Farewell Parties Honor Holloways Before Departure

Many social affairs are being given in Medford for Mr. and Mrs. William A. Holloway, Sr., and their daughters, Miss Mary Holloway and Mrs. William C. Broumley, who leave next Sunday to make their home in Phoenix, Ariz. The Holloways have resided here many years and have a host of friends who regret their departure from the valley. Their Phoenix address will be 2137 East Van Buren street.

Mrs. Holloway has been active in many groups of the city and much of the entertaining centers in the membership of these organizations. Tomorrow Past Matrons of Reunions Chapter No. 66, O.E.S., will be hostesses at a tea with Mrs. Holloway as honored guest. The tea is to be at the home of Mrs. E. M. Wilson, 340 South Riverside avenue from two until four o'clock. Mrs. Wilson is president of the group. Mrs. R. G. Fowler and Mrs. J. R. Woodford are in charge of arrangements and Mrs. Myrna Frink will provide a musical program.

Last night Chapter B.E., P.E. O. entertained for Mrs. Holloway, the affair being a dessert supper at the home of Mrs. Geo. Canode, 1716 Crown avenue at 7:30 o'clock. The guest of honor was presented with a gift from the members.

Tonight a group of close friends of the Holloways are gathering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cole Holmes for an outdoor supper party as a farewell to the couple. About 12 couples are expected to attend.

Members of Just Folks Circle of the Methodist church entertained for Mrs. Holloway last Thursday afternoon, the affair being at the home of Mrs. Harry Olson, 40 Berkeley way. Mrs. Holloway has been a member of this group for some 20 years and several friends who have also been members during this period were present. Mrs. H. F. Nordwick read a history of the circle and Mrs. Holloway was presented with a gift.

The Holloways' son, Lt. (jg) William A. Holloway and his wife are expected tomorrow from North Island Naval base, San Diego, to spend the week. The family will be at 657 South Holly street for their last week in Medford.

Name Committees For Lodge Work

Lottie Howard, Telitha Pickel and Marie Hansen were named to the good-of-the-order committee by Maud Daugherty, noble grand, at the meeting of Olive Rebekah lodge held Monday night. Plans were made for initiation, to be held soon and the treasurer reported purchase of another war bond.

Entertainment committee for the August 21 meeting will be Lottie Cave, Marian Mellon, Grace Pankey, while the refreshment committee will be Ella Rogers, Julia Gregory, Lona Bergman, Florence Klatt and Mr. and Mrs. George Edwards.

Mrs. Boswell Returns After Visit Here

August Calendar Is Enlivened By Outdoor Parties

The county's social life has centered largely around outdoor parties during the early days of August, the warm weather and moonlit nights making picnics and garden suppers especially enjoyable. Other affairs are being given for visitors and for residents leaving the city.

Sundays are marked with the large picnics of Granges and such groups as the various state associations, with former residents of Nebraska and Montana holding their annual picnic meetings today in Ashland. Last week members of the Past Noble Grands club entertained sister Rebekahs at a garden party at the home of Mrs. W. H. Dyer, Myrtle street, and this coming week Mistletoe Camp of the Royal Neighbors will picnic Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Miller on Orchard Home Drive.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Holloway and daughters are the incentive for a number of social gatherings, since they are leaving next Sunday to reside in Phoenix, Ariz. Many friends and groups are planning farewell parties before their departure.

Guilberts Return North Thursday

Dean and Mrs. Charles M. Guilbert of Portland, with their children, Tommy and Beth, left the valley Thursday after spending a week in Ashland and Medford. Dean Guilbert was formerly vicar of Trinity Episcopal church in Ashland and is now dean of the Portland cathedral. The Guilberts were the source of much entertaining, both in Ashland and in this city. They were guests here of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Hedberg, who invited the Guilberts and the Rev. and Mrs. George R. Turney, Medford, for dinner at their home, 1206 East Main street. Also entertaining the Guilberts for dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Leewer who invited the visitors to their home, Lee Acres in the country.

The Hedbergs, Leewers and Ernest Wallins of Medford were guests at a large tea given in Ashland by Mrs. Rose Robinett and Miss Victoria Tavenor for Dean and Mrs. Guilbert.

Juveniles Hold August Meeting
