LOCAL and PERSONAL

Inglings Return — Mr. and Harry R. Ingling returned to Medford last night after spending a week in Portland on business.

• • •

Fined $1—Charged with allowing his dog to run at large, LeRoy Klumph of 1140 Court street was fined $1 in city court this morning.

• • •

Wagon Stolen — Mrs. W. R. Apple of 1013 West Ninth street reported to city police today that a large rubber-tired wagon was stolen off her front porch Sunday night.

• • •

Corps To Meet — The Volunteer Service Corps will hold a no-host spaghetti supper this evening at 7 at the Riverside USO. Election of officers will be held following the supper and a large attendance of corps members is desired.

• • •

To Remodel—W. R. Gammill of 116 Willamette avenue applied at the city building inspector's office Monday for a permit to make general remodeling to his house at a stated cost of $200. George Thomas of 309 South Newtown street applied for a permit to construct a private garage at a stated cost of $200.

• • •

Club Meeting — Jacksonville Garden Club will meet Thursday at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Mills. Mrs. L. G. Gentner will report on the state convention and will give instructions for making summer corsages. She asks that members bring flowers from their gardens to work with. An invitation is extended to visitors. New officers for the coming year are to be installed.

• • •

To Convention — A group of Medford people are leaving tomorrow to attend the annual convention of the Oregon Department, Veterans of Foreign Wars, in Portland. In the group will be Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Canfield, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Wall, Mrs. Geneva Hitt, Mrs. Richard Shulz and Mrs. Frances Zundel. Mr. Canfield is a past commander of the state department and Mrs. Hitt is president of the Medford auxiliary. The convention will continue for three days.

• • •

Newland Home — Oswald W. Newland, machinist's mate second class in the Seabees, arrived home Saturday on a 10-day leave which he is spending with his wife, Edna, and son, Dave, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Newland of 851 East Ninth street. Newland has been stationed on the Atlantic coast for about a year, the last seven months at Davisville, R. I. He is now stationed at Port Hueneme, Calif., and arrived from there by plane. Newland is a graduate of Medford senior high school, having played football when Prink Callison coached.

• • •

In Central Pacific—Norris K. Porter, carpenter's mate first class in the Seabees, is now stationed on one of the Marshall islands in the Central Pacific according to letters received by relatives here. He entered the service a year ago and has been overseas since November. Mrs. Porter, who makes her home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Allen B. Drury, 1009 South Oakdale avenue, recently received a clipping from the Honolulu Star Bulletin of a poem written by her husband and published by the Bulletin May 27. Porter's parents are Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Porter, Rt. 1.

• • •

To Speak—Mrs. Clarence A. Meeker, 724 East Jackson boulevard, is leaving tonight for Spokane where she will attend the Pacific Northwest Conference of the Methodist church. Mrs. Meeker is on the program for the conference and will speak June 15. Returning to Portland, the Medford woman will then attend the Methodist conference of Oregon churches and will also speak. Mayor Meeker and his daughter, Eleanor, leave Saturday night for Portland where Monday the mayor will attend a meeting of the League of Oregon Cities board, of which he is a director. The family then plans a vacation to last a week or 10 days.
