Miss Becky Victor, Captain Rinabarger Married In Idaho

The wedding of Miss Becky Victor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Victor of Twin Falls, Idaho, and Marine Captain R. N. Rinabarger, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Rinabarger, formerly of Medford and now of Roseburg, Ore., was an event of July 9. The single ring ceremony was read by Dr. G. L. Clark, pastor of the First Presbyterian church in Twin Falls, at 2:30 p. m. at the home of the bride's parents, and in the presence of 30 relatives and close friends.

Vows were exchanged by the couple as they stood before an improvised archway, backed by lighted tapers and flanked on either side by baskets of delphinium, white phlox and double syringa.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white afternoon dress designed with gored skirt, low-cut neckline and short sleeves capped with shoulder epaulets trimmed with white velvet ribbon. With it she wore a white half-hat, and her corsage was an orchid, embedded in gardenias.

The bride's only attendant, Miss Mary Jean Shipman, wore a light blue street dress, designed with a draped V-neckline and cascading ruffles down the center front of the draped skirt. Her corsage was of gardenias.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Victor chose a lavender eyelet afternoon frock, and her corsage was of pink rosebuds.

Don Porterfield, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was his best man.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the garden of the Victor home with the bride and groom cutting the decorated cake in traditional manner. Mrs. F. W. Neale, Gooding, Idaho, and Mrs. T. M. Baird, Twin Falls, acted as bridesmaids, and the table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with the two-tiered cake, which was topped with tiny sprigs of double syringa.

Capt. and Mrs. Rinabarger left later that afternoon for Roseburg where they visited his parents for a few days before continuing to El Torra, Calif., where they will make their home while he is stationed at the marine corps air base there. For traveling, the bride wore a brown and chartreuse cotton sport suit and matching accessories, with which she wore the orchid from her bridal corsage.

Mrs. Rinabarger attended Twin Falls high school and the University of Idaho, Moscow, where she was pledged to Alpha Phi sorority. For the past year and a half she has been employed by the Kinney Wholesale company in Twin Falls.

Capt. Rinabarger graduated from Medford high school, and was a student at Oregon State college, where he was a member of Theta Chi fraternity, and the Southern Oregon College of Education before enlisting in the marine air corps in 1941. He had previously taken civilian pilot's training at the Medford airport. He returned to this country about three months ago after nearly a year of active duty in the south Pacific.

Capt. Rinabarger's parents moved to Roseburg in April of this year, having lived in Medford for many years prior to that time. Other local relatives of the captain are his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Rinabarger of 718 S. Newtown street, an uncle, R. J. Rinabarger of Vancouver street, and an aunt, Mrs. Diamond Flynn of 1324 Queen Anne avenue.
