

SPORTS

BROWNIES DEFEAT
TRIBE TWICE TO
INCREASE MARGINSewell's Club Heads East
With Six and Half Game
Lead; Cubs Stopped.

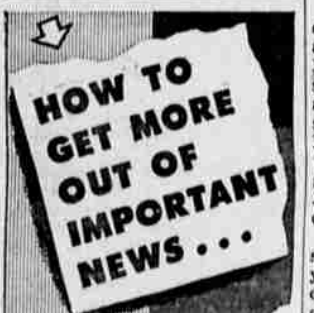

New York, Aug. 7.—(U.P.)—The St. Louis Browns headed east today to begin their last, and certainly most important, intersection trip of the campaign with a six and a half game lead over the Boston Red Sox and riding the crest of an eight game winning streak, the only skinn of any consequence to survive week-end play.

In the National league the Pittsburgh Pirates halted the 11 game winning streak of the Chicago Cubs and the Philadelphia Phillies broke their losing streak at 12 games by winning the second game of a doubleheader from the New York Giants.

The coming road trip, it was generally conceded, will make or break the Browns in their quest for their first American league pennant. If the Missourians can re-enter St. Louis on Sept. 1 with half the margin they have now the pennant should be theirs.

Numerologists might have made something of yesterday's twin bill against Cleveland. The figure six certainly proved lucky for the Browns and they won, 9-6 and 6-4 with six run rallies in the sixth innings of each game and increased their league lead to six and a half games—their longest of the year.

Tigers To 4th
The Detroit Tigers moved into fourth spot in the junior circuit by winning a pair from the Chicago White Sox, 10-3 and 3-1.

Do you have friends you secretly envy because they seem to get more out of important news of the day than you do yet apparently spend no more time on their newspapers?

In their overall view of what's happening clearer than yours? Do they see in the news important meanings of implications you've missed? Are they apt to know quicker than you how developments will affect personal or business interests?

If you yourself want to get more out of the news, here's how: Every day The Wall Street Journal carries a front-page feature "What's News" — condensing in one column all important "world-wide" events, and in another the outstanding developments in business and finance.

Just 5½ minutes' reading time gives you a definite background against which to consider and appraise individual industrial, financial and Washington developments — concisely, accurately reported and analyzed in The Wall Street Journal's other columns.

That's one reason why The Wall Street Journal really is a new kind of newspaper. That's why, too, The Wall Street Journal is a daily working tool of progressive management.

Published daily right here on the Coast to bring you vital business and Washington information immediately.

Subscription rates in 6 Months $9.50 (U.S. and Possessions). Foreign on request. One year $18.00.

The Wall Street Journal
413 Bush St., San Francisco 8
108 W. 6th St., Los Angeles 14

Use Mail Tribune West Ad.

FACTORY

BLOCKS

200 Cubic Foot Load $6.75

Dial 2123

TIMBER PRODUCTS COMPANY

MEDFORD OREGON

Dial 2123

Medford Oregon

Medford Oregon

Medford Oregon

Medford Oregon

Medford Oregon

Medford Oregon

Medford Oregon

Medford Oregon

Medford Oregon

Medford Oregon

Medford Oregon

Medford Oregon

New York defeated Philadelphia twice, 6-1 and 1-0. Johnny Lindell homered in each game for the Yankees to spark the team offensively and his second circuit clout spoiled a four hit effort for Jess Flores.

Boston and Washington split, both coming from behind to win in the late innings. The Nats counted twice in the ninth inning of the first to gain a 3-2 edge. Two walked and a double by Roy Partee gave the Red Sox two runs after two were out in the eighth inning for a 5-4 decision.

The Pirates weren't fooling when they ended Chicago's winning streak by taking two games, 13-5 and 5-4. Nine runs in the seventh inning of the first clinched Preacher Roe's victory and five runs in the first three innings of the afterpiece proved enough for Nick Strincevich.

The double loss moved the Cubs back into the second division, a single percentage point behind the New York Giants who split with the Phillies. Harry Feldman regained his winning stride in the first game and pitched the Giants to a 6-2 triumph, his ninth win of the season. But Philadelphia came out of its slump in the nightcap when three home runs, one each by Ted Cieslak, Melvin Shea and Coaker Triplett, proved enough of a working margin for Bill Lee's six-hitter to stand up for a 3-1 win.

Bums Are Bums
The Brooklyn Dodgers had no struggle at all in "regaining" the National league's cellar by dropping two to the Boston Braves. The beanthrowers opened with a 14-4 shellacking. St. Louis and Cincinnati played the year's first scheduled single on a Sunday and made a marathon out of it, the Cards winning 5-4 in the 14th inning. Max Lanier received credit for his 13th win when he opened the fifth overtime frame with a single and scored on Johnny Hopp's double.

TULSA GRID BOSS
WILL AID STARS

Chicago, Aug. 7.—(U.P.)—One of the youngest coaching veterans in the football business, Henry Frnda of Tulsa University, has been named to take an assistant coaching post alongside the inveterate Alvin (Bo) McMillin of Indiana to prepare the 1944 All Stars for their game with the Chicago Bears, Aug. 30, it was announced today.

Head man of Tulsa University football for the past three years, Frnda boosted the Golden Hurricanes into the national gridiron spotlight with bowl teams and All Americans. Two of his greatest stars will follow their coach to the All Star camp at Northwestern: Lt. Glenn Dobbs, who led the 1943 Stars to victory over the Washington Redskins, 27-7, and Ellis Jones, one-arm guard of the 1942 Hurricanes.

BAKSI BATTLES
SAVOLD TONIGHT

Chicago, Aug. 7.—(U.P.)—A rough and ready young bruiser from the western Pennsylvania coal fields, Joe Baksi, will make his bid for a lasting victory over Lee Savold, the explosive-fisted Slav from Patterson, N. J. tonight in a 10-round affair billed for the "world's civilian heavyweight championship."

Promoter Jack Kearns, the old doctor who acquired permanent fame and temporary fortune as Jack Dempsey's manager, has matched the two heavyweights for a "rubber" bout at Wrigley Field.

Kearns predicted the bout would attract approximately 14,000 paying customers, a gate of about $60,000, plus some 8,000 service men and women who will be admitted free.

Tom Yawkey Stymied Again
As Draft Threatens Stars

By Jack Cuddy
United Press Staff Correspondent
New York, Aug. 7.—(U.P.)—Tom Yawkey, who has spent more than $4,000,000 on the Boston Red Sox during his 12-year quest for an American league pennant, seems to have been stymied again—by the fortunes of war.

Uncle Sam's impartial hand is reaching for some of Yawkey's stellar performers. This gesture seems certain to blast the pennant prospects of the second-place Sox, best hitting club in the circuit.

The loss of big Tex Hughson, alone, might be a mortal blow to the Yawkeymen whose weakest department is pitching. Hughson, tall, right-handed ace of the mound staff, announced yesterday that he would pitch probably his last game for the Sox in the White Sox Wednesday. His draft board has indicated that he will be called to active duty in the navy by Aug. 28.

Cecil Carlton Hughson of Kyle, Tex., has been the Gold Six only dependable flinger this season, as he registered 17 victories against five defeats. He is tied with Hal Newhouse of the Tigers for the most games won in the league. Newhouse has 17 and six. Hal Manager Joe Cronin in other rotators of dependability, chances are the Red Sox now would be well in front of the St. Louis Browns, instead of 6½ games behind them. But Cronin could not obtain pitching to match the club's hitting. Joe figured on George Woods, Emmett O'Neill, Yank Terry and Oscar Judd to team with Hughson as starters. But Terry, Woods and O'Neill couldn't get going; and Judd has been bothered all season with a sore arm.

As farewells are being readied for Hughson, five other Red Sox await service calls. Second baseman Bobby Doerr, who is fighting for the league's batting championship, passed his military physical examination last week, along with Centerfielder Leon Culberson and Catchers Roy Partee and Bill Conroy. Meanwhile, Catcher Hal Wagner expects to be called to the navy within a week. He enlisted with Hughson last March. With three catchers apparently service bound, perhaps Cronin, the versatile veteran infielder, will be forced to shift his relieving activities from first base to backstop.

BYRON NELSON IS TOURNEY WINNER

Beverly Hills, Calif., Aug. 7.—(U.P.)—Byron Nelson pocketed the top prize money of the $5,000 Beverly Hills Open Golf tournament today and headed for Spokane, Wash., to try his hand at the National PGA tournament with more of the nation's top-flight links' kings.

The Toledo, O., pro knocked a birdie putt into the cup on the last hole for a 277, edging out Tony Penna, Dayton, O., by two strokes in the final round of the 72-hole event yesterday at Rolling Hills country club.

Penna and Nelson were tied when they came to the final hole. Nelson teed off first with a straight drive and hit the green with a chip shot. Penna lost ground by hooking into a string of trees. He shot over a bushy fir, his ball landing 10 feet from the cup, and near Nelson's.

Nelson made the putt for a birdie 3 but Penna missed. Harold (Jug) McSpaden of Philadelphia, Pa., the year's top money winning pro, shot a four-under par 67 to move into third place with 283.

Edison conducted 6,000 experiments, mostly on vegetable growth, for eight years while seeking a suitable incandescent lamp filament.

Edison conducted 6,000 experiments, mostly on vegetable growth, for eight years while seeking a suitable incandescent lamp filament.

Edison conducted 6,000 experiments, mostly on vegetable growth, for eight years while seeking a suitable incandescent lamp filament.

Edison conducted 6,000 experiments, mostly on vegetable growth, for eight years while seeking a suitable incandescent lamp filament.

Edison conducted 6,000 experiments, mostly on vegetable growth, for eight years while seeking a suitable incandescent lamp filament.

Edison conducted 6,000 experiments, mostly on vegetable growth, for eight years while seeking a suitable incandescent lamp filament.

Edison conducted 6,000 experiments, mostly on vegetable growth, for eight years while seeking a suitable incandescent lamp filament.

Edison conducted 6,000 experiments, mostly on vegetable growth, for eight years while seeking a suitable incandescent lamp filament.

Edison conducted 6,000 experiments, mostly on vegetable growth, for eight years while seeking a suitable incandescent lamp filament.

Edison conducted 6,000 experiments, mostly on vegetable growth, for eight years while seeking a suitable incandescent lamp filament.

Edison conducted 6,000 experiments, mostly on vegetable growth, for eight years while seeking a suitable incandescent lamp filament.

Edison conducted 6,000 experiments, mostly on vegetable growth, for eight years while seeking a suitable incandescent lamp filament.

Edison conducted 6,000 experiments, mostly on vegetable growth, for eight years while seeking a suitable incandescent lamp filament.

Edison conducted 6,000 experiments, mostly on vegetable growth, for eight years while seeking a suitable incandescent lamp filament.

Edison conducted 6,000 experiments, mostly on vegetable growth, for eight years while seeking a suitable incandescent lamp filament.

Edison conducted 6,000 experiments, mostly on vegetable growth, for eight years while seeking a suitable incandescent lamp filament.

Edison conducted 6,000 experiments, mostly on vegetable growth, for eight years while seeking a suitable incandescent lamp filament.

Edison conducted 6,000 experiments, mostly on vegetable growth, for eight years while seeking a suitable incandescent lamp filament.

Edison conducted 6,000 experiments, mostly on vegetable growth, for eight years while seeking a suitable incandescent lamp filament.

Edison conducted 6,000 experiments, mostly on vegetable growth, for eight years while seeking a suitable incandescent lamp filament.

Edison conducted 6,000 experiments, mostly on vegetable growth, for eight years while seeking a suitable incandescent lamp filament.

Edison conducted 6,000 experiments, mostly on vegetable growth, for eight years while seeking a suitable incandescent lamp filament.

Edison conducted 6,000 experiments, mostly on vegetable growth, for eight years while seeking a suitable incandescent lamp filament.

Edison conducted 6,000 experiments, mostly on vegetable growth, for eight years while seeking a suitable incandescent lamp filament.

Edison conducted 6,000 experiments, mostly on vegetable growth, for eight years while seeking a suitable incandescent lamp filament.

Edison conducted 6,000 experiments, mostly on vegetable growth, for eight years while seeking a suitable incandescent lamp filament.

ANGELS TROUNCE
BEAVERS TWICE;
SEATS WINS TWO

By United Press
Top honors for Pacific Coast league pitching so far this season today were held by San Francisco Seals Southpaw Tom Seats, who hurled his team to a twin shutout victory yesterday over the Sacramento Solons, 6-0, 3-0.

Yielding eight hits in both games, five in the first and three in the second, the veteran iron-man received a thunderous ovation from a near-capacity crowd of 8,638 fans as he set down the Solon batting order for 16 successive innings. It was his fifth shutout in the last six starts and his 20th win of the season. The double triumph gained the Seals a 4-3 series victory.

The Los Angeles Angels, Pacific Coast league leaders, eked out a 5-4 first game win and turned on their batting power to trounce the Portland Beavers 13-2 in the nightcap, giving them a 6-1 series triumph. The Hollywood Stars, in third place, scored a double victory over the San Diego Padres, 5-4 and 3-1, taking the series by four games to three, while the Seattle Rainiers took a pair from the Oakland Acons 3-0 and 7-6.

Games this week sent Portland to San Francisco, Oakland to San Diego, Los Angeles to Sacramento and Seattle to Hollywood.

The Angels almost lost the first game when the Beavers tied the score at two-all in the ninth and went on to add two more in the tenth. In the final half, however, the Angels loaded the bases and Eddie Fernandez walked to force in one score and Cecil Garriott singled to score two more. Ray Prim hurled the nightcap victory for the home team. Scores: Portland.....4 9 0
Los Angeles.....5 12 2
Liska, Cohen 1(0) and Adams; Comellas and Fernandez.

Portland.....2 7 5
Los Angeles.....13 10 1
Pulford, Federnyer (1) Moser (3) and Adams, Cook (3); Prim and Fernandez.

DRIVERS FAVORED
IN GALS TOURNAY

Lake Forest, Ill., Aug. 7.—(U.P.)—The long-ball hitters were the decided favorites today as more than 162 of the nation's best women golfers—led by Defending Champion Dorothy Germain of Philadelphia—teed off for the 18-hole qualifying medal round of the 44th annual women's western amateur championship.

Playing over the sprawling Onwentsia course, the low 32 medalists of today's round will be paired for match play in the championship flight while the remnants of the original field will be placed in subsidiary brackets according to scores.

With two days of practice circling over the par-75 layout concluded, many of the front-line golfers agreed that Onwentsia "gives the advantage" to the power girls. After their practice rounds Miss Germain, Ann Casey of Mason City, Ia., and Catherine Fox of Glen Ridge, N. J., said "the many long 4-par holes give the advantage to long drivers."

With two days of practice circling over the par-75 layout concluded, many of the front-line golfers agreed that Onwentsia "gives the advantage" to the power girls. After their practice rounds Miss Germain, Ann Casey of Mason City, Ia., and Catherine Fox of Glen Ridge, N. J., said "the many long 4-par holes give the advantage to long drivers."

With two days of practice circling over the par-75 layout concluded, many of the front-line golfers agreed that Onwentsia "gives the advantage" to the power girls. After their practice rounds Miss Germain, Ann Casey of Mason City, Ia., and Catherine Fox of Glen Ridge, N. J., said "the many long 4-par holes give the advantage to long drivers."

With two days of practice circling over the par-75 layout concluded, many of the front-line golfers agreed that Onwentsia "gives the advantage" to the power girls. After their practice rounds Miss Germain, Ann Casey of Mason City, Ia., and Catherine Fox of Glen Ridge, N. J., said "the many long 4-par holes give the advantage to long drivers."

With two days of practice circling over the par-75 layout concluded, many of the front-line golfers agreed that Onwentsia "gives the advantage" to the power girls. After their practice rounds Miss Germain, Ann Casey of Mason City, Ia., and Catherine Fox of Glen Ridge, N. J., said "the many long 4-par holes give the advantage to long drivers."

With two days of practice circling over the par-75 layout concluded, many of the front-line golfers agreed that Onwentsia "gives the advantage" to the power girls. After their practice rounds Miss Germain, Ann Casey of Mason City, Ia., and Catherine Fox of Glen Ridge, N. J., said "the many long 4-par holes give the advantage to long drivers."

With two days of practice circling over the par-75 layout concluded, many of the front-line golfers agreed that Onwentsia "gives the advantage" to the power girls. After their practice rounds Miss Germain, Ann Casey of Mason City, Ia., and Catherine Fox of Glen Ridge, N. J., said "the many long 4-par holes give the advantage to long drivers."

With two days of practice circling over the par-75 layout concluded, many of the front-line golfers agreed that Onwentsia "gives the advantage" to the power girls. After their practice rounds Miss Germain, Ann Casey of Mason City, Ia., and Catherine Fox of Glen Ridge, N. J., said "the many long 4-par holes give the advantage to long drivers."

With two days of practice circling over the par-75 layout concluded, many of the front-line golfers agreed that Onwentsia "gives the advantage" to the power girls. After their practice rounds Miss Germain, Ann Casey of Mason City, Ia., and Catherine Fox of Glen Ridge, N. J., said "the many long 4-par holes give the advantage to long drivers."

With two days of practice circling over the par-75 layout concluded, many of the front-line golfers agreed that Onwentsia "gives the advantage" to the power girls. After their practice rounds Miss Germain, Ann Casey of Mason City, Ia., and Catherine Fox of Glen Ridge, N. J., said "the many long 4-par holes give the advantage to long drivers."

With two days of practice circling over the par-75 layout concluded, many of the front-line golfers agreed that Onwentsia "gives the advantage" to the power girls. After their practice rounds Miss Germain, Ann Casey of Mason City, Ia., and Catherine Fox of Glen Ridge, N. J., said "the many long 4-par holes give the advantage to long drivers."

With two days of practice circling over the par-75 layout concluded, many of the front-line golfers agreed that Onwentsia "gives the advantage" to the power girls. After their practice rounds Miss Germain, Ann Casey of Mason City, Ia., and Catherine Fox of Glen Ridge, N. J., said "the many long 4-par holes give the advantage to long drivers."

With two days of practice circling over the par-75 layout concluded, many of the front-line golfers agreed that Onwentsia "gives the advantage" to the power girls. After their practice rounds Miss Germain, Ann Casey of Mason City, Ia., and Catherine Fox of Glen Ridge, N. J., said "the many long 4-par holes give the advantage to long drivers."

With two days of practice circling over the par-75 layout concluded, many of the front-line golfers agreed that Onwentsia "gives the advantage" to the power girls. After their practice rounds Miss Germain, Ann Casey of Mason City, Ia., and Catherine Fox of Glen Ridge, N. J., said "the many long 4-par holes give the advantage to long drivers."

With two days of practice circling over the par-75 layout concluded, many of the front-line golfers agreed that Onwentsia "gives the advantage" to the power girls. After their practice rounds Miss Germain, Ann Casey of Mason City, Ia., and Catherine Fox of Glen Ridge, N. J., said "the many long 4-par holes give the advantage to long drivers."

With two days of practice circling over the par-75 layout concluded, many of the front-line golfers agreed that Onwentsia "gives the advantage" to the power girls. After their practice rounds Miss Germain, Ann Casey of Mason City, Ia., and Catherine Fox of Glen Ridge, N. J., said "the many long 4-par holes give the advantage to long drivers."

With two days of practice circling over the par-75 layout concluded, many of the front-line golfers agreed that Onwentsia "gives the advantage" to the power girls. After their practice rounds Miss Germain, Ann Casey of Mason City, Ia., and Catherine Fox of Glen Ridge, N. J., said "the many long 4-par holes give the advantage to long drivers."

With two days of practice circling over the par-75 layout concluded, many of the front-line golfers agreed that Onwentsia "gives the advantage" to the power girls. After their practice rounds Miss Germain, Ann Casey of Mason City, Ia., and Catherine Fox of Glen Ridge, N. J., said "the many long 4-par holes give the advantage to long drivers."

With two days of practice circling over the par-75 layout concluded, many of the front-line golfers agreed that Onwentsia "gives the advantage" to the power girls. After their practice rounds Miss Germain, Ann Casey of Mason City, Ia., and Catherine Fox of Glen Ridge, N. J., said "the many long 4-par holes give the advantage to long drivers."

With two days of practice circling over the par-75 layout concluded, many of the front-line golfers agreed that Onwentsia "gives the advantage" to the power girls. After their practice rounds Miss Germain, Ann Casey of Mason City, Ia., and Catherine Fox of Glen Ridge, N. J., said "the many long 4-par holes give the advantage to long drivers."

With two days of practice circling over the par-75 layout concluded, many of the front-line golfers agreed that Onwentsia "gives the advantage" to the power girls. After their practice rounds Miss Germain, Ann Casey of Mason City, Ia., and Catherine Fox of Glen Ridge, N. J., said "the many long 4-par holes give the advantage to long drivers."

With two days of practice circling over the par-75 layout concluded, many of the front-line golfers agreed that Onwentsia "gives the advantage" to the power girls. After their practice rounds Miss Germain, Ann Casey of Mason City, Ia., and Catherine Fox of Glen Ridge, N. J., said "the many long 4-par holes give the advantage to long drivers."

With two days of practice circling over the par-75 layout concluded, many of the front-line golfers agreed that Onwentsia "gives the advantage" to the power girls. After their practice rounds Miss Germain, Ann Casey of Mason City, Ia., and Catherine Fox of Glen Ridge, N. J., said "the many long 4-par holes give the advantage to long drivers."

With two days of practice circling over the par-75 layout concluded, many of the front-line golfers agreed that Onwentsia "gives the advantage" to the power girls. After their practice rounds Miss Germain, Ann Casey of Mason City, Ia., and Catherine Fox of Glen Ridge, N. J., said "the many long 4-par holes give the advantage to long drivers."

With two days of practice circling over the par-75 layout concluded, many of the front-line golfers agreed that Onwentsia "gives the advantage" to the power girls. After their practice rounds Miss Germain, Ann Casey of Mason City, Ia., and Catherine Fox of Glen Ridge, N. J., said "the many long 4-par holes give the advantage to long drivers."

With two days of practice circling over the par-75 layout concluded, many of the front-line golfers agreed that Onwentsia "gives the advantage" to the power girls. After their practice rounds Miss Germain, Ann Casey of Mason City, Ia., and Catherine Fox of Glen Ridge, N. J., said "the many long 4-par holes give the advantage to long drivers."

With two days of practice circling over the par-75 layout concluded, many of the front-line golfers agreed that Onwentsia "gives the advantage" to the power girls. After their practice rounds Miss Germain, Ann Casey of Mason City, Ia., and Catherine Fox of Glen Ridge, N. J., said "the many long 4-par holes give the advantage to long drivers."

With two days of practice circling over the par-75 layout concluded, many of the front-line golfers agreed that Onwentsia "gives the advantage" to the power girls. After their practice rounds Miss Germain, Ann Casey of Mason City, Ia., and Catherine Fox of Glen Ridge, N. J., said "the many long 4-par holes give the advantage to long drivers."

With two days of practice circling over the par-75 layout concluded, many of the front-line golfers agreed that Onwentsia "gives the advantage" to the power girls. After their practice rounds Miss Germain, Ann Casey of Mason City, Ia., and Catherine Fox of Glen Ridge, N. J., said "the many long 4-par holes give the advantage to long drivers."

With two days of practice circling over the par-75 layout concluded, many of the front-line golfers agreed that Onwentsia "gives the advantage" to the power girls. After their practice rounds Miss Germain, Ann Casey of Mason City, Ia., and Catherine Fox of Glen Ridge, N. J., said "the many long 4-par holes give the advantage to long drivers."

With two days of practice circling over the par-75 layout concluded, many of the front-line golfers agreed that Onwentsia "gives the advantage" to the power girls. After their practice rounds Miss Germain, Ann Casey of Mason City, Ia., and Catherine Fox of Glen Ridge, N. J., said "the many long 4-par holes give the advantage to long drivers."

With two days of practice circling over the par-75 layout concluded, many of the front-line golfers agreed that Onwentsia "gives the advantage" to the power girls. After their practice rounds Miss Germain, Ann Casey of Mason City, Ia., and Catherine Fox of Glen Ridge, N. J., said "the many long 4-par holes give the advantage to long drivers."

With two days of practice circling over the par-75 layout concluded, many of the front-line golfers agreed that Onwentsia "gives the advantage" to the power girls. After their practice rounds Miss Germain, Ann Casey of Mason City, Ia., and Catherine Fox of Glen Ridge, N. J., said "the many long 4-par holes give the advantage to long drivers."

With two days of practice circling over the par-75 layout concluded, many of the front-line golfers agreed that Onwentsia "gives the advantage" to the power girls. After their practice rounds Miss Germain, Ann Casey of Mason City, Ia., and Catherine Fox of Glen Ridge, N. J., said "the many long 4-par holes give the advantage to long drivers."

With two days of practice circling over the par-75 layout concluded, many of the front-line golfers agreed that Onwentsia "gives the advantage" to the power girls. After their practice rounds Miss Germain, Ann Casey of Mason City, Ia., and Catherine Fox of Glen Ridge, N. J., said "the many long 4-par holes give the advantage to long drivers."

With two days of practice circling over the par-75 layout concluded, many of the front-line golfers agreed that Onwentsia "gives the advantage" to the power girls. After their practice rounds Miss Germain, Ann Casey of Mason City, Ia., and Catherine Fox of Glen Ridge, N. J., said "the many long 4-par holes give the advantage to long drivers."

Craterian Star

Now playing at the Craterian is "Shine On Harvest Moon," starring Ann Sheridan and Dennis Morgan with Jack Carson and Irene Manning.

Now playing at the Craterian is "Shine On Harvest Moon," starring Ann Sheridan and Dennis Morgan with Jack Carson and Irene Manning.

Now playing at the Craterian is "Shine On Harvest Moon," starring Ann Sheridan and Dennis Morgan with Jack Carson and Irene Manning.

Now playing at the Craterian is "Shine On Harvest Moon," starring Ann Sheridan and Dennis Morgan with Jack Carson and Irene Manning.

Now playing at the Craterian is "Shine On Harvest Moon," starring Ann Sheridan and Dennis Morgan with Jack Carson and Irene Manning.

Now playing at the Craterian is "Shine On Harvest Moon," starring Ann Sheridan and Dennis Morgan with Jack Carson and Irene Manning.

Now playing at the Craterian is "Shine On Harvest Moon," starring Ann Sheridan and Dennis Morgan with Jack Carson and Irene Manning.

Now playing at the Craterian is "Shine On Harvest Moon," starring Ann Sheridan and Dennis Morgan with Jack Carson and Irene Manning.

Now playing at the Craterian is "Shine On Harvest Moon," starring Ann Sheridan and Dennis Morgan with Jack Carson and Irene Manning.

Now playing at the Craterian is "Shine On Harvest Moon," starring Ann Sheridan and Dennis Morgan with Jack Carson and Irene Manning.

Now playing at the Craterian is "Shine On Harvest Moon," starring Ann Sheridan and Dennis Morgan with Jack Carson and Irene Manning.

Now playing at the Craterian is "Shine On Harvest Moon," starring Ann Sheridan and Dennis Morgan with Jack Carson and Irene Manning.

Now playing at the Craterian is "Shine On Harvest Moon," starring Ann Sheridan and Dennis Morgan with Jack Carson and Irene Manning.

Now playing at the Craterian is "Shine On Harvest Moon," starring Ann Sheridan and Dennis Morgan with Jack Carson and Irene Manning.

Now playing at the Craterian is "Shine On Harvest Moon," starring Ann Sheridan and Dennis Morgan with Jack Carson and Irene Manning