Father of Six Is Returning To Pen He Flew Long Ago

Denver, June 15—(AP)—Albert Huth, 44-year-old father of six children, was held in the Denver city jail today, his freedom of 20 years from the Joliet, Ill., penitentiary ended.
 Huth's arrest yesterday brought about the denouement of his well-kept secret, which included a life sentence for a murder for which he was convicted 30 years ago.
 As a youth of 14, Huth, whose real name is Herman Coppes, was arrested for the murder of three members of his family in Elgin, Ill., according to authorities. He was sentenced to life imprisonment and served more than 10 years in the penitentiary before he escaped.

 After his escape, he married and came to Denver, where he reared a family. His children range in age from 2 to 14 years.

Wright Awarded Conduct Medal

A Good Conduct medal has been awarded to Cpl. John L. Wright of Phoenix, Ore., now stationed in England at a Liberator station of the AAF. According to a news release from the field, the medal was awarded after a year of active military service during which Cpl. Wright "demonstrated fidelity through faithful and exact performance of his duty, efficiency through capacity to produce desired results and whose behavior has been such as to deserve emulation."

Cpl. Wright, formerly a logger with the Tiller mill, Trail, is an armorer. His wife resides in Medford.
