Wall Street

New York, Dec. 31—(UP)—Stocks closed 1943 today with prices irregular and trading active.

Selective buying went ahead in a long list of special issues, several of which made new highs. Gains in this group ranged to three points in Armour preferred. Rails turned irregular after early firmness. Steels held small net gains while the motors were around the previous close.

Oil balanced off small gains and losses.

There was little in the news to affect the list, which was influenced mainly by proximity of the New Year's day holiday.

BACK IN GRANDMA'S DAY
colds often called for medicated mutton suit as a "home remedy" to comfort muscle aches, coughing. Today, it's for Penetro, modern medication in a base containing mutton suit. Penetro's double action relieves these miseries—(1) vaporizes to soothe stuffy nose (2) acts like warming plaster right where rubbed on.
