

LOCAL and PERSONAL

Sponsor Dance—The Redmen will sponsor a dance Saturday evening at the Redmen hall, Fourth and Apple Sts. Redmen, Pocahontas and guests are cordially invited to attend.

Picnic Postponed—The Oak Grove Neighborhood club members have postponed their picnic until July 1, it was announced today. The affair will be held at the Ed Root home on the Jacksonville highway.

Brays Leave—Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Bray, and their daughter, Peggy, and their son, Chaplain Wm. Bray and his wife, left Wednesday afternoon for Portland to attend the annual conference of the Methodist church.

Saulsberry Here—Lt. John M. Saulsberry is spending a 10-day leave at his home in Jacksonville. Lt. Saulsberry, who received his bombardier's wings at Victorville, Calif., in April, has been an instructor there since that time. The lieutenant leaves Tuesday evening to report for duty at Lincoln, Neb. He is the son of Mrs. Lulu Saulsberry.

CALENDAR

Friday
11:30 a. m.—Oak Grove Extension unit, last meeting of year at Oak Grove school. Covered dish luncheon at noon followed by "Prevention of Spoilage in Home Canning" demonstration by Miss Farrell. Members and anyone interested invited. Bring own service.

Slight Accident—Lester Schram of 502 South Newtown street and Luella Arnold of Route 4 drove cars involved in a minor accident at Laurel and West 10th street Tuesday afternoon, a report on file said today.

Inducted—Arion Skinner, 1944 graduate of Medford high school, left last week for Portland where he was sworn in to the Army Air Corps Reserve. From Portland Skinner went to Corvallis where he enrolled in the aeronautical engineering division of Oregon State college. He will remain in college until he is 18 and subject to call. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Skinner of 1004 East Main St.

Arriving—Bob Holmes, who has been attending school at Boulder, Colo., with a naval training unit, is expected to arrive tomorrow evening for a short leave which he will spend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cole Holmes, 6 Keene Way Drive.

To Meet—An open meeting will be held in the Talent city hall, June 26 at 1:30 p. m. The purpose of the meeting is to study the prevention of spoilage and accidents in home food preservation. The meeting will be in charge of Miss Marian Farrell, home demonstration agent. All are invited to attend.

Forrester Here—Jack Forester, seaman, second class in the U. S. navy, is spending a furlough here visiting his wife and two children, who are residing at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Bergman, 744 West Jackson boulevard. Forester recently completed his seven-week "boot camp" training at Farragut, Ida., and is scheduled to report back there on July 2.

Two Enlist—Most recent enlistees in the United States naval reserve are Donald Dean Hackett and Herbert Neil Merriman, according to H. W. Crain, officer in charge of the Medford navy recruiting station. Hackett is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Hackett, Rt. 1, Box 315, and Merriman's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Chester N. Merriman, 515 North Bartlett street. Both are 17 years old and enlisted June 17.

Brothers Home—R. B. and Weldon Webber, sons of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Webber of 319 Laurel St., will be home together for a short time. R. B., an R.O.T.C. student at Yale university and taking geology arrived the first of this week and will be here until next Monday. Weldon, who is in Naval Aviation V-5 program at Carroll college, Helena, Montana plans to be home this Sunday or Monday. The brothers are both graduates of Medford high school. R. B. graduating in 1942 and Weldon graduating mid-term this year ahead of his class in order to enter the service.

To School—Three Medford youths left last night for Menlo Park, Calif., where they will enroll for a summer course at Menlo School and Junior college. Leaving were Donald Shores, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Shores, Jacksonville Star Route; Fred Gardner, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Gardner, Jacksonville Star Route, and Bill Patton, son of Mr. C. Reese Bralley, Valley View Drive. The summer session opens June 26 and continues for two months. Young Gardner graduated from Medford senior high school with the 1944 class, and young Patton and Shores will be seniors next year.

OBITUARY

LYDIA ANN GRAY
Lydia Anna Gray, of Burbank, Calif., passed away at a local hospital early Thursday. She is survived by her husband, Charles E. Gray. Remains will be forwarded to Glendale for services and interment. Perl Funeral Home is in charge.

No Band Concert
Ashland Tonight
Ashland, June 22.—Because of the bad weather outlook the band concert scheduled for tonight in Lithia Park has been cancelled.

LT. EDWARDS TO SQUADRON LEADER

First Lt. Kenneth C. Edwards, pilot of a B-17 Flying Fortress and stationed in England, has been promoted from a squadron leader to a group leader, according to word received here by his wife, who, with their nine-month-old son, resides at 816 West 11th street.

Lt. Edwards, who has been awarded the Air Medal and three Oak Leaf Clusters, has been on 22 bombing missions, including raids on Brunswick, Berlin, Frankfurt, Stuttgart and Regensburg.

A graduate of Grants Pass high school, Lt. Edwards, resided here for eight years prior to entering the service and was employed by the Valley Music company. He has been in England eight months.

HIGH FACES HEARING ON CHECK ACCUSATION

Robert N. High, charged with obtaining money under false pretenses, following his arrest yesterday, was released under $2000 bonds by Justice of the Peace W. R. Tucker. The bonds were furnished by a local woman and the defendant's mother of Ashland. Sheriff Syd I. Brown said the specific charge against High was the alleged passing of a $50 check in this city. He is scheduled to be given a preliminary hearing in justice court this afternoon.

THE GRANGE

Sams Valley Grange will sponsor a dance Saturday night, June 24, to raise money to send a 4-H club boy and girl to the summer camp at Lake O' the Woods. Ladies are asked to bring pies and will receive supper free. Everyone is invited.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to thank our many friends and neighbors for their expressions of sympathy and beautiful floral offerings during the loss of our mother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Norris, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Saltmarsh, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Saltmarsh and Mrs. Benton (Poo) and families.
