MAIN SABOTAGE BY EXECUTIVES

Washington, Dec. 11-U.R. washington, Dec. 11—u.m.
The major sabotage in the United States during its second year of war came not from foreign agents or disgruntled workers war came not from foreign agents or disgruntled workers but from high-ranking company officials — "enemies within our our borders"-Attorney-General

Francis Biddle declared today. In an article written for the "United States at War" edition of the army and navy journal, Biddle said the three major cases ootage uncovered during of sabotage uncovered during the last year involved officials charged with deliberately manu-facturing and trying to palm off defective war materiel on the armed forces armed forces.

As an outstanding case he cited the Anaconda Wire and Cable company of Marion, Ind., which he said pleaded nolo contendere— 'tantamount to guilty' —to charges of installing a device to permit deficient material to "pass" rigid government tests.

NAZIS SURPRISED

The Stockholm newspaper Sven-sko Dagbladet in a Bern dis-patch today quoted a neutral ob-sarver, recently arrived from Germany, as saying that Ameri-can war production has been one of the greatest surprises of the war to the Germans.

After big air raids, the observ-er said, even high-place Nazis admitted privately that American production has become the decisive factor of the war, and many Germans were so immany Germans were so im-pressed they exaggerated American
