

LOCAL and PERSONAL

At Meeting—Karl Janouch, supervisor of the Rogue River National Forest service left last night for Portland to attend a meeting of forest supervisors being held there today and tomorrow.

Sweeney's Leaving—Dr. and Mrs. Charles T. Sweeney are leaving this evening for Portland and their summer home at Rhododendron, on Mount Hood for a visit and vacation. Dr. Sweeney's office will be closed until September 1.

Car Mishap—Charles O. Long of Talent and Merle W. Jacks of Route 1 drove vehicles involved in a slight mishap on the Crater Lake highway a mile north of Eagle Point Tuesday morning, according to a report on file today.

Powell Transferred—Pfc. Louis W. Powell has been transferred from Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri, to Camp San Luis Obispo, Calif., according to word received here. Pfc. Powell is a graduate of Medford high school with the class of '43.

Berry Home—John W. Berry, with the army signal corps, is home on furlough and is visiting his wife, two children and his mother at the family home, 520 Crater Lake avenue. Berry was recently transferred from Camp Crowder, Mo., to Camp Kohler, Calif.

To Portland—Lt. Margaret Nordberg, recruiting officer stationed in Medford with the air branch of the Women's Army Corps, leaves for Portland this evening to transact business at the recruiting station there. Lt. Nordberg will return the latter part of this week.

Due Home—Sgt. Joseph A. Boardman, Butte Falls, is due to arrive in the United States soon after serving 28 months with the army air force in an American theater of operations, according to a news release from the headquarters of the Ninth Service Command at Ft. Douglas, Utah. Sgt. Boardman is the son of Mrs. Nellie M. Boardman.

To Portland—Leaving this morning for Portland, where they will confer tonight with Major General Louis B. Hershey, national director of selective service, were representatives of both local selective service boards. Members of Board No. 1 attending the meeting are Guy Applewhite, chairman, Hap Gillette and Henry Niedermeyer. Roy Pruitt, member of Board No. 2 and Mrs. Pruitt and Mrs. Ina Alenderfer, clerk of Board No. 2, will represent the Jackson county board.

To Graduate—Herbert Ewing Harper will graduate August 15 from the navy's reserve officers' indoctrination school at Tucson, Ariz., and will be commissioned an ensign, according to a news release from the school. Harper was employed as a geologist at the Cordero mine, McDermitt, Nev., before going into the navy. He is a graduate of Oregon State college. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marion E. Harper and his wife, the former Irene Hoover, reside at 225 Cottage street here.

Officer Arrives—Second Lt. Alvin L. Wimer, who graduated August 4 from the army air field at Douglas, Ariz., as a pilot, arrived in Medford Monday night to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Wimer, 410 North Ivy street. He was accompanied to Medford by his wife, the former Jeanette House, who will visit her mother, Mrs. Floyd House, and her brother, Norman, at the family home, 322 South Central avenue. Mr. House left Medford shortly before his daughter's arrival to report for naval training in California. Lt. Wimer will be here until the middle of next week and Aug. 16 will report to Albuquerque, N. M., for transitional training as first pilot of a B-24 Liberator. Lt. Wimer's brother, Ensign D. C. Wimer, is stationed on a carrier operating in the South Pacific.
