Miss Mary Reed, Captain Patton Married July 28

Announcement has been made of the wedding on Friday, July 28, of Miss Mary Loy Reed, a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Reed of Halls, Tenn., to Captain Kenneth H. Patton of Medford. Captain Patton is the son of Mrs. C. Rease Braley, Valley View Drive, and Hamilton Patton, Pasadena, Calif.

The marriage vows were read by the Rev. B. R. Winchester at the First Baptist church in Halls, the service taking place at six o'clock in the evening. For the ceremony the bride wore a moonstone jersey suit trimmed in brown and brown accessories. Her flowers were a shoulder corsage of gardenias.

Miss Reed's attendant was Miss Johnnie Palmer of Dyersburg, Tenn., who wore a costume of brown and beige.

Lt. Robert D. Van Buskirk of Los Angeles was best man for Captain Patton.

A small reception for the family and close friends followed the wedding service.

Captain and Mrs. Patton motored west to Boise, Idaho, where the captain will be stationed for a time at Gowen Field near Boise. For the past year he has been on duty at Dyersburg, Tenn. He has been in the army air corps for two and one-half years, taking his officer training in Florida. Captain Patton is a graduate of Stanford university.

Former Residents Are Entertained By Friends Here

Two former residents, Mrs. Bill Morgan of Portland and Miss Aletha Hubbard of Seattle, are guests in Medford at the present and are being entertained by friends.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Chester Hubbard entertained for the two visitors, inviting a number of mutual friends to her home, 2451 Lyman avenue, for tea. Miss Hubbard is a cousin of Mr. Hubbard. Friday afternoon Mrs. Warren Hamlin, who has Mrs. Morgan as a house guest during her stay in Medford, entertained a few close friends of the visitors for luncheon and bridge at the Medford Hotel. At bridge, prizes for high scores went to Mrs. Frank Perl and Mrs. Warren Olson.

Mrs. Morgan will leave Tuesday for Portland and Miss Hubbard is remaining for an extended visit. She is a house guest of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Herman, 322 South Riverside avenue.

Miss Quisenberry To Become Bride Of Alden R. Crow

Valley friends of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Quisenberry, former residents, will be interested in the news of the engagement of their daughter, Miss Zoa Quisenberry, to Alden R. Crow. The Quisenberrys now reside in Portland and Mr. Crow is the son of Mrs. Elmer O. Crow, Pendleton, and the late Mr. Crow.

The bride-elect revealed the betrothal news to a group of friends during a recent desert party given at the home of her parents. The wedding is to be early this fall.

Both Miss Quisenberry and Mr. Crow attended the University of Oregon. She is a member of the university chapter of Alpha Delta Pi sorority and Mr. Crow was affiliated with Kappa Sigma fraternity.

Mrs. Leonard, Daughter Leave for East Coast

Mrs. Morris Leonard, Wellington Heights, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Jean Leonard, left this morning for Maryland where they will attend graduation ceremonies August 23 at the United States Naval Academy, Annapolis. A member of the class will be Morris Leonard, Jr., and it is expected that he will return to the west coast with his mother and sister, having been assigned to Pacific duty. The three plan to spend some time in New York City before returning and will arrive here about Sept. 1.

Evelyn Zittercob And Cadet Thurman Wed In New Haven

Miss Evelyn Louise Zittercob of Ontario, Ore., and Cadet Harry Lyle Thurman, army air corps, Medford, were married July 15 at Dwight Memorial chapel, Yale university, New Haven, Conn. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Zittercob of Ontario and Cadet Thurman's parents are Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Thurman, 722 West Fourteenth street.

The service took place at 7 o'clock in the evening and was read by Chaplain James H. Calloway of the army air force before an altar arranged with gladioli.

Miss Zittercob's wedding gown was in the traditional white satin, fashioned with a fitted bodice, long sleeves and full train, and trimmed with seed pearls. Her fingertip length veil was held with a crown of orange blossoms and she carried a white prayer book with an orchid and ribbon streamers.

Cadet Monroe Steele was best man for the groom.

Cadet and Mrs. Thurman are residing on Highland Road near New Haven until the groom completes his course at Yale university. He is to graduate and receive his commission Aug. 17.

Mrs. Thurman received a degree of science this spring from Oregon State college and during her senior year was tapped for membership in the all-college honor society. Cadet Thurman was enrolled in engineering at the college before going into the air corps and is a member of the college chapter of Sigma Phi Epsilon. He has been in the air corps a year.

Nebraskans Plan Annual Meeting For Lithia City

Sunday, August 13, has been set as the date for the annual picnic and meeting of the Jackson County Nebraska association, according to T. L. O'Hara, Ashland, president of the association. The Helman picnic grounds in Ashland have been reserved for that day and the picnic dinner will be served at noon. All former residents of Nebraska are invited to attend.

A business meeting and program will follow the picnic dinner. Mr. O'Hara states, and he is hopeful that this year's attendance will be as good as that of last year, when some 300 persons attended the annual affair. Mr. O'Hara has stated that anyone having program suggestions should contact him.

Each family attending is asked to bring a picnic lunch and table service.

Mrs. Harry Lyle Thurman is the former Evelyn Louise Zittercob of Ontario, Ore., a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Zittercob of that town. The wedding of Miss Zittercob and Cadet Thurman took place July 15 at Dwight Memorial Chapel, New Haven, Conn. Cadet Thurman is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Thurman, 722 West Fourteenth street, Medford. (Photo by Joseph A. Stone, New Haven, Conn.)

Churchwomen Plan Program Of Events For Coming Year

Plans for the fall and winter program of the Medford Council of Church Women were formulated and discussed at the meeting of the board of directors called last Friday by the president, Mrs. Karl W. Brockhaus, who extended a special welcome to representatives of newly affiliated groups.

A "World Community" institute, designed for leadership training, will be held in September under the direction of the education committee and with Mrs. B. R. Elliott as chairman. November 3 is World Community Day and at that time the project committee, under the leadership of Mrs. H. S. Hinman, will present a program on the aspects of a just and desirable peace.

The annual business meeting is scheduled for December and will include reports from all committees as well as election of officers for the coming year. The program for the World Day of Prayer in February will be arranged by the spiritual life committee, Mrs. G. C. Sanders, chairman.

Mrs. Brockhaus brought to the board meeting a report of the executive committee of the Oregon Council of Church Women which she attended on June 22 in Portland.

Montana Society Schedules Picnic For August 13th

The Jackson County Montana society has announced the annual picnic will be held in Lithia Park in Ashland on August 13. A picnic dinner will be served at one o'clock and will be followed by a program with Floyd K. Dover, Grants Pass, speaking.

It is stated that ice cream, lemonade, coffee and cream will be furnished by the committee, and those attending are asked to bring sugar for the lemonade and coffee. Each family is to bring its picnic dinner and own service.

Francis Walker of Medford is president of the society and urges all former residents of Montana to attend. No picnic was held last year, and a large attendance is anticipated.

Mrs. M. C. Murrey Is Honored Guest

Friends of Mrs. M. C. Murrey gathered at the home of Mrs. W. L. Gardner, 323 South Peach street, Friday afternoon to celebrate Mrs. Murrey's birthday anniversary. During the afternoon Venita Gardner entertained with piano numbers and Mrs. Murrey was presented with a number of gifts. Refreshments were served.

Attending the affair were Mrs. Elizabeth High, Mrs. Helen Pierce, Mrs. Townrough, Miss Lillian Roberts, Mrs. Clara Barry, Mrs. Elizabeth Pierce, Jimmie Pierce, Venita Gardner, Leonard Pierce, Mrs. Gardner and the honored guest.

Maxfield-Hayes Rites Are Held At Eastern Camp

Of interest to friends here of Ensign Eugene Dorin Hayes is the news of his wedding, his bride being the former Evelyn Mina Maxfield of Burlington, Vermont. Ensign Hayes is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Hayes, 724 Alder street, and the bride is the daughter of Mrs. Mina Maxfield.

The rites took place June 27 in Memorial Chapel at Camp MacDonough, Plattsburg, N. Y., immediately after the ensign's graduation from midshipman's school at Camp MacDonough, and were read by the Rev. Earl F. Nauss, senior chaplain.

For the wedding Miss Maxfield wore a dress of aqua crepe and a small white hat trimmed with orange blossoms and a veil. Her flowers were orchids. She was attended by Miss Helen Whitehurst of Burlington and Ensign Hayes' best man was Edward Clair Harms, Jr., of Portland.

The bride is a graduate of the high school at Newport, R. I., later attended the Powelson Institute, Syracuse, N. Y., and for the past two years has been an employee of the federal government, first at the Boston Port of Embarkation and more recently at the office of Internal Revenue in Burlington.

Ensign Hayes is a graduate of Medford high school, attended the College of Education at Ashland and graduated from San Mateo junior college in California. His navy training was taken at the University of New Mexico and at Camp MacDonough. Ensign Hayes is currently stationed at Houston, Tex., and his bride is continuing her residence in Burlington.

Red Cross Corps Luncheon Meets Held Last Week

Members of the Home Service corps of the Jackson County Red Cross chapter were entertained at luncheon Thursday at the Medford Hotel by Mrs. Harry Holmes, chairman, with Miss Missa Polissar, assistant field director in charge of Red Cross work at the Camp White station hospital, as guest of honor.

Following luncheon the group went to the chapter office where Miss Polissar spoke on the needs of the disabled servicemen from the hospital social workers viewpoint. Home service aides present were Mrs. Marris Gibbons, Mrs. E. B. DeVoe, Mrs. Raymond Miksche and Mrs. J. D. McPherson. Others present were Mrs. Alfred S. V. Carpenter, chairman of volunteer services for the chapter; Mrs. Gertrude Yeiser, home service worker and Mrs. Fred Rankin of the chapter staff.

The Home Service corps members each give one day a week of volunteer service in the chapter office, interviewing servicemen and their dependents. They are now making a special study of problems of the returning servicemen, under the direction of Miss Lillian Roberts, head of the Home Service department.

Members of the Staff Assistant's corps held a luncheon meeting at the Hotel Medford Friday noon in honor of Mrs. George Vandewall, member of the Camp White auxiliary, who has served in the chapter office as a volunteer for the past year. Mrs. Vandewall leaves Medford shortly for Santa Barbara, Cal. Mrs. John Day, chairman, presided at the meeting.

Mrs. Hargrave Leaves

Mrs. Maude E. Hargrave, 38 North Orange street, left Friday for Oakland, Calif., to spend several days with a daughter.

Betrothal Told At Dinner Party For Miss Lewis

The engagement of Miss Mary Jane Lewis of Medford to Pfc. Bertrand Ellis of Shelton, Wash., was announced at a dinner given for Miss Lewis Friday night of last week by Mrs. Robert Davis and Miss Beverly Pearson at the home of their mother, Mrs. Carl Pearson, 118 Clark street. Pfc. Ellis is in France serving with an anti-aircraft unit. No date has been set for the wedding.

A centerpiece of yellow gladioli and white candles decorated the table from which dinner was served. Announcement cards marked each guest's place at the dinner table and these were attached to ribbon streamers arranged from the centerpiece.

Present were Miss Phyllis Werner, Miss Doris Clark, Miss Mary Glascock, Miss Donna Thomas, Miss Lilybelle Casebolt, Miss Anne Scripser, Mrs. Charles Lewis, mother of the honored guest, the hostesses and Mrs. Pearson.

Miss Lewis, whose parents reside at 308 Ashland Avenue, is a graduate of Medford senior high school and is presently employed with the telephone company here. Pfc. Ellis is the son of Mrs. Alice Ellis of Shelton.

Missionary Group Meets At Church

A program on "The American Indian" was presented at the meeting of the Adult Missionary society of the First Christian church held Wednesday afternoon at the church parlors. Mrs. Walter Kindred, president of the society, conducted the business meeting and Mrs. Fred Daugherty had arranged the program.

Mrs. Ward Rice, accompanied by Mrs. Mabel Sims, sang two numbers. Following the program, Mrs. Arthur Gregory and her committee served refreshments.

Next regular meeting of the society will be Sept. 6 in the church parlors.

Pvt. Harlow Carpenter, who left Wednesday for Corvallis to report to the army for training in the specialized reserve training program, entertained a few friends at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred S. V. Carpenter, Topsides, Tuesday night. The group swam and then later cooked an outdoor supper.

Officers' Wives Honor Mrs. Young At Tea Saturday

Mrs. John R. Young was honored at a tea given yesterday afternoon at the Outpost by wives of officers of the Western Personnel Reassignment Center, Camp White. Mrs. Young's husband, Colonel Young, was formerly head of the reassignment center and is now post commander of Camp White.

The tea was planned at this time because a large number of officers stationed at Camp White recently with the center staff are now being transferred to another post.

Invited as special guests were Mrs. Arthur Ericsson, Mrs. Charles Smith and Mrs. John W. Horsley.

Tea was served from a table centered with an arrangement of pink and blue larkspur and with lighted tapers. During the afternoon Mrs. Young was presented with a gift.

Church Society Picnic Is Held; Plan Reception

Jacksonville—Recent activities of the Jacksonville Presbyterian Missionary society have included the annual picnic, held July 27, and planning a reception in honor of Miss Irene Forsythe, returned missionary from China, the reception to be held at the church this evening following Miss Forsythe's lecture. The public has been invited both to hear the speaker and to attend the reception.

Program events for the meeting following the annual picnic included a report by Mrs. E. Iverson of Medford on the meeting of the synodical, held recently in Portland and which Mrs. Iverson attended. Mrs. Iverson was presented by Mrs. Peter Fick, leader for the meeting.

Also on the program were Mrs. George Wendt, who sang, and Mrs. Roy Harris, who had charge of the devotional period. Mrs. Otto Niedermeyer is president of the society.

Fidelity Circle Meet To Be Held Tuesday

Fidelity circle of the Methodist church will meet Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock in the ladies' parlor of the church. Hostesses will be the Mesdames Everett Cuffel and Lucy Simmonds. Mrs. L. N. Younger will lead devotions, and Mrs. Robert Rae will have charge of the program. Visitors are welcome.

Sheriff's Posse Breakfast Given At Country Home

This morning the Jackson County Sheriff's Posse is entertaining at a breakfast for posse members, the Ladies' Mounted Troop, the Rogue Troopers and wives and husbands of the groups' members. The breakfast, to be preceded by a ride, will be at the home of Con DeVore on Cherry Lane.

In charge of the breakfast is a committee headed by Dr. James C. Hayes, and assisting him are Dr. C. I. Drummond, Richard Phair and Dr. S. E. Phillips. A hearty "country" breakfast, with plenty of flapjacks and maple syrup, was promised by Dr. Hayes.

Plans were made for about 60 persons to attend the breakfast.

August Meeting Of Wives' Club Held Thursday

Among last week's social events was the August meeting of the SCU Officers' Wives club, held Thursday at the Officers' Outpost. Luncheon was served from small tables centered with bouquets of pastel flowers, and was followed by a business meeting, presided over by Mrs. John W. Horsley.

During the meeting Mrs. John R. Young presented Mrs. Horsley with a gift from the group in appreciation for her outstanding leadership of the organization during recent months. In reply, Mrs. Horsley thanked her officers and committee heads and praised Mrs. I. E. Schuler, director of the Outpost, stating that in the minds of many army wives, Mrs. Schuler was Medford's most outstanding civilian in point of service to army individuals and groups.

About 36 women attended the luncheon and meeting.

League Activities Presented Board

Board members of the Jackson County League of Women Voters, meeting last Tuesday evening at the home of the president, Mrs. Justin Smith, were brought up-to-date on national and state activities of the league.

From national officers it was learned that matters of foreign policy, pre-election activities and inflation control would receive the major attention of league leaders in the coming weeks. Writing on pre-election activities, one officer said "It is the function of every league member to try to create in different and apathetic citizens a sense of responsibility for taking part in government; it is also the function of every league member to help citizens to know, for instance, when, where and what elections are being held and something of the issues."

Included in the discussion of matters of local interest was material concerning a petition to raise by special taxation funds for a new county home and hospital.
