith; program, Treva Rice and Mrs. Bohnert; decorations, Virginia Long and Shirley Morrow; refreshments, Arlene Troxell.

Hull Home—Sgt. Dan A. Hull, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Hull of 517 S. Grape street, arrived home last night to spend a 15-day furlough visiting friends and relatives in Medford. Sgt. Hull is stationed in a finance detachment at Kennedy General hospital at Memphis, Tenn. He is a graduate of Medford high school, and prior to his entrance into the army in April, 1942, he was employed at the United States National bank here.

In Italy—Charles J. Williams of 211 McAndrews road received a V-mail letter this week from his son, Pvt. Marshall K. Williams, serving overseas with the army, stating that the young man has been "somewhere in Italy" since the first American invasion. Previous word was to the effect that Pvt. Williams had been in North Africa since last February. A graduate of Medford high school in the class of '41, Williams volunteered for immediate overseas duty when he entered the army a year ago. A brother, Warren, has been in the navy for seven weeks, and just last week sailed from the states to an unknown destination.
