WON'T GO 'WAY
Weldon, Ill. (U.P.)—John Folowell, a railroad section laborer, swears he found a "homing snake" here recently. While at work he came across a six-foot bull snake and took it home with him. For a few days it was displayed at the grade school and then removed to E. P. Wene's home. The next morning the reptile was found basking in Folowell's back yard. Taking the snake far down the tracks, he released it, hoping for the best, but in a few days was greeted by a hissing sound near his house—the same snake. Folowell says this time he's going to try the timberland for the home-loving wriggler.

DRAFTS MARTIN LAW
Quincy, Ill. (U.P.)—An ordinance which would prohibit encouraging martins to take up abodes here has been drafted by Corporation Counsel Lawrence Emmons, Jr., because, he said, the birds caused a new paint job on his house and also soiled the family washing. Emmons' ordinance proposed that no martin houses be built within the city limits.

WIFE'S AFFECTIONS: $1
Toledo, O. (U.P.)—A jury in common pleas court here placed a value of $1 on a wife's affections. Gustave A. Hirschey sued for $10,000 in his alienation of affections suit against Carl C. Baer, who allegedly stole the former Mrs. Hirschey's heart. But although the jury ruled in favor of Hirschey, it cut the amount of damages to $1 and court costs.

EAGER FOR STARS
With U. S. Forces on Bougainville (U.P.)—Sgt. Henry A. Violet, Leads, S. D., librarian for a front-line rifle company, said today the books most in demand in this unit are "Lee's Lieutenants" and Clausewitz' "Principles of War."

A new fluorescent test with ultra-violet radiation is in use at the Schenectady, N. Y., plant of General Electric Co. to show up ordinarily invisible defects in aluminum castings for war products.
