

Society and Clubs

By Olive Starcher

Parents Announce Daughter's Troth To Army Officer

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred S. V. Carpenter announce the engagement of their daughter, Julie, to Captain W. Garland Jones of Headquarters company, 14th Cavalry Group, Camp Maxey, Tex. Captain Jones is the son of Mrs. K. G. Jones, Richmond, Va., and was stationed at Camp White for several months, leaving here in April for Texas.

Miss Carpenter graduated from the University of Oregon this year, finishing her course at mid-term in order to enter the women's branch of the Army Air Force. She is now at Avenger Field, Texas, for training.

No date has been set for the wedding. The Carpenter home is on the Old Stage Road.

Sewing Chairman Is Given Party By Army Wives

Army wives, who sew each Wednesday at the Officers' Outpost on Sixth street for the Red Cross, followed the sewing session last week with a dessert and bridge party for the pleasure of Mrs. Horace Buchanan, who leaves this week to spend the summer in Los Angeles with relatives. Mrs. Buchanan has been serving as sewing chairman for the group for several months past. Her husband, Capt. Buchanan, has gone to Duke University for a special course in army finance which will last several weeks.

Mrs. W. K. Ostler and a committee of assistants were in charge of the affair. Mrs. Buchanan was presented with a gift. Twenty-eight members of the group were present.

Entertain Troop At Harper Home

Mrs. Jack Harper and Mrs. Dave Gould entertained members of the Ladies' Mounted Troop and a number of guests at a buffet supper and waltzer Tuesday evening. The supper followed the weekly ride of the troop and was given at the Harpers' home on Cherry Lane. About 25 members and guests enjoyed the hospitality of the Harpers and Mrs. Gould.

Election of Officers Scheduled by Auxiliary

Election of officers will be held at the meeting of the American Legion auxiliary scheduled for June 14 at the armory at 8 p. m. Mrs. H. L. Alford is the retiring president. Mrs. Richard Baize is chairman in charge of the social hour, with Mrs. George Coddling and Mrs. Irving Housechild assisting.

Couple Leaving Tuesday Morning For Marshfield

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Mayfield and small daughter, Karen, will leave Medford Tuesday morning for Marshfield, where they will reside in the future. The Mayfields have lived here for the past five years. Mr. Mayfield having been principal of the Medford Senior high school. He resigned this spring, and the middle of this month assumes his duties as superintendent of the Marshfield school system.

Before the closing of high school for the summer, faculty members entertained at a picnic at Jackson Hot Springs for the Mayfields and Mr. Mayfield was presented with a farewell gift. This past week a number of the Mayfields' close friends have entertained at farewell dinners and other affairs.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Mayfield have been active in school, civic and church circles in the city and their departure from Medford is deeply regretted by many people.

Business Women Plan Ceremony; Secretary Here

Medford Business and Professional Women's club will hold the annual installation of officers Monday, June 19. The ceremonies will follow a dinner at Rupp's dining room in Central Point. Officers urge members not to miss this important meeting at the close of the club year and are also asked to notice the change in date. Mrs. Anne Avery of Portland was guest of the club at the last meeting, a dinner gathering held at Ehrhart's cafe June 1. Mrs. Avery is secretary to U.S. District Judge Claude McCulloch and was a business visitor in the city. She is just completing her term of office as recording secretary of the State Federation of Business and Professional Women's club and is a former member of the Klamath Falls club.

During the evening Mrs. Avery entertained the group with a number of delightful character readings. Arrangements for the dinner were in charge of Mrs. Kathryn Davidson, assisted by Miss Frieda Gebers and Mrs. Ethel Tennant.

Crater Lake Chapter To Meet on Flag Day

Crater Lake chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will meet at the home of Mrs. R. E. Green, 701 Park street, Wednesday, June 14. Since this is Flag Day, an appropriate observance is being planned. The meeting is to be a covered dish luncheon at 1 p. m.

Officers' Outpost Resumes Schedule Of Friday Parties

Friday night parties at the Officers' Outpost, which proved popular with junior officers stationed at Camp White last winter, have been resumed. An informal party was held Friday night of last week and a formal dancing party is being planned for this coming Friday evening. Attending the affairs are the junior and senior hostesses regularly assigned to that night and a number of other young women invited to assist. Officers include, in addition to the men regularly stationed at Camp White, a group of newly arrived officers.

The Friday hostess group includes Mrs. Donald Moore and Mrs. George Rasmussen, senior hostesses, and the Misses Pat Farrell, Margaret Ruth Bolton, Cecile Taylor, Alicia Ruhl, Deborah Tunny, Lois Pringle, Mary Lou Gunther and Nanette Holmes.

Other affairs held at the Outpost last week included a luncheon and bridge party given by the Camp White auxiliary sewing group following the work session and honoring Mrs. Horace Buchanan, and a luncheon Friday noon given by the Red Cross Staff Assistants' corps for Mrs. Jack Meyer and Mrs. Frank Hall.

Mrs. I. E. Schuler, director of the Outpost, is also arranging a number of informal "home hospitality" affairs in Medford homes for groups of newly arrived officers at Camp White.

Mrs. Leo Potter Guest Of Honor At Shower Party

Mrs. Leo Potter was honored at a surprise shower given for her Thursday afternoon of last week at the home of Mrs. Homer Conger on the Old Stage Road, with Mrs. Conger, Mrs. Joe Johnson and Mrs. A. H. Puhl as hostesses. Mrs. Potter was presented with a large number of gifts and refreshments were served.

Guests for the pleasant affair were Mrs. Applegate, Ashland; Mrs. Dorothy Bennett, Miss Nancy Potter, Mrs. Frank Ward, Mrs. John Catey, Mrs. Fred Sanders, Mrs. John Yantiss, Mrs. C. H. McKibben, Mrs. Arthur Northy, Mrs. Roy Gish, Mrs. Walter Mang, Mrs. Victor Birdseye, Mrs. B. E. Ford, Mrs. Roy Green, Mrs. Warren Patterson, Mrs. Thelma Dobrat, Mrs. Victor Bursell, Mrs. Charles Taylor, Mrs. William Foley, Mrs. Scott Hamilton, Mrs. Ross Twedell, Miss Patty Hamilton, Miss Jan Freeman, Mrs. Leonard Freeman and the guest of honor, Mrs. Potter.

State Convention Reports Presented At Lodge Meeting

Reports of the recent state meeting of the Rebekah lodge, the 58th annual session, were made at the meeting of Olive Rebekah lodge Monday night. Mrs. Ina Huson, a delegate, was given the Degree of Chivalry during the state meeting, and she reported upon this honor, conferred for outstanding service to the lodge.

It was announced that Mrs. Lottie Cave has been appointed district deputy president of Olive Rebekah lodge and Mrs. Cave told of her visit to the I. O. O. F. home and of a visit to the home of Mrs. Carrie Rickert Morand. Mrs. Florence Klatt reported on business sessions.

W. H. Dyer, degree staff captain, and his staff initiated Mamie Davis and Netta Smith. Visitors included Selma Jacobson, Riemarck, N. D.; Millie Ross, Caldwell, Idaho; Nellie Jain and Beesie Fredenberg, Central Point; Clara Durno, Eugene; Martha Gall Jacksonville.

The charter was draped in memory of Samuel Bateman.

N. B. Bender and Son Take California Vacation

N. B. Bender and his son, Nat Bender, Jr., 5 Corning Court, left Tuesday for San Francisco and Los Angeles for a vacation. In San Francisco they expected to visit Lt. Max Peirce, stationed at the Alameda naval air station and in Los Angeles planned a tour of the Lockheed plant. The two will return early next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Randolph Smith of Tacoma, Mrs. Bender's parents, arrived here the middle of last week and are guests at the Bender home for an indefinite stay.

Mrs. George Carlton Werner is the former Dorothy Gaddis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl C. Gaddis, 609 East Main street, her marriage having taken place recently at the Alpha Delta Pi house, Oregon State college. Mr. Werner's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Wade Werner of Alexandria, Va. Both young people are now in Corvallis. Mrs. Werner being a member of the 1944 graduating class of the college and Mr. Werner being stationed at Corvallis with an army unit.

Reames Chapter Honors Members Thursday Night

Five members of Reames chapter No. 66, O.E.S., were honored during the social hour which followed the stated communication Thursday evening of last week. Honored were Mrs. Roy J. Miles, whose wedding was a recent event, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Strang and Mr. and Mrs. William Holloway, both couples having celebrated their silver wedding anniversaries this week. Mrs. Miles is the former Audrey Price.

The honored guests were seated at a specially decorated table, the centerpiece being of pink and silver and featuring a large wedding ring fashioned of silver and tiny rose buds and miniature figures of a soldier and bride. Lighted tapers had similar silver rings and rose buds at their bases. Flowers decorated the remaining tables from which refreshments were served and tall baskets of assorted blossoms had been arranged at either end of the chapter room for the meeting.

The committee on decorations and arrangements consisted of Mrs. Hope Wood, worthy matron, Elton Waldron, worthy patron, Mrs. Waldron and Mrs. Bertha Morse.

A program of informal talks and songs was dedicated to the honored guests, and Mrs. Miles was presented with a number of gifts. Mrs. Strang and Mrs. Holloway were presented with colonial bouquets, encircled with hand coched frills, which had been made by Mrs. Wood.

Union Institute Held In Medford Is Well Attended

The W.C.T.U. held a well-attended lodge institute in the Salvation Army hall Thursday of last week, preceded by desert luncheon at noon. Dr. Susie V. Standard presided at the afternoon meeting, which opened with a devotional talk by Major Nettie Brown who based her message on the 131st Psalm.

The work of five departments was presented during the program. Mrs. Minnie Bryant told of the child welfare work, which includes the Children's Farm Home, and Miss Arlene Deedon told of the daily vacation Bible school work at the Baptist church. Temperance and missions work was presented by Mrs. Eva Low, who told of W.C.T.U. projects in India, Mexico, Brazil and Chile.

Mrs. Belle Littrell spoke on Americanization work and Mrs. F. I. Caulkins told of bills before congress. Dr. Standard spoke on scientific temperance instruction.

New members welcomed into the organization were the Mesdames Hazel Platz, Amanda Cherry and C. D. Colbaugh.

Meets At Albright Home

Mrs. Dwight Albright was hostess last week to members of the Friday luncheon club, entertaining at her home, 1118 N. Main street. Luncheon was served at one o'clock and was followed by a program of songs and readings. Ten members were in attendance.

Miss Joan Edler And Alva Wright Wed In Medford

Miss Joan Edler of Trail and Alva Wright, Prospect, were married June 1, the rites taking place here at the home of the Rev. Ward A. Rice. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Harold E. Gist, 536 Haven street, Medford, and of F. E. Edler, Trail, while the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Wright of Prospect. The service was read at two o'clock by the Rev. Rice.

For the service Miss Edler, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin and a fingertip veil. Her flowers were talisman roses and sweetpeas. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. William L. Hull of Medford, who wore a dress of pale green net.

Warren Wright of Prospect was best man. Following the service a reception was held at the Gist home and later Mr. and Mrs. Wright left for Lake o' Woods where they spent a few days. They are now making their home in Prospect where the groom is an employee of the California-Oregon Power company. Both graduated from Prospect high school with the class of 1943.

Present for the wedding service were Mr. and Mrs. Gist, the bride's father, the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Edler of Prospect, aunt and uncle of the bride, Bill Edler of Trail, also an uncle of the bride, and her grandfather, J. G. McCallister of Crescent City, Calif.

Former Residents Visiting In City Are Entertained

Among the city's visitors at present are two former residents Mrs. C. Glenn Smith and Mrs. Rosalie Porter. Mrs. Smith arrived from San Francisco Tuesday and is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert K. Norris, 1900 Hillcrest Road. Mrs. Porter, with her mother, Mrs. J. Jones, and her children, George and Judy, arrived Thursday night from Salem and have been at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Porter, 828 Minnesota avenue. Mrs. Porter is now a guest of Mrs. Edwin Durno, 1913 Hillcrest Road.

A number of informal affairs are being given for both visitors. Mrs. Smith arrived in time to attend a luncheon meeting of the Contemporary Book club, held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. B. L. Lageson, with Mrs. C. I. Drummond as assistant hostess and Friday afternoon Mrs. Ben Trowbridge and Mrs. Justin Smith entertained at a bridge-luncheon for them, the affair being at the Trowbridge home, 1625 East Main street.

Last night a no-host dancing and supper party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Barnes, 1906 East Main street, was planned for Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Porter and a number of other gatherings will be held before they leave. Mrs. Porter and Mrs. Jones will return to Salem in middle of this week, with George and Judy remaining to spend a month with their grandparents here.

Jackson County League Board To Meet Tuesday

Reports of the recent convention of the Oregon League of Women Voters will be given at a meeting of the Jackson County league board which will be held Tuesday night of next week at the home of the president, Mrs. Justin Smith, 21 Geneva street. The reports will be given by Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Leonard Carpenter.

Mrs. Smith will also discuss new national by-laws and will read a message from the new national president, Miss Anna Lord Straus. The meeting is at 8 p. m.

Mrs. Johnson Returns After Seattle Visit

Mrs. F. H. Johnson has returned home from a visit of two months in Seattle at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, the Rev. and Mrs. Leonard Brown. The Johnsons, who recently sold their home on East Main street to Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Leonx, are residing temporarily at 111 Summit avenue.

Red Cross Aides Honored Guests At Dinner Party

A dinner in the small dining room of the Holland Hotel Tuesday night honored members of the last graduating class of Red Cross nurses aides, the graduates all being young women who just completed their senior year at Medford senior high school and who carried the Red Cross class and work schedule in addition to their high school studies and activities. The new hospital aides are the Misses Doris Babcock, Betty Jane Johnson, Joan Elliott, Peggy Young, Virginia Hammond, Mary Glascock and Harriet Hart.

In charge of the dinner was Mrs. T. R. Florey, captain of the Nurses Aide corps, assisted by Mrs. Paul Bulkin, Mrs. Rodney Fety and Miss Vera Humphrey. The committee had arranged unusually attractive room and table decorations for the affair, using flags of the allied nations and a large Red Cross flag against the walls of the room. Large baskets of red roses, arranged with blue candles, decorated the tables and completing the centerpiece were a doll, wearing a nurses aide uniform, and a miniature cradle. Place cards were little aide figurines and each graduate was presented a favor and a corsage from the corps. Mrs. Fety having made the corsages.

Highlight of the program was the capping ceremony, conducted by Mrs. Don Newbury, chairman of the corps, and Mrs. C. M. Starnes, who instructed the class, presented the members with their aide pins. Speaking during the program, Mrs. Fred Rankin, Red Cross executive secretary, welcomed the young women into Red Cross work, declaring the nurses aide work to be one of the most useful types carried on by volunteers during the war. Mrs. Alfred S. V. Carpenter, chairman of the special service corps, praised the nurses aide corps and its outstanding leadership and Mrs. Blanche Frisbie of the Jackson County Health department stated that plans were being made for using the aides in the department's well baby clinic. Various aides also spoke.

Present for the dinner, capping ceremony and program in addition to the graduates and speakers were Miss Anne Purucker, Mrs. C. W. Ashpole and Mrs. Vern Brophy, members of the nurses aide committee; Mrs. Marguerite Mills, Miss Josephine Kirtley, and Mrs. Gladys Herron, high school faculty members; Miss Natalie Parker, Mrs. Neil Collins, Mrs. Earl Tunny, Mrs. Verna Johnson, Miss Betsy Rolland, Mrs. Leila Gilman, Miss Mildred Dugan, Mrs. S. M. Tuttle, Mrs. John C. Boyle, Mrs. Minnie Zahnow, Mrs. Paul Bulkin, Mrs. N. L. Wilson, Mrs. T. R. Florey, Mrs. Marguerite Elliott and Mrs. Thomas Young.

Railway Employee Is Honored Guest At Party Tuesday

Employees of the Southern Pacific Railway company in Medford entertained at a dinner Tuesday night which honored Don Caton. Mr. Caton, chief clerk here for the district freight and passenger office for the past year and a half, is leaving next week for navy training.

Robert Holmes, district freight and passenger agent, presided over the dinner which was at Rupp's restaurant in Central Point. During the evening the honor guest was presented with a farewell gift. Guests for the dinner included employees and their wives, husbands and escorts.

Mr. and Mrs. Caton have been making their home in Ashland for the past two weeks and Mrs. Caton and the children will remain there for the duration of the war. Mr. Caton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Caton, reside in Ashland.

Two Are Honored At Staff Party Friday At Club

A luncheon and shower party at the Outpost Friday noon was given for Mrs. Jack Meyer by members of the Red Cross staff assistants' corps. Mrs. Meyer, who has been serving as a secretary in the chapter office, has resigned. The affair also honored Mrs. Frank Hall, secretary to Mrs. Fred Rankin of the chapter staff, who has left Medford due to the transfer of her husband, Lt. Hall, to Ft. Scott, San Francisco.

The luncheon was planned by Mrs. John Day, chairman of the corps, assisted by Mrs. Fred Fry, Mrs. W. P. Gammill and Mrs. W. C. Kindred. About 20 staff assistants, chapter officers and service chairmen attended the affair.

Mrs. Meyer was presented with a shower of gifts and Mrs. Hall with a farewell present.

Klamath Falls Visitor Here With Grandmother

Miss Shirley Hutchinson of Klamath Falls is in Medford to visit her grandmother, Mrs. Jenny Hutchinson, 522 West Tenth street.

Bride-Elect Guest At Shower Affair Wednesday Evening

Miss Neldre Nygaard was complimented at a shower party given last Wednesday evening by Mrs. Martin G. Paulson and her daughter, Mrs. Glenn R. Apelin, at the Paulson home, 317 West Jackson Boulevard. Miss Nygaard's wedding to Lt. Robert C. Duke is to take place June 18 at the Medford Methodist church. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Nygaard, 36 Ashland avenue.

Dessert was served at 7:30 o'clock and was followed by a social evening and presentation of Miss Nygaard's gifts. Guests were Miss Charlotte Older, Miss Jerilee Lovejoy, Miss Dorothy Wilder, Miss Caroline Rose, Mrs. F. L. Johnson, Mrs. Nygaard and the honored guest.

Installation Planned By Medford Garden Club

Convention reports and installation of officers will take place at the meeting of the Medford Garden club to be held Thursday at 2 p. m. at the Girls' Community club. Mrs. C. C. Sater will be installed as president, succeeding Mrs. Arthur Adler. Both attended the state meeting and will give reports.

Catalina and Cole of California Bathing Suits $2.98 to $12.98

JUNE CLEARANCE of COATS and SUITS
CONTINUES • SPECIAL GROUP OF COATS

$29.98 Values Now $19.98
SPECIAL GROUP OF EARLY SPRING

ALL WOOL SUITS
Values Up to $29.98 Now $10.98
SPECIAL RACK OF DRESSES $16.98 Values Now $5.

EARLY SPRING HATS
A special group—Felts and Straws. Values to $8.98. Now—$3.98

ADRIENNE'S

HAIRCOLORING IS A YOUTHFUL TRAIT

No "bleached blonde" look for any hair, thank you!

No, and you won't get it at this salon, because we use ROUX Oil Bleach, which gives you a natural-looking blonde. It conditions, lightens, and color-tones—all in one application. And you get the exact shade you select—never silver or reddish blonde—look like "bleached blonde" look. Make your appointment today for a ROUX Oil Bleach.

specialists in haircoloring

WE'RE A ROUX SALON

HELEN'S BEAUTY SALON
36 So. Central. Phone 4266

NEEDLE ART SHOP
211 E. Main
Closed Monday and Tuesday
For Redecorating

GROCETERIA
NUMBER 1
Sixth and Central
OPEN TODAY
9 a. m. to 7 p. m.