I HEREBY CERTIFY that the foregoing is a true statement of the proposed budget of expenditures and receipts for the tax year commencing July 1, 1944, as adopted by the Budget Committee of the City of Medford, Oregon, on May 23, 1944, and together with the budget estimates for the tax year commencing July 1, 1943, and a summary of the expenditures for the two previous tax years as required to be published by law; and notice is hereby given to all persons interested therein that the Council will meet in the City Hall in said city on Tuesday, June 20, 1944, at 7:30 o'clock p. m. of said day and then and there discuss said budget and make levy of city taxes for expenditures for the tax year 1944-45; and at said time and place any person interested therein can meet with the Council and be heard in favor of or against said tax levy or any part thereof, and discuss the same.

J. R. WOOLFORD,

Philadelphia, June 8—(U.P.)—Co-favorites Harold (Jug) McSpaden of Philadelphia and Byron Nelson of Toledo, Ohio, led a star-studded field of 129 golfers into the first round of the 72-hole $17,500 Philadelphia Inquirer war bond invitation tournament today.

Playing over spacious Torredale-Frankford Country club course, sectional champions, both amateur and professional, from all parts of the nation, teed off on the opening day of the four-day medal play tourney for the top prize of $6700 in war bonds.

McSpaden, big winner on the winter circuit, where he took home $13,500 worth of prizes, and Nelson, his closest competitor and former National PGA and U. S. open winner, were early favorites.

The maddest Pacific Coast league pennant scramble in many a year continued its course last night, the Portland Beavers regaining first place from the San Francisco Seals and the Seattle Rainiers jumping in to third ahead of Hollywood as the four clubs remained bunched a half-game apart.

Portland nipped Los Angeles 3-2 while the last-place Sacramento Solons were stopping San Francisco 2-1 to drop the Seals from their one-day lead. Seattle defeated Oakland 4-3 in 12 innings and San Diego trimmed Hollywood 5-3.

Oakland, Calif., June 8—(UP) Lloyd Marshall, duration light heavyweight titlist from Sacramento, Calif., took a hard-fought 10-round decision from Holman Williams, crack Detroit middleweight, last night, flooring Williams for the first time in his career.

Marshall was the aggressor through most of the fight, and scored a two-count knockdown in the seventh with a right to the jaw that dazed Williams for the remainder of the round.

Philadelphia, June 8 (UPI)—Ike Williams, Trenton, N. J., lighted today for a shot at the lightweight title after taking a split 10-round decision from former Champion Sammy Angott of Washington, Pa., before 18,000 at Shibe Park last night.

Williams, weighing 134½, spotted his opponent 5½ pounds in weight and years in experience but out-punched Angott to gain Referee Irv Kutcher's nod after the two judges had disagreed in casting their ballots.

Bad Boy May Be Tamed By Champion, Fans Hope— Wagner Meets Davidson

With Paavo Katonen, king of Pacific light-heavyweights, as his opponent, Bulldog Jackson, one of wrestling's most colorful exponents, returns to Medford tonight in the main event of Promoter Mack Lillard's weekly armory card. Jackson, a clever, tough and thoroughly unscrupulous grappler, will probably be a slight underdog in weight but his unorthodox tactics should more than make up for any lack in this respect. The "Bulldog's" appearances here in past years in the role of bad boy have often left the fans wishing an opponent could be found that would teach him the error of his ways. Katonen may be the very one to do this little thing for he has demonstrated his ability to take care of mat villains in recent matches here.

In the game between the Station Hospital and Medford Craters at 2:30 p. m., the Hospital team will start the southpaw chucker, Sgt. Steuber. If the doc's at the hospital feel he is ok, is the word from Camp White today. Steuber still has four stitches in his forehead from a collision with Sgt. Hunt, Station Hospital catcher, in last Sunday's game with the W. P. R. C. ball club. Both players suffered broken noses in the mix-up when both ran for a pop-fly in front of home plate.

Possibility of a four-way tie for first place in the Camp White-Medford league loomed with this weekend's games. If the Craters win Sunday, and the W. P. R. C. nine can triumph over the Prisoner of War Camp Guards Saturday at the Camp Sports Arena field, all four teams participating in this weekend's games will share the leading slot.

It Means Most

New York, June 8.—(U.P.)—Manager Frankie Frisch of the Pittsburgh Pirates considered the possibility, today of making basketball a regular part of the "Pirates" spring training routine in years to come.

The fiery Frisch, who complained during training this year that he was developing a cage instead of a diamond team because of bad weather at Muncie, Ind., forced his squad indoors much of the time, rapidly is becoming a basketball booster.

The Pirates, whom Frisch said could challenge the Indiana state high school championship basketball team to a game, have been getting along all right in basketball too. They strengthened their hold on second place in the National league last night to a full game over Cincinnati by beating the Reds 4-2 and to trounce the Boston Braves 6-2.

In the only other National league game scheduled the Philadelphia Phillies shoved the Brooklyn Dodgers down into seventh place with a 6-5 victory.

In the American league the Chicago White Sox ran their victory string to seven games by defeating the Detroit Tigers 3-1.

Tex Hughes ran his record to nine wins against four losses in his competition against the New York Yankees as the Boston Red Sox downed the champions 8-1.

No other American league games were scheduled.

New York, June 8—(AP)—Ed Stanky, utility infielder and former American association batting champion, joined the Brooklyn Dodgers today, in a trade that sent Pitcher Bob Chipman to the Chicago Cubs. It was a

He has been used infrequently this season. Chipman, who was with Montreal last year, had won three games while losing one for the Dodgers.
