

LIEUT. BELLAMY PRISONER OF WAR IS LATEST WORD

Previously reported missing in action over Germany, relatives of Lt. Boyd P. Bellamy, Jr., have been informed that he is a prisoner of war in Germany. Word coming from the adjutant general's office and the International Red Cross states that the location of the camp is as yet unknown.

Lt. Bellamy's wife and young son have been in Medford with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Prince of Rt. 4, Box 345, but left recently to make their home in Oakland, Cal.

The lieutenant was a bombardier on an AAF plane which failed to return from a raid over Germany May 29. It was his third mission since arriving in England a few weeks previously. Entering the army in April, 1942, Bellamy was chief finance officer for the WPA in North Bend districts and lived in North Bend prior to that time.

FISHING TACKLE SOUGHT FOR GI'S

The local Elk lodge is endeavoring to collect some fishing tackle for the use of soldiers stationed at Camp White. The lodge has made an appeal to its members for the donation or sale of any fishing equipment they would like to give up for this purpose.

J. F. Fliegel is chairman in charge of this activity and requests that anyone having fishing tackle they care to dispose of for this purpose either deliver it to the Elk club or call him and he will see that it is picked up.

HANSCOM HEARING IS SCHEDULED TOMORROW

Earl Hanscom, stockman and farmer of the Eagle Point district, charged with selling untagged meat, is scheduled to appear in justice court tomorrow for disposition of the case. Further time was granted at a previous hearing to permit investigation by the authorities.

Twin Bomb Bays Add Double Punch to Super-Fortress

The B-29 Super-Fortress carries such a tremendous bomb load that it takes twin bomb bays (both open in photo) to enable giant craft to discharge its deadly cargo. Bombs drop alternately from bays so that plane's center of gravity remains undisturbed.
