

LOCAL and PERSONAL

Returns—A. S. Rosenbaum returned to Medford yesterday from a week's visit with relatives and friends in San Francisco.

Returns Here—Miss Susan Vilas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Vilas of Rt. 3, arrived home yesterday after a short vacation in Portland. Miss Vilas is a student at the University of Oregon.

Milnes Away—Victor Milnes, Medford manager of the Western Oil and Burner company, left this morning for Klamath Falls on business for the firm. He will return to Medford Sunday night.

On Leave—Home on leave from Farragut, Ida., is William P. Orlov, seaman second class, 728 Summit Ave. Seaman Orlov is visiting his mother Mrs. Wilda Krugger, other relatives and friends. He will return to his base June 20. Orlov enlisted in the Navy April 7 through the Medford recruiting station.

To Texas—Cpl. Maxwell S. Marvin and wife left yesterday for Camp Walters, Tex. Cpl. Marvin has been home on an eight-day furlough visiting his wife of 938 Riverside avenue and his mother, Mrs. W. J. Davis of Phoenix. A member of the infantry, Cpl. Marvin will take further training in Texas.

In Medford—Capt. James R. Swan of the Royal Canadian Ordnance corps is visiting friends in Medford for several days before continuing on to his station in British Columbia. Capt. Swan was stationed at Camp White for several months last winter observing military tactics of the U. S. army here. From Camp White he was transferred to San Luis Obispo for further training.

Announce Plans—Additional details concerning the dance and picnic supper which is to be given Sunday by members of the 796th Forestry Engineers at their bivouac camp near Medford, have been announced by Mrs. Ruth Holmes Boyd, chairman of the Volunteer Service corps. The dance and supper will have a "Paul Bunyan" theme, the SCU orchestra will play for dancing at an outdoor pavilion, the men will provide and serve the picnic supper and an excursion through the portable sawmill which is a part of the camp is planned. Young women planning to attend are asked to be at the Riverside USO at 1 p. m. and the affair will end at 6:30 p. m. Mrs. Boyd states that hostesses planning to attend should wear slacks suits and take a jacket since the weather may be cool.

CALENDAR

Friday
6:30 p. m.—Canton Siskiyou and auxiliary covered dish supper at I. O. O. F. hall. Chairman, Mrs. L. O. Howard, telephone number 2839.

Inducted—Inducted into the army at Ft. Lewis, Wash., this week from Local Selective Service Board No. 1 were George Samuel Payant, Lewis Glenn Peffley, Roy Clarence Gray, Daniel Owen McKeen, Marshall O. Bessonet, Jr., and William Edmond Cheadle.

Daughter Here—Mrs. Raymond Caulfield of Oregon City is in Medford visiting her mother, Mrs. Stella Merrick of Merrick's Motor Inn. Mrs. Caulfield, who resided in Medford many years, has many friends in the city. She will return to her home next Tuesday.

Visit Here—Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Hussey of Cave City were in Medford Thursday on business. Their son, Pfc. Elwood K. Hussey, is home on a three-week furlough after two years of service in the South Pacific. Pfc. Hussey left Grants Pass with the National Guard before the war started.

Visiting Parents—Donald J. Crawford, seaman second class, is spending a 10-day leave here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Crawford of 531 Berrydale avenue. Crawford, who has been at the navy training center at Farragut, Ida., will report to his duty station on June 22. He was enlisted in the navy April 7 through the local recruiting station.

Versatile WAC—Pfc. Jean L. Fraedrick, daughter of Mr. E. E. Froedrick of Prospect, Ore., is a most versatile member of the WAC, according to a release from the Headquarters Air Service Command. A graduate cook, she has been assigned to mess hall 3, Air Service Command Headquarters. When the Maintenance Data Section needed help on a rush job, they called on Pfc. Fraedrick to do typing. And, in addition, she has been called out into the field to be recruiting. She says she likes "just everything" about the WAC. Pfc. Fraedrick is the third member of her immediate family to join the armed forces—a brother is in the Marines, and a sister, Cpl. Frances A. Fraedrick, is in the Air Forces at Colorado Springs.
