Maj. Bottermiller Speaks Sunday at Nazarene Service

Chaplain Major Harold Botter-miller will be pupil guest Sunday at the Rev. Fred M. Weatherford at the Medford Church of the Nazarene, Holly at First street, and will be the spokesman for the 7:45 p. m. service. Chaplain Bottermiller and Mr. Weatherford have been friends for over 20 years.

The Chaplain spent 13 months as force chaplain in the Aleutian Islands and figured prominently in the Attu conflict, ministering to the wounded and officiating at the burial of hundreds of Americans. As a prelude to his message Sunday night, Chaplain Bottermiller will relate his Alaska service experiences. He has been in the service for three years, two of which were with the Fourth Army at the Presidio, San Francisco. Previously, he was pastor of the Grace Baptist church of San Jose, Calif., where during his pastoral tenure a beautiful church edifice was erected.

Rev. Fred M. Weatherford will speak at 10:45 a. m. at the Church of the Nazarene on the topic, "Obtaining Salvation." John Eby is director of music.

Rev. Baker Opens
Pastorate Here
Sunday Morning

The Rev. G. O. Baker, formerly of Corvallis, will hold his initial service Sunday as pastor of the Assembly of God church, Newtown street near West Main.
Mrs. Baker will direct the singing and the new pastor will give as his introductory address at the Rev. G. O. Baker

11 a. m. meeting, "Harvesting Souls." The 8 p. m. evangelistic meeting topic will be, "There Is No Substitute."

The Rev. and Mrs. Baker were elected to the local pastorate following the decision of the Rev.
Harry Downey to return to the missionary field.

The Bakers have taken up residence in the new parsonage at 905 East Jackson street.

Members and friends are urged by Rev. Baker to attend the Sunday services.

GASOLINE ENOUGH IF RUNS DON'T DEVELOP

Washington, Aug. 4.—(U.P.)— Gasoline stocks throughout the country will continue to be tight during the next few months but supplies will be sufficient to meet rationed demands unless motorists start "runs" on individual service stations. Deputy Petroleum Administrator Ralph K. Davies predicted today.

Stocks are particularly tight in New York harbor and New England areas, he said, because many tank cars which normally deliver gasoline to these sections have been diverted to military duty.

HALT ALUMINUM

Washington, Aug. 4.—(U.P.)— Aluminum metal production will be terminated at plants in Riverbank, Cal., and Burlington, N. J., and reduced by one-third at the Torrancia plant in Los Angeles, making a total monthly cutback of 12,000,000 pounds, the War Production Board announced today.

SENATOR CORDON AIRS PROBLEMS AND PROSPECTS

Mining, Agriculture, Lumber Prospects Discussed at Chamber Commerce Meet

Discussing problems and prospects of the mining, agricultural and lumber industries in this area, United States Senator Guy Cordon of Roseburg, spoke at a meeting of Medford area citizens last night. A capacity audience gathered in the Chamber of Commerce building to hear the senator who stated that his brief visit to his district was being terminated this week-end in order that he might return to Washington in time to work on reconversion legislation, expected early next week.

Discussing mining problems of the area, Sen. Cordon stated that he and Congressman Harris Ellis would have introduced bills in congress which it is hoped will clarify the interpretation placed on a bill passed in 1937 which now prohibits mining on lands of the O and C administration, and return claims filed since 1937 to the jurisdiction of the general mining laws. Hearings on mining matters are scheduled for this district and others this fall and Senator Cordon urged that evidence be prepared for presentation.

Rogue Dam Eyed

The senator stated that a federal survey on irrigation and reclamation for 17 western states would be completed soon and added that it contained information concerning the possible damming of the Rogue river for irrigation and flood control. Residents of this area should study the report and determine whether they want the river dammed, he said, and urged that committees from Jackson and Josephine counties be appointed to prepare a coordinated study of the matter.

Prefacing his remarks about the local lumber industry, Senator Cordon intimated that the collapse of Germany might be expected as early as September.
He predicted that the lumber industry would undergo a "breathing spell" after the close of the war which would be followed by a large demand for lumber products for private building, seriously curtailed during the war.

Study Urged

The senator urged a study of the lumber industry with an eye towards the manufacture of lumber products near the source of supply, rather than the mere sale of the raw lumber thereby adding new industries. He further said the matter of sustained yield should be given additional thought in order that this country not be stripped entirely and the industry completely lost, as has been the case in other regions.

In closing, Senator Cordon stated that all citizens should inform themselves on national and international events in order to work towards an intelligent peace and post-war developments. "The coming four years will be the toughest" in the history of the nation since the Civil War and it will require courage and the power of intelligent decision to weather the period," he declared.

The senator's only political reference during the evening was to thank the voters of this district for their support of him during the recent primary election.

Jobs For Vets Urged

During the question period, J. C. Barnes brought up the matter of the returning serviceman and his problems and Senator Cordon explained proposed legislation along these lines. A.
A. Lausman, lumberman, asked for discussion of the heavy truck tire shortage, a matter of grave importance at this time, and the senator explained the sudden shortage by stating that the collapse of German resistance, with subsequent acceleration of the war in Europe, resulted in a sudden demand for equipment. The army has taken a much larger percentage of heavy tires than was expected, he said, bringing the drastic reduction in civilian supplies.

The speaker was hopeful that the situation would be of comparatively brief duration.

Senator Cordon was introduced by Herb Grey, a director of the Chamber of Commerce.
Mr. Grey also introduced State Senator Marshall Cornett of Klamath Falls, in Medford for the meeting.

BIG TIRE PLEAS REQUIRE FILING QUESTIONNAIRE

All applicants for truck tires of 825-20 and larger must attach to their tire applications a completed questionnaire, Form No. MR-11 before any action can be taken on their applications.
According to L. L. Ternahan, executive secretary of the local OPA board, the questionnaire, a two-page mimeographed affair designed to establish priority ratings has been supplied in a limited quantity by the Portland district office and it will be necessary for the applicant to secure one of these at the board office, according to Ternahan.

"All applications must also have gone through the Central Truck Tire Inspection station," Mr. Ternahan states, which means that all truck tire applications lacking the central inspection station stamp now on file at the board office are outlawed."

Effective August 1, all certificates for large truck tires are being issued at the district office at Portland. As the August quota for the entire state of Oregon is only 1318 large truck tires, it will be possible to issue certificates for only a small number of the essential applications. No applications, no matter how essential, will be considered unless all questions on Form MR-11 are fully answered." tural extension service, announced today.

Do you have friends you secretly envy because they seem to get more out of important news of the day than you do yet apparently spend no more time on their newspapers?

In their overall view of what's happening clearer than yours? Do they see in the news important meanings or implications you've missed? Are they apt to know quicker than you how developments will affect personal or business interests?

If you yourself want to get more out of the news, here's how:
