

SIX SCHOLARSHIPS
Pittsburgh, Pa. — (U.P.) — Six members of 4-H clubs, an American land army of young men and young women who now are playing a vital role in producing "food for freedom," received $200 college scholarships at Chicago for excelling in rural electrification projects. The award was presented by the Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing Co., which provides trips to the annual 4-H Club Congress for all state winners of rural electrification contests and, in addition, gives gold pins to county winners.

CRAFTSMANSHIP

Lebanon, Ore. — (U.P.) — One of Oregon's oldest barns has been razed near Lebanon and workmen found its corners mortised together and held by wooden pegs and old square nails. The building is on a farm recently purchased by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wagner of Lebanon.

FINDS $100,000

Buenos Aires — (U.P.) — School

Teacher Gabriel Julieta Mailhac left no doubt as to her devotion to Argentine public schools. Senorita Mailhac discovered $100,000 in Argentine notes and bonds in her house, apparently left by an unknown previous occupant. Senorita Mailhac gave the money to the Argentine public school treasury—receiving a gold medal in return.

BUS STRIKE OFF

Tacoma, Wash., Dec. 10 — (U.P.) A strike of Tacoma bus drivers slated for next Sunday has been postponed at least until Dec. 19, Transportation Director Paul Sceva announced today.

COMMIE SUSPECTS BACK

Seattle, Dec. 10 — (U.P.) — Mayor William F. Devin today reinstated 36 civilian defense volunteers whom he said had been dismissed without hearings for alleged Communist activities.
