

LOCAL and PERSONAL

Meeting Changed—Jacksonville Presbyterian Missionary society will meet in the church parlors Thursday at 2 p. m., instead of with Mrs. Hardy as previously planned. It was announced today. Marian Niedermeyer will be hostess.

In California—Pvt. Irene R. Chetwood is now stationed at the Santa Ana, Calif., army air base, according to a news release from Ft. Des Moines, Ia., where Pvt. Chetwood recently completed training. Her home in Medford is at Rt. 4, Box 183.

Returns To Duty—Pvt. Andrew Lee Matney who has been home on furlough for the past week visiting relatives and friends, left last night for Greensboro, N. C. He has been stationed recently with the army air corps at Scott Field, Ill.

In Navy—Charles Elton Waldron, 630 S. Holly St., enlisted in the U. S. naval reserve Aug. 16. He is the 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Elton Waldron. Waldron is now home on inactive duty awaiting his call to a navy training center, according to H. W. Crain, recruiting officer in charge of the Medford navy recruiting station.

Stinson Leaves—Ray Stinson left Sunday for Monterey, Calif., to report to the army air corps for training. From Monterey the young man will go to Amarillo, Tex., for his first period of training as an aviation student. Stinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Stinson, 1219 West Tenth street, was a student at Medford senior high school last year.

Mansfield Leaves—Cpl. Bill Mansfield left Saturday morning after spending a 10-day furlough with his wife and son at the home of Mrs. Mansfield's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Al Hermonson, 502 S. Grape St. Cpl. Mansfield is an instructor at Fort Riley, Kan., in mechanized cavalry. Before entering the army last December, he was employed at the Buster Brown Shoe Store.

Graduates—Among the members of a patrol service unit which graduated recently from the Hutchinson Naval Air Station in Kansas was Jack C. Orey, aviation radioman third class of Medford, according to a news dispatch from Kansas. Orey will now be a member of a navy Liberator patrol bomber crew. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Orey, 53 North Peach street.

Receives Souvenirs—C. J. Williams of Route 1 received a package of souvenirs last week from his son, Marshall K. Williams, who is with the 5th army in Italy. The young man has been stationed overseas for 17 months. Included in the assortment are several passports and other German identification cards with photographs, a saber, range finder and helmet and a large flag, along with personal photographs of civilians.

Eagles Meeting—Crater Lake Aerie No. 2093 and auxiliary, Fraternal Order of Eagles, will meet in regular session in the Eagles hall, 219 W. Main St., Thursday at 8 p. m. Both the aerie and auxiliary will have initiation and plans will be made for the celebration of the 18th birthday of the local aerie, Aug. 27. Birthday plans tentatively made now include initiation at 2 p. m. on Aug. 27 and dinner at 6 o'clock followed by a dance.

OBITUARY

RACHEL E. BOYLES
Rachel Elizabeth Boyles passed away at a local hospital early Wednesday. Mrs. Boyles was born in Green county, Missouri, Dec. 16, 1858. She came to Oregon some thirty years ago and for the last year has made her home here with her daughter, Miss Rae Boyles.

Mrs. Boyles is survived by two daughters, Miss Boyles, of Medford, and Mrs. Leland Shepherd, Silverton, Ore. She is also survived by two brothers and one sister in the middle west.

Funeral services will be held at Mollala, Oregon, Saturday. The Perle Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements here.

CALVIN P. THOMASON
Calvin P. Thomason, a resident of Central Point for the past 22 years, passed away in a local hospital this morning at the age of 72. He had been failing in health for several months. He is survived by two sisters and a brother: Mrs. Hattie Towler, Palouse, Wash., Mrs. Alice Hood and Willis R. Thomason, Medford.

Arrangements are in care of the Conger-Morris chapel.

The Aztecs moved to Mexico founding Mexico City, in 1325 A. D.

Lana Severs Marital Ties

(Acme Telephoto)
Charging that her husband, Stephen Crane, nagged her so incessantly that he almost ruined her health and picture career, sweater girl actress Lana Turner (right) is pictured in Los Angeles court with her mother, Mrs. Mildred Turner, as she was awarded a divorce and custody of her year-old daughter, Cheryl Christina.

Cattails, which grow by the thousands in marshlands and which once were looked upon as decorative but useless plants, now are doing their part in the war. The floss has been found to be more buoyant than kapok and 90 per cent as warm as wool. It is used as filling for cushions in amphibious jeeps and can serve as life preservers in case of accidents.
