State Officers Rebekah Lodge Visitors Here

Mrs. Bertha McCullom of Portland, state president of the Rebekah assembly, and Mrs. Ethel Bailey of Roseburg, state vice president of the assembly, paid their official visit Monday night to Olive Rebekah lodge. Theme of Mrs. McCullom's program this year is "Victory and Peace," her speech being in keeping with the theme.

Three candidates were initiated into the order, Mrs. Maggie Erskine, Miss Pauline Erskine, and G. C. Wilmer. The president complimented the degree staff captain, Bill Dyer, on the excellent work.

A clever skit, "The Spirit of Christmas," planned by Mrs. Ina H. L. girls. Gifts were presented to the state officers by Mrs. Georgia Hess. Music was furnished by Mrs. Ella Gould, and refreshments were served by Mrs. Lucetta Jordan and her committee. Christmas decorations were used for the hall.

Lodge Will Hold Christmas Party Thursday Night

Mistletoe Camp of the Royal Neighbor lodge will hold the annual Christmas party for members, their families and invited guests Thursday night, Dec. 16, at the K of P hall. This affair is always planned as a treat for the children and Santa Claus will be on hand to distribute presents from the Christmas tree. The children will present a program of songs and readings. The party is scheduled for 8 p. m.

Plans for the party were made at the first December meeting of the lodge the third and at the second November meeting Mrs. Mae Logan, state supervisor from Portland, visited the lodge. Visitors from camps in Oklahoma and Nebraska were present.

Miss Ferguson On Club Program

Miss Elizabeth Ferguson reviewed Kathryn Forbes' new book, "Mama's Bank Account," at the meeting of the Thursday Morning Study club last week. The review being termed highly entertaining by the club members. The amusing book is the story of a Norwegian family which settled in San Francisco and the author presents the family's old-country traits of courage, honesty and straight thinking in a manner which leaves the reader with a friendly feeling toward humanity.

Miss Ferguson also gave a short review of "The Chink" by Wallace Stegner which appeared in the Atlantic Monthly several months ago. Next meeting of the club will be Jan. 13 when Mrs. W. F. Campbell will review "Journey Among Warriors" by Eve Curie.

Duplicate Bridge Club
Tournament Announced
The weekly tournaments of the Medford Duplicate Bridge club are continuing, with the next scheduled for Tuesday, Dec. 14, at the Medford hotel. Play begins promptly at 7:45 p. m.

High score last Tuesday night was held by William Isaacs and Thomas Fuson. Mr. and Mrs. Leland Clark held second high score and Mrs. A. F. Stennett and D. R. Wood, third.

Birthday Party Given
For Harriet Grizzard
Harriet Grizzard, daughter of Col. and Mrs. H. M. Grizzard, was honored at a surprise party last Sunday, celebrating her eleventh birthday. The affair was held at the Grizzard home, 1443 E. Main street.

Five girl friends attended the movies with the honored guest, after which they returned to the Grizzard home where Mrs. Grizzard served refreshments.

Christmas Theme Marks Meeting Sojourners' Club

The approaching holidays provided the theme for the meeting of Medford Sojourners' club last Thursday. Christmas greens decorated the club rooms and the hostess table had a large holly centerpiece flanked by tall red candles.

Two Christmas songs were given by Miss June Williams, who was accompanied by Miss Lorraine Thompson, and Christmas carols were sung by the group with Mrs. Clyde Leonard at the piano. Dessert was followed by bridge with prizes going to Mrs. Arthur Winetroun and Mrs. George R. Turney. The pinocchio prize went to Mrs. Raymond Wilson and another prize was given Mrs. Clarence H. Reese.

New prospective members attending were Mrs. Wayne Jamison and Mrs. Ruth Stuart, both from Eugene, Mrs. Clarence H. Reese, who came here from Philadelphia, and Mrs. George Turney from Marshfield.

Hostesses for the day were Mrs. Frank Humphrey, Mrs. Ted Hornecker, Mrs. Calvin Francis and Mrs. Leo McCorkle. Hostess for the next meeting, Dec. 30, will be Mrs. Arthur M. Cannon, assisted by Mrs. Royal Clare and Mrs. Thomas Flanagan.

Methodist Circle Christmas Party Is Held Thursday

Mrs. John A. Carter was elected chairman of Loyalty Circle of the First Methodist church at a meeting held last Thursday afternoon in the Sunshine parlors of the church. Mrs. McKeown was elected vice chairman, Mrs. Walter Johnson was named secretary and Mrs. W. T. Frost, treasurer. The meeting, opened with devotions, was followed by the annual Christmas party of the circle. Christmas carols were sung, gifts exchanged and Mrs. Louis Kirby was presented with a towel shower. A number of new members were introduced during the afternoon.

Refreshments were served from a table beautifully appointed with Yuletide decorations. Serving were Mrs. William B. Hickman and Mrs. L. G. Rankin.

Mistletoe Club Elects Officers

Miss Blanche Arnold was elected president of Mistletoe club at a meeting held last Wednesday afternoon at the Girls' Community club. She succeeds Mrs. E. M. Lovell who has served as president the past year. Mrs. Frank Hussong was elected vice-president and Mrs. H. E. Bismark, secretary.

The club made plans for the annual Christmas holiday party which will be held Wednesday, Dec. 22, at the clubhouse. It will be a covered dish luncheon at 12:30 p. m. and gifts will be exchanged. Serving on the committee for the luncheon will be Mrs. Pearl Miller, Mrs. Eldon Zundel and Mrs. Lovell and Mrs. Joe Kingsley will be in charge of the gift exchange.

Wesley Adult League
Holds Party Monday
The Wesley Adult league of the Methodist church held a party last Monday at the home of Miss Thelma Severson on the Jacksonville highway. The evening was spent in lively games following which refreshments were served. The home was decorated in Christmas greens and colors. Thirty young people were present.
