

LOCAL and PERSONAL

To Build Garage—W. E. Blair applied at the city building inspector's office yesterday for a permit to build a garage costing approximately $50 at 912 Beckman avenue.

Wagner Here—Pvt. Paul F. Wagner was home last week end visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wagner of 1021 N. Central avenue. Pvt. Wagner is stationed at Camp Haan, Cal.

Girl Sentenced—Grace Audrey Dodge, 18, was sentenced to 10 days in jail yesterday in police court on a charge of vagrancy. Miss Dodge was arrested early Monday morning in a local bus station.

Expected Home—J. E. Russell, who for the past five weeks has been in Portland Medical hospital, is expected to arrive home Christmas morning. The Russells reside at 22 Summit Ave.

Xmas Tree—The Salvation Army at Fourth and Bartlett streets will have its annual Christmas tree for the young people Wednesday at 8 p. m. The public is invited to attend the program.

State Visiting—Bert J. Staats, Jr., seaman first class, arrived in Medford this morning with his wife and small daughter, Joyce, to visit at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert J. Staats, Sr., 113 Willamette avenue. Staats is stationed at Gulfport, Miss., and Mrs. Staats and their daughter have been living in Baker. They will remain here until after Christmas.

Purse Ransacked—Mrs. Sebastian Apollo, 29 Quince street, reported to city police this morning that someone had entered the Apollo house last night during their absence, and had removed her purse from a table. Contents included about $40 cash, ration books, and various other items. A short time later Mr. Apollo reported that the purse was found in the yard, minus the money but with all other contents unharmed.

Dorsey Coming—Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Dorsey, 1247 Saling avenue, received a telegram this morning from their son, Alvey, stating that he will arrive home Saturday. The young man has been overseas in England for some time, and has been confined to a hospital since last February. He was transferred back to the United States last month and has been a patient in hospitals in New York and Texas before coming home.

Son Unhurt—In a letter to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Womack, 845 West Second St., dated Nov. 28, Pfc. Ross E. Womack of the marine corps states that he had come through the battle of Tarawa Island without a scratch. He said that "this battle was really tough" and that the Japs fought to the last man. Pfc. Womack was born and raised in Wallawa, Ore., and enlisted in the marine corps in February of 1942. His parents have resided in Medford since last April.

Students Home—Among the young women home from universities and colleges for the Christmas vacations are Miss Joyce Utz, Miss Mary Lou Lyman, Miss Natalie Parker, Miss Clara Daniels and Miss Lois Ann Hubbard. Miss Utz is home from the University of Oregon at Eugene, Miss Lyman and Miss Parker arrived home Saturday from Portland where they attend Reed College, and Miss Daniels and Miss Hubbard are students at Mills College at Oakland, Calif.

Jive in Makin

Sightseeing Yank soldiers on newly-captured Makin Island are treated to the local jive by a small, solemn-faced girl in one of the native villages.

SEVERAL REPORT AUTOS RANSACKED

Several reports of automobile ransacking have been made to city police recently, with minor losses involved in most cases. Officers were summoned at 10:45 p. m. last night when Edward H. Tuttle, 615 1/2 North Central avenue, discovered that someone had ransacked his Chevrolet coupe, parked on North Riverside avenue. Entrance to the locked vehicle was gained by breaking out a side window. Missing articles are one Eastman folding kodak, one two cell flashlight and 10.22 special rifle shells.

Capt. Robert H. Gies of Camp White, living at Utopia Camp, reported Monday that while his Buick coupe was parked on East Eighth street between Central avenue and Bartlett street, someone had stolen an Argus camera from the automobile.

A gas ration book was taken from a 1939 Mercury sedan owned by W. H. Kern, 707 West Jackson boulevard Monday, as it was parked on North Central avenue near Sixth street. Frank P. Farrell, room 306, Fluhrer building, also reported loss of his A gas ration book, stating that it was stolen from his Ford roadster parked downtown.
