

LOCAL and PERSONAL

At Center—Donald B. Long of Medford has arrived at the infantry replacement training center at Camp Roberts, Calif., for basic training, according to a press release received here.

Returns—Mrs. Karl Janouch has returned to her home, 1202 East Main St., after having been a patient in a Portland hospital for the past few weeks. She is reported to be much improved in health.

At Farragut—Paul Wilcox of Jacksonville has reported to the naval training station at Farragut, Ida., for basic training. Mrs. Wilcox and the children will remain at the family home in Jacksonville.

Representative Here—Miss Eleanor Hervin, home service field representative for the Red Cross in Oregon, arrived this morning for a visit to the Jackson county chapter. She will remain until Saturday. Miss Hervin has replaced Miss Martha Godwin, who has gone overseas for Red Cross work.

Sister Dies—Mrs. Roy Pruitt, 19 South Orange St., received word this morning of the death of her sister, Mrs. Carl Long. Mrs. Long passed away yesterday at 6 p. m. in University hospital, San Francisco, after a long illness. She will be remembered by friends here as the former Bernice Brown, having spent a couple of winters in Medford with Mr. and Mrs. Pruitt.

Plan Card Party—A benefit card party will be given by the Wenonah club Friday, Dec. 17, at the Redmen hall, Fourth and Apple Sts. Members of the club and of the Pocahontas lodge have been giving a series of benefit card parties and the funds raised are used for once-a-month parties for servicemen. In charge of the affair Friday will be Mrs. Martha Bittle, Mrs. Mabel Quackenbush, Mrs. Helen Ford and Mrs. Maude Abbott. The public is invited to attend. Bridge, pinocle and 500 will be in play, with games beginning at 8 p. m. Prizes will be awarded the winners.

Gen. Clark Gets D. S. C. From President

MANY AUTOS IN MINOR MISHAPS

Cars driven by Lt. Water E. Conway and Lt. Frank E. Missinne, both of Camp White, were involved in a minor traffic accident early this morning on South Riverside avenue at the intersection of Highway 99, according to a report on page 1. Fog and ice were listed as cause of the collision, which damaged both cars.

A 1941 Chevrolet coupe driven by R. W. France of Phoenix and a sedan operated by Sgt. Charles E. Thorne were involved in a slight mishap on Highway 99 yesterday, a filed report stated today. Another report says that a bus, owned by Pacific Greyhound Lines and operated by Charles Ward Johnson, and a 1928 Chevrolet driven by Thomas P. Engle were involved in a minor accident on Highway 99 yesterday.

Ice on the pavement caused machines operated by Mary Hammock of 212 N. Peach street and Mary Luella Sorensen of 815 W. Main street to collide yesterday. The Hammock car, a 1937 Chrysler, was travelling west on Fourth street and the Sorensen automobile was going north on Orange street.

3,000 POUNDS OF CLOTHING GIVEN

Approximately 3000 pounds of usable clothing were obtained during the recent collection of discarded clothing and rags, according to a report by Mrs. W. Alex Kuehlthau and Henry Zacharisen, co-chairmen of salvage work for Jackson county. The clothing is now being cleaned by the various cleaning establishments of the county and will then be shipped to the Defense Supply corporation at Portland, from where it will be sent to occupied countries.

The national drive was sponsored by the churches of all denominations and locally was declared a success by the co-chairmen. Mrs. Kuehlthau and Mr. Zacharisen today expressed their appreciation to all persons who aided in any way with the collection.
