Moffitt-Prime Rites Are Held At Church Here

Miss Jane Moffitt, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde B. Moffitt, 512 North Holly St., became the bride of Second Lt. Frank A. Prime Sunday, Dec. 5, in a ceremony at St. Mark's Episcopal church. Lt. Prime is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Prime of Seward, Neb.

The informal ceremony took place at 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon with the Rev. George R. Turney, rector of St. Mark's church, reading the service. White chrysanthemums, palms and candelabra with white tapers were used to decorate the church for the wedding. Mrs. Ernest Conrad played a program of wedding music and the wedding march.

Miss Moffitt, given in marriage by her father, wore a suit of watermelon pink wool with accessories of brown. Her flowers were a shoulder bouquet of brown orchids. Attending the bride was Miss Patricia Farrell, who wore a dress of grey with white accessories and a lavender orchid.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Moffitt was given in a dressmaker suit of grey and her flowers were a shoulder bouquet of white orchids.

Major Merrill G. Weller was best man for Lt. Prime and serving as ushers for the wedding were Major W. K. Evans, Lt. Robert Duke, Lt. Robert Hood and Lt. Minot R. Scarpelli.

The reception was held in the lounge of the Holland Hotel which was decorated with white chrysanthemums and white tapers. The wedding cake was served from a table arranged with bouvardia and the white tapers. Lt. and Mrs. Prime cut the first slice of wedding cake and Mrs. Dohi W. Gairbreath finished the serving. Also assisting at the reception were Miss Sally Moffitt, the bride's younger sister, Mrs. H. L. Ford, Mrs. Lloyd Hubbard, Miss Carol Tengwald and Miss Jean Hermanson.

Lt. and Mrs. Prime made a wedding trip to San Francisco and are returning today to make their home at 315 South Central Ave. Mrs. Prime has a large circle of friends in Medford. She is a graduate of Medford senior high school and then attended Post Secretarial school in San Francisco for a year. Recently she has been secretary to Major Weller, head of the Camp White Post Exchange. Lt. Prime is also with the Post Exchange system at the camp.

Lt. James Henry And Lorraine Ude Married in South

Of much interest in the valley is the news of the wedding of Lt. Rupert James Henry of Medford. His bride is the former Lorraine Evelyn Ude, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ude of Windsor Gate, Great Neck, Long Island, and the ceremony took place December 1 at Christ Episcopal church in Alameda, Cal. Mrs. Rupert James Henry, Sr., went south for the wedding and has now returned to Medford.

For the ceremony, read by the Rev. Henry M. Shires, Miss Ude wore a gown of ivory satin fashioned with a full skirt and long train. Her veil, an heirloom used by brides in the Henry family, was of rose point lace held with a cap of the same material. The bridal bouquet was of orchids and bouvardia. Miss Ude was given in marriage by her father.

Only attendant for the bride was Mrs. Arthur Petrecca of Atlanta, Ga., who for the service was gowned in blue and wore a headpiece of lace. Her flowers were yellow roses.

Best man for Lt. Henry was Lt. (jg) John Robinson of the navy medical corps and ushers were Lt. Warren Bayliss, marine air corps Lt. Robert Knowles and Lt. William Joyner, navy air corps, and Lt. Tom Sullivan, army air corps.

For her son's wedding Mrs. Henry wore a dress of purple and gold with a corsage of yellow orchids. The bride's mother chose a costume of rose pink and her flowers were purple orchids.

The wedding, which was at 8 o'clock in the evening, was followed by a reception at the officers' club at the Alameda naval air station, for 150 friends.

Mrs. Henry, Jr., is a graduate of Lasell Junior college, Auburndale, Mass., Adelphi college, Long Island, and the Katherine Gibbs Secretarial school in New York. Lt. Henry attended the University of Washington before going into the navy. He has been stationed at Oakland, Calif., with the naval air corps, but is to be transferred to a new post soon.

The lieutenant has many friends in the valley, the family having resided here for many years.

Newlyweds Leave For Eastern Trip

Eagle Point—Miss Janet Hurd and Capt. Philip E. Thompson were married Saturday, Dec. 4, in St. Mark's Episcopal church in Medford by the Rev. George R. Turney and left that evening for a wedding trip to Chicago. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hurd of Eagle Point. Attendants for the couple were the bride's sister, Mrs. Marion Ayres and Lt. Barnes.

Enroute home Capt. and Mrs. Thompson will stop in Fargo, N. D., to visit Capt. Thompson's father, Philip E. Thompson, Sr. Capt. and Mrs. Thompson will make their home in the valley for the present, the officer being stationed at Camp White with an ordnance battalion.

Mrs. Thompson has resided in the valley for several years and is a graduate of Medford senior high school.

Nurses From Camp To Attend Party

Nurses from the Camp White Station hospital will be entertained by the Medford Business and Professional Women's club for the annual Christmas party of the organization to be held Thursday night of this week. Originally planned for the community house at the Medford housing project, the party is now scheduled for the Girls' Community club and will be at 8 o'clock.

Members are asked to bring two gifts for children.

Concert Season Of Association Opens Wednesday

Music lovers from all parts of the valley are looking forward to the opening of the concert season for the Jackson County Civic Music association next Wednesday evening. First concert of the series is to be given by Sidor Belarsky, distinguished Russian bass-baritone, who is making his first western tour. The concert is to be at the high school auditorium on South Oakdale avenue and opens at 8:15 o'clock.

Belarsky is often compared to the late Feodor Chaliapin and critics point out that Belarsky's combination of a great voice and unusual dramatic ability make him a worthy successor to Chaliapin. Belarsky's appearances, both in concert and opera, have rated much praise from New York critics.

Second on the series of five concerts will be presented Jan. 15 by the Don Cossack's Russian choir. The concerts are open to only members of the association.

Miss Williams, Cpl. Bornofska Wed Last Week

An informal wedding last Wednesday evening united in marriage Miss Cleo Goltz Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Williams of Marshfield, and Cpl. Donald Bornofska, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Bornofska of Racine, Wis.

The double-ring service took place at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Dr. and Mrs. Frederick G. Thayer, 2525 Lyman Ave., at 8 o'clock and was read by the Rev. George R. Turney, rector of St. Mark's Episcopal church. An improvised altar had been arranged at one end of the living room and English ivy, tall candelabra with white tapers and baskets of greens and red berries formed a background for the bridal party. A program of nuptial music preceded the service.

For her wedding Miss Williams wore the wedding gown of white net and lace in which Mrs. Thayer was married. Her flowers were a Colonial bouquet of gardenias and bouvardia. Attending the bride were Miss Helen Brown, wearing a floor-length gown of blue, and Miss Claire Sporney, who wore a floor-length dress of maize color. Both had corsages of roses and pom pom chrysanthemums. Mrs. Thayer was attired in a dress of rust toned velvet.

Best man for Cpl. Bornofska was Lt. George O'Brien, Camp White.

Following the ceremony a wedding supper was served with Cpl. and Mrs. Bornofska cutting the wedding cake. Mrs. Ray Frisbie poured and Miss Elizabeth McCalliard assisted with the serving. Thirty-six guests attended the wedding.

Cpl. and Mrs. Bornofska are on a wedding trip, during which time they will visit the bride's parents in Marshfield. The corporal is on a month's leave and will report to the army in Spokane at the end of that time. Mrs. Bornofska is on a month's vacation from her work as a public health nurse with the county health department and will continue to make her home here for the present. She has resided in Medford for the past two years, making her home with the Thayers.
