Dorothie Rice, Sgt. Boverini Wed In Medford

At a pretty home wedding Friday evening, August 18, Miss Dorothie Marie Rice, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Rice, 910 West Eleventh street, became the bride of Sergeant Daniel Boverini. The service was read by the Rev. Ward A. Rice of the First Christian church, the bride party standing in front of the flower-banked fireplace in the living room.

For her wedding the bride wore a suit of fuchsia shade with white accessories and a gardenia corsage. She was given in marriage by her father. Bridesmaid was Miss Ruth Gentry, who was attired in light green with fuchsia accents.

Attending Sergeant Boverini as best man was Robert Ford and the wedding march was played by Pvt. Lorenz A. Regner.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception and dinner was held at Burgoynes for the bride party, members of the SCU orchestra and close friends of the family. First slice of the traditional wedding cake was cut by the bride after which the cutting was completed by the bride's sister, Mrs. Harvey Walker of Ashland.

Sergeant and Mrs. Boverini have gone to Santa Barbara, Calif., where the groom will be stationed. For the past two years the sergeant has been stationed at Camp White where he was leader of the SCU orchestra. Sergeant Boverini's parents are Mr. and Mrs. D. Boverini of Cicero, Ill.

Mrs. Boverini has resided her entire life in Medford and has many friends here.

Miss Holmes Leaves For San Francisco

Miss Nanette Holmes left Wednesday for San Francisco after spending part of the summer in Medford with her father, David Holmes of Reddy avenue. In San Francisco she will be with her mother, Mrs. Kinney Holmes. September 4, Miss Holmes will enroll at Dominican college in San Rafael, where she will be a junior. Her freshman and sophomore college courses were taken at the University of Oregon where she was a member of the university chapter of Kappa Kappa Gamma.

Visitors Brighten Social Calendar; Eagles Celebrate

Parties for visitors and newcomers to the valley and city are brightening a social calendar lagging somewhat at the close of summer, and outdoor affairs continue to be popular as long as the weather holds fair. Opening of colleges and universities being near, the younger generation is concerned with shopping lists and letters to deans and registrars. A few have already left for schools which open early in September, but the majority will leave about the middle of the month.

One of the large affairs of this week-end is the annual birthday celebration of the Medford Eagles lodge, which is today holding initiation and other ceremonies in observance of the 18th anniversary of the lodge's installation here. Charter members are being specially honored, and a number are expected to attend. It is said that about 300 people will attend the dinner, program and dance this evening.

Jean Coppedge Guest Of Honor Wednesday Eve

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Coppedge entertained for their daughter, Jean, Wednesday, on her seventh birthday anniversary. The party was given at 5:30 o'clock in the afternoon at the Coppedge home, 505 Summit avenue. Games were played and a birthday lunch served, with Miss Ernestine Bigham assisting Mrs. Coppedge. Jean was presented with a number of gifts.

Highlight of the evening was an unexpected telephone call from Jean's uncle, Eugene V. Coppedge, for whom the little girl is named. Mr. Coppedge, electrician's mate in the navy, had just arrived at a California port that day after 21 months sea duty in the South Pacific area. He is expected in Medford about the middle of September and after visiting here will go to Roton, Tex., to visit relatives.

Guests at the birthday party were Kenneth Myers, Judy and Carol Ellison, Phyllis Watkins, Roger Ball, Dixie Hammerlee, Corinne Richmond, Charles Fitch, Judy McCraw, Tommy Y'Blood, all of Medford, and Carol Stockwell of Phoenix.

Portland Woman Is Honored Guest At Bridge Party

In honor of her sister-in-law, Mrs. J. J. Colton, Mrs. Sam Colton entertained Wednesday afternoon at her home, 1619 East Main street. Mrs. Colton returned to her home in Portland Friday after spending several days here.

The Wednesday affair was luncheon and bridge, with Mrs. Arthur Cannon and Mrs. Royal Clare receiving prizes for honors at cards.

Several luncheons and dinners were given for Mrs. Colton while she was in Medford.

Older Family Leaves For Vacation Trip

Lt. W. C. Purdin And Bride Arrive To Visit Parents

Lt. Worlow C. Purdin and his bride, the former Miss Marjorie Scott of Aruba, Curacao, Netherlands West Indies, arrived in Medford last week to spend several days here with the lieutenant's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Purdin, 335 Fairmont avenue. The bride is a daughter of W. D. Scott of Aruba.

Lt. and Mrs. Purdin were married August 15 in Fayetteville, Ark. Attendants were Miss Jackie Dobbs of New Orleans, La., and Lewis Thompson of Little Rock, Ark. A wedding supper was served at Mountain Inn following the service and the couple then left for the trip west.

Mrs. Purdin has been attending school in the United States, having first been a student at the University of Arizona and later attending the University of Arkansas, where she was enrolled until the time of her marriage. She is a member of Delta Gamma, national social sorority.

Lt. Purdin recently returned to this country from overseas where he was with the Fifteenth Air Force in the Mediterranean area for 14 months as a pilot. Before going into the air corps he was a student, attending Medford senior high school, the Southern Oregon College of Education at Ashland and Compton Junior college in Los Angeles. He received his army commission at Luke Field, Phoenix, Ariz.

The Purdins are members of one of the city's older and well known families. Lt. Purdin's grandfather was the late Judge Mahlon Purdin, well known attorney who at one time served as mayor of Medford.

Lt. and Mrs. Purdin will leave the latter part of this week for Santa Monica, Calif., where the officer will report.

Donna Lou Barker Honored At Party

A party was given Tuesday for Donna Lou Barker, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Barker, Four Corners, in celebration of her third birthday anniversary. The party was at the home of Donna Lou's grandmother, Mrs. J. W. Hubler, 859 East Ninth street.

The little folk played games, pictures were made during the afternoon and the guest of honor was presented with a number of gifts. Refreshments were served on the lawn from a large table decorated in red, white and blue and with birthday cakes at each end of the table. Favors with small flags marked the places for Charles Hubler, Dickie Rankin, Johnny and Jimmie Fawcett, Sharon and Clayton Copesey, Marilyn Barker and the honored guest.

A number of mothers also were present.
