Neidre Nygaard, Lt. Robert Duke Married Sunday

Medford's Methodist church was the scene last Sunday of the wedding of Miss Neidre Nygaard and Lt. Robert C. Duke, the rites being read at three o'clock in the afternoon by Dr. Louis C. Kirby. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Nygaard, 38 Ashland avenue, and Lt. Duke is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Duke of Birmingham, Ala.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. William Browning sang "At Dawning" with Miss Dorothy Wilder at the organ. Miss Wilder also played the wedding march. White gladioli, blue delphinium and white carnations, arranged with lighted candles in tall candleabra, decorated the church.

Miss Nygaard's wedding gown was of white organza, fashioned with a full skirt and long train. Her full length veil was held with a coronet of seed pearls and the bridal bouquet was of white gardenias, roses and sweet peas. The bridesmaid, Miss Carolyn Rose of Ashland, was gown in blue net and lace over taffeta and carried pink carnations.

Capt. F. L. Johnson was best man for Lt. Duke and Capt. F. R. Althouse, Lt. A. M. Withers, Lt. F. A. Prime and Lt. R. W. Knowles were ushers.

The reception was at the Nygaard home. The traditional wedding cake, first cut by the bride and groom, was then served by Miss Jerilee Lovejoy. Mrs. F. L. Johnson poured and Miss Virginia Bradfish assisted.

Lt. Duke and his bride are residing in Medford for the present, the officer being stationed at Camp White with the Service Command Unit. He is a graduate of the University of Alabama. Mrs. Duke, a graduate of Medford senior high school, attended the Southern Oregon College of Education last winter.

Here for the wedding was Mrs. Jessie Greenwood of Los Altos, Calif., a great-aunt of the bride.

Medford Groups Attend Many State Conventions

State conventions are holding the attention of Medford people, with an unusually large number of lodges, churches and patriotic groups having held their state meetings within the last two weeks.

For the most part the state groups meet in Portland, but Grants Pass yesterday and Friday entertained delegates to the 28th annual convention of the Oregon State Elks association, with many representatives from Medford attending, including Ernest Scott, state secretary, the past year. Oregon Disabled American Veterans and the auxiliary held the state meeting in Roseburg this week, meeting Wednesday and Thursday, and with a large delegation from here in attendance.

Medford delegates attended the meeting of the Oregon Department, Women's Relief corps, Auxiliary to the Grand Army of the Republic, held in Portland June 20, 21, and 22 at the Masonic Temple. Guest of honor for the meeting was T. A. Penland, last living member of the Grand Army of Oregon. Among those attending from here was Mrs. Fred Lawrence, president of the local corps.

Another patriotic group meeting was the Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War which held the 26th annual meeting June 22 and 23. Miss Ora Cox, Medford, national president of the Daughters, was unable to attend the Oregon convention since she is in the midwest visiting groups there, presently being in Bloomington, Ill. She returns to Medford about July 1. However, Dr. Susie J. Standard, department patriotic instructor, and Mrs. Francis Brinsbine, local tent president, were the Medford delegates.

Veterans of Foreign Wars and the auxiliary met last week in Portland, and included in the new auxiliary officer is Mrs. Mary Schultz, Medford, who was named assistant guide. Mrs. Marie Dana of Milwaukie is new president of the auxiliary. Delegates to the meeting of the Oregon Grand Chapter, O. E. S., held in Portland, have returned home and Mrs. Everett Faber, Central Point, a past matron of Nevita chapter, was installed as Grand Adah during the sessions.

Oregon Methodists held the annual conference in Portland last week and one of the speakers was Mrs. Clarence Meeker, Medford, a former national secretary.

Carpenter-Jones Rites to Be Held In Texas July 2

July 2 has been set as the date of the wedding of Miss Julie Carpenter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred S. V. Carpenter, Old Stage Road, to Capt. W. Garland Jones. The rites are to take place in Texas. Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter left yesterday to be present for the service and will join their daughter at Paris, Texas.

Miss Carpenter's engagement to Capt. Jones, a son of Mrs. K. G. Jones of Richmond, Va., was announced a short time ago. The captain, formerly stationed at Camp White, is now with the Headquarters Company, 14th Cavalry Group, Camp Maxey, Texas. Miss Carpenter is stationed at Avenger Field, Texas, with the women's branch of the army air forces.

The Carpenter's son, Harlow, was unable to go south for the wedding since he reports tomorrow in Portland for enlistment in the army's specialized training reserve program.
