

Society and Clubs

Announce Wedding Sgt. Mark Hoeft And English Girl

Lake Creek—Friends of Sgt. Mark W. Hoeft will be interested in the news of his marriage, the bride being Miss Eva Grainger, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Grainger, 2 Chadwick Terrace, Hurdfield Estate, Macclesfield, England.

Sgt. Hoeft is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Hoeft. The family has resided in the Lake Creek district many years and is widely known in the valley. The wedding ceremony took place July 7 at the parish church at Macclesfield, with the Rev. J. E. Devereaux officiating. Organist was J. Hill, Hon. R. C. M. F. R. C. O., who played the "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin, "Lead Us Heavenly Father" and "O Perfect Love."

The bride, given away by her father, wore a dress of heavy white tulle with a train, embroidered, and was held with a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of red roses and ferns.

On leaving the church the bride was presented with two silver horseshoes, this traditional presentation being made by her brother, Pvt. Norman Grainger.

Bridesmaids were the Misses Gwendolyn Grainger, sister of the bride, Miss Iris Moore and Miss Jeanne Kanner. Miss Grainger wore a floor length blue crepe gown with a headpiece of white flowers and a blue veil. Miss Moore wore a dress of lavender tulle and had a headpiece of anemones with a veil to match and Miss Kanner wore a floor length pink tulle dress with a headpiece of pink roses and matching veil. All three carried bouquets of sweet peas.

The bride's mother wore a brown crepe ensemble with a hat and veil to match and her corsage was of red roses. Best man was Staff Sgt. O. C. Lowry, friend of the groom, and groomsmen were Kenneth Grainger, the bride's brother, Cpl. Oscar Junghammer and Pfc. Francis DeGuglielmo.

A reception was held at the Beehive Cafe, with 50 guests attending. Later the couple left for a wedding trip, the bride wearing a green and brown striped costume with a brown checked topcoat. Her corsage was of red roses.

For the present Sgt. Hoeft and his bride are residing at the address of her parents. Mr. Hoeft is an inspector in an English airplane factory. Sgt. Hoeft has been in England for over two years, serving in a base hospital. He is a graduate of Eagle Point high school with the class of 1937.

C. L. PERKINS
Doctor of OPTOMETRY
Successor to Dr. E. D. Elwood
Betterment of Human Vision
LENSES PRESCRIBED
Ph. 3881 214 Fluhrer Bldg.
Cor. Main & Central, Medford

Interest Centers In Fall Session Of State Schools

Weddings, club meetings and other events occupy the social calendar for the early September days, but the interest of many people is largely centered in the opening of schools and colleges. Both the University of Oregon and Oregon State college are opening soon, and students will be leaving every day, beginning this week-end.

As usual, the university is attracting the largest number of students, the list of new students being unusually large this fall. From Medford those entering as new students at the university will be Paula Blanton, Mary Bruce Crane, Steve Dippel, Joan Elliott, Phyllis Field, Virginia Hammond, Harriet Hart, Betty Jane Kay, Betty Jean McKenzie, Betty Mack, Lavonne Newton, Roberta Marie Hill, Joyce Niekemeyer, Janice Pitts, Dolores Ray, Bernice A. Stearns, LaRene M. Thompson, James Tucker, Joanne Utz, Helena Wessels and Phyllis Williams. From Ashland new students will be James Bartel, Kathryn Mae Brown, Annella Converse, Shirley Hutchinson, Frances McKenson, Betty Robertson and Betty Whitte.

Among those returning to the university will be Charlotte Olden, Olive Morton, Alison Aya, Carol Tengwald, Beverly Jones, Nina Tuttle, Helen Webb, Jerilee Lovejoy, Lois Pringle, Eva Hedrick, Betty Frey, Joyce Utz, Margaret Thompson, Anne Scripser, Betty Rose, Bob Davis and Bob Pittenger.

Among new students entering Oregon State college will be Ruth Andrews, Jo Anne Humphreys, Mildred McKenzie, Arlon Skinner and Lowell Cooley, the latter two having attended summer session this summer. Returning to Oregon State will be Joyce Sims, Alpha Whillock, Anne Drysdale, Margaret Roberts, June Jarmin, Norrene Bohner of Central Point and several others. From Ashland Marilee Erwin is returning to Oregon State college and Erlene Morris is entering as freshmen.

Miss Mary Lou Lyman and Natalie Parker will be leaving about Sept. 18 for Reed college in Portland and Pauline Ashpole and Phyllis Lillie plan to enter the University of Utah. Alice Brill will enroll at San Jose college in California and Mary Ellen Loeffler left last night for Portland to enter St. Vincent's school of nursing.

Peggy Young will leave soon for Principia college in Illinois where she will enter as a freshman and Miss Betty Jane Johnson will attend junior college in South Dakota.

Miss Maurine Shearer
Returning From Vacation
Miss Maurine Shearer is returning this week-end after spending a week's vacation with her parents in Dorena, Ore. Miss Shearer is a clerk for the Rogue River National Forest Service.

State Officers Attend Meeting Of Medford Club

Outstanding among last week's events was the first meeting of the fall of the Medford Garden club, since the club entertained at that time both the state president, Mrs. Harry O. Smith of Cave Junction, the state secretary, Mrs. Gladys M. King of O'Brien, and a number of other guests. The meeting was at the home of Mrs. H. O. Purucker, 13 Glen Oak Court, and was preceded by a luncheon which featured herbs in the menu.

Among other guests at the luncheon were Mrs. Stanton Rowell, Grants Pass, state garden center chairman; Mrs. Blake Miller, president of the Illinois Valley Garden club; Mrs. S. B. Osgood, president of the Grants Pass club; Mrs. Sam Bunch and Mrs. R. S. Leonard, Cave Junction; Mrs. Leslie Ackley, program chairman of the Grants Pass club; Mrs. M. E. Mead, chairman of the hospitality committee of the Grants Pass club; Mrs. E. C. Macy and Mrs. John R. White, Grants Pass.

Among the Medford women at the meeting who work in the state organization were Mrs. L. G. Gentner, district vice-president; Mrs. C. C. Sater, northwest gardens chairman and president of the Medford club, and Mrs. R. T. Nichol, member of the horticultural awards committee for the state.

At a business meeting the club voted to endorse the project sponsored by the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce to have land along the Rogue river now in the Camp White reservation made into a state park when the camp is released by the army. During the afternoon the state president spoke and Mrs. W. C. Roark talked on herbs, mentioning herbs written of in the Bible. A display of herbs further carried out the program theme.

Hostesses for the luncheon were Mrs. Jack Swem, chairman, Mrs. Arthur Adler, Mrs. Gentner, Mrs. M. S. Lyster and Mrs. Sater. Mrs. Swem had made table centerpieces of green bell peppers filled with small yellow blossoms and parsley to carry out the herb motif.

About 40 members and guests were present for the luncheon and meeting.

Date Announced For Annual Tea Of County LWV

Plans for the annual fall membership tea of the Jackson County League of Women Voters were made at a meeting of the board held Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Justin Smith, president. The tea will be Sept. 19 at the Girls' Community club and a special guest will be Mrs. A. B. Engels, member of the national board from California. First large meeting of the fall, the tea in past years has attracted a large number of women interested in the league.

Mrs. H. D. Byington and Mrs. A. A. Seckatz will be co-chairmen in charge of the tea and Mrs. A. W. Aya is in charge of the program.

Plans were also made for the campaign school, traditionally held by the league shortly before the general election. Mrs. Richard Payne will be chairman in charge, with Mrs. Frank Humphrey and Mrs. O. A. Eden assisting.

During the board meeting Mrs. Leonard Carpenter was presented with a myrtlewood gavel, a gift of board members who served with her during her terms as president of the league.

District Chairman To Visit Zontians

Miss Helen Yockey, Salem, district chairman of Zonta International, will be honored guest at the first fall meeting of Medford Zonta Club on Monday evening. Miss Yockey was formerly a resident of Medford, being a member of the business staff of the Mail Tribune, and will be welcomed by many old friends.

Dinner will precede the business session and will be served at the Girls Community Club at 6:30.

Miss Ora Cox, national president of the Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War, is presiding over the 54th national convention of the order which opened today in Des Moines, Iowa. Miss Cox, Medford teacher, is a member of the local Elta Deuel Hubbs Tent.

Medford Woman Presiding Over National Meet

Sessions of the 54th national convention of the Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War, opening today at the Kirkwood Hotel in Des Moines, Ia., will be presided over by Miss Ora Cox, Medford, national president of the order. Miss Cox left Medford a week ago to travel to Des Moines.

Miss Cox took to the convention copies of an attractive folder put out by the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce in her honor to present to convention delegates. The convention folder has color pictures of Crater Lake, and contains, among other material, greetings from the county, an article dealing with the history of the Daughters of Union Veterans, a tribute to Miss Cox written by E. H. Hedrick, superintendent of Medford schools, and lists of Oregon department officers and committees. Miss Cox has taught in the Medford schools for many years and since 1920 has served as principal of the Lincoln school.

Others from Oregon attending the meeting of the Daughters are Miss Marie Bennett, Portland, national secretary; Mrs. Verna Garner, Seaside, department president. Commander T. A. Penland, the 99-year-old only surviving member of the Grand Army in Oregon, is also attending the G. A. R. encampment being held at the same time in Des Moines.

Miss Cox will return to her teaching duties in Medford at the close of the convention.

County Meeting Of Women's Union To Be Held Here

County convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union will be held in Medford Sept. 14, sessions to be at the Christian church on South Oakdale avenue. Business sessions will start at 10 a. m. and will be presided over by Mrs. Minnie Bryant, county president.

Mrs. A. L. Anderson of Grants Pass will be in charge of the morning devotional period and at noon there will be noonday prayer and luncheon will be served by the Medford union. Each Medford woman attending is asked to bring a covered dish.

Speakers for the afternoon session will be announced later. Devotionals and special music will be presented by members of the Ashland union and a memorial service will be conducted by the Medford union. Anyone interested in the work of the temperance union is invited to attend the meetings.

Fidelity Circle Plans Meeting For Tuesday

Mrs. Jessie Beery will be program leader for the meeting of Fidelity circle, Methodist church, which will be held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Eva Younger, 611 West Eighth street, at two o'clock. Mrs. J. W. Synlie will be assistant hostess and Mrs. Rose Beery will lead the devotional service.

Show in Ashland Is Attended by Valley Residents

Scores of valley residents were in Ashland Labor Day for the horse show of the Ashland Riding association, either participating in the various events or as spectators, and many from Medford and vicinity were winners.

Members of the Sheriff's Posse and of the Ladies Mounted Troop participated in the parade which preceded the show, and the Troop presented a drill as the first event of the show, receiving much applause for the revised version necessitated by the smallness of the arena. Troop members rode to the Walter Hamby ranch near Ashland Sunday night and stabled their horses at the ranch until parade time Monday afternoon. Mr. Hamby has for many years organized and lead drill teams in California and has staged many shows and the Ashland show was arranged largely through his efforts.

Among the winners from this district were Mrs. George Dean, Miss Virginia Hammond, Mr. and Mrs. C. Lyall Fidler, Mrs. Lura Tularski, Miss Joyce Woolridge, Dr. James C. Hayes, Platt Andrews, O. H. Bengtson, Dr. R. E. Lee and others.

James Warren, George Smith, Platt Andrews and Dr. Hayes won in the three-gaited pleasure horse event for men. Miss Woolridge, Mrs. Jane Hamby and Mrs. Fidler were winners in the ladies pleasure class and Mr. and Mrs. Warren, Mr. and Mrs. James Dell and the Fidlers won in the family class event.

Mrs. Dean, Mr. Bengtson and Mr. Warren won in the exhibition of five-gaited horses and in the English saddle class event winners were Mrs. Tularski, Miss Hammond and Mrs. Fidler. In the event for three-gaited Palominos winners were Mrs. Hamby, Dr. Lee and Shirley Newbury and in the Pinto class Mrs. Tularski, and R. E. White were winners.

Many children rode in the eleven event of the program, prizes going to Tom Hall, Melvin Moore and Clifford Smith. Mr. Andrews also exhibited his Tennessee walking horse, "California Pride" during the show.

Following the show a number of cocktail and supper parties were given at homes throughout the valley.

Miss Quisenberry Married Recently In Portland Rites

Miss Zoa Quisenberry, who with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lee Quisenberry, formerly lived in Medford, was married in Portland Sept. 1 to Alden Rankin Crow of Portland, son of Mrs. Elmer O. Crow of Pendleton. The wedding took place at Rose City Methodist church.

Miss Virginia Quisenberry, seaman second class in the WAVES, was maid of honor for her sister and bridesmaids were Miss Roberta Ann Quisenberry, another sister, Miss Lorraine Davidson and Miss Mary Weller. Harry Gester of Berkeley, Calif., was best man and ushers were Richard Wilkins and Duane and Thomas Autzen.

Miss Blanche Arnold of Medford, an aunt of the bride, was in Portland for the wedding and assisted at the reception.

Mr. and Mrs. Crow will reside at 630 N. E. Lawrence street, Portland, upon their return from a wedding trip to an Oregon beach.

Charlene Shores Wed Last Week

Miss Charlene R. Shores of Eagle Point became the bride of Clarence John Rose, San Francisco, at a service at the First Methodist church Sept. 6. The ceremony was read at four o'clock in the afternoon by the Rev. Louis C. Kirby. A small group of relatives and friends were present for the wedding.

After a two week's wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Rose will make their home in San Francisco.

Mrs. Eugene P. Myers, the former Joan Holmes, was married August 26, the ceremony taking place in Eagle Point at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. George B. Holmes, Lt. and Mrs. Myers have gone to Ft. Leonard Wood in Missouri where the lieutenant is stationed.

Golden Wedding Is Celebrated By Local Couple

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Clemens were honored guests at a dinner Monday, celebrating the 50th anniversary of their wedding which took place in Talent Sept. 4, 1894. The dinner was at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Primio Ciardi, 40 Quince street.

Mrs. Ciardi was assisted by Mrs. J. A. Meacham, a family friend, who arranged and decorated the tables. The dinner table was decorated with a bowl of gold colored daisies, gold ribbon and candles. A special table was arranged with a linen and hand crocheted table cloth which had been used for the 50th wedding anniversary celebration of Mrs. Meacham's grandparents in Kansas and on this was displayed a bride's cake, groom's cake and birthday cake, it also being Mrs. Clemens' 73rd birthday anniversary. Fourteen were present for the dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Clemens, both native westerners, have resided in Jackson county ever since their marriage. They have one daughter, Mrs. Ciardi; one son, Cecil C. Clemens; a grandson, Barton Clemens; one granddaughter, Mrs. Alan Jewitt, and one great granddaughter, Sandra Jewitt, all living in Medford.

Mr. Clemens was born in Forest Grove, Ore., Oct. 19, 1867, and Mrs. Clemens is a native of California, having been born at Vacaville. The Clemens reside at 521 Spencer avenue.

Arizona Resident Is Visitor Here

A guest in the city is Mrs. Harold Savage, Jr., who with her small son, Hal, is at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Don Newbury, 7 Eastwood Drive. Mrs. Savage, the former Jennie Delzell, spent considerable time in Medford before her marriage and has many friends here. She has been the incentive for a number of small, informal gatherings among her friends.

Mrs. Savage, who came to Medford from Portland where she visited with relatives, will leave next week for her home in Phoenix, Ariz.

Wesley League Has Swim Party

Twenty young people of the Wesley League of the Methodist Church enjoyed a swim and picnic at Ashland Monday. The guest of honor was Wilbur Eichner, home on furlough from the Naval training station at Corpus Christie, Texas. Games were played following the picnic dinner.

COMPLETE PERMANENT WAVE HOME KIT 59¢

Natural looking curls and waves now yours—easily, easily, comfortably, at home. Do it yourself. The amazing Charm-Kurl PERMANENT WAVE KIT contains everything you need—permanent wave solution, curlers, shampoo and wave set. Easy to put your hair up in curls. Insist on the genuine Charm-Kurl—America's largest selling home permanent wave kit. Get one today at any Department, Drug or Grocery store.

Western Thrift Store and All Drug Stores

Miss Stephenson Is Honor Guest At Two Showers

Miss Beulah Stephenson, whose wedding to Lt. Harold R. Hartzell, USMC, will be an event of next week, was honored last week at two shower parties. The Stephenson-Hartzell wedding is to be Tuesday evening at St. Mark's Episcopal church.

Thursday evening Miss Stephenson's sister, Mrs. George K. Goodrich, entertained for the bride-elect at her home on Route 1. Miss Stephenson was presented with personal gifts and refreshments were served in the late evening. Guests were Mrs. J. E. Crawford, Mrs. Josie L. Stephenson, Mrs. Carl Tengwald, Miss Anne Van Valzah, Miss Carol Tengwald, Mrs. Don Galbreath, Kay Elizabeth and Joan Crawford, Miss Margaret Avery of Santa Monica, Calif., and the honored guest, Miss Stephenson.

Miss Carol Tengwald entertained for Miss Stephenson Friday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Tengwald, King's Highway. The affair was a miscellaneous shower and card party, with refreshments served in the late evening. Invited were Mrs. Josie Stephenson, Mrs. George K. Goodrich, Mrs. J. E. Crawford, Miss Kay Elizabeth and Joan Crawford, Miss Margaret Avery, Mrs. Edward Watson, Mrs. William Ehrman, Miss Virginia Hayes, Mrs. Robert Taylor, Mrs. Chris Hald, Mrs. Don Galbreath, Mrs. Tengwald and the guest of honor.

Phelps Family Visits Eagle Point Friends

Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Phelps and son, Bobbie, of Salem, spent the weekend and Labor Day with Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Regester of Eagle Point. The Phelps family formerly lived at 124 Tripp street in Medford and took up residence in Salem about a year ago.

Musicians Entertain For Pocatontas Lodge

A group of Accordion Troopers from Mrs. Eve Prentice's studio entertained members of the Pocatontas Lodge Friday evening following the regular lodge session at Redman Hall on Apple street. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Merle Ivie and a committee.

Johnson-Poling Rites Are Held At Bride's Home

Miss Alice Johnson became the bride of Pvt. Donald Poling at a ceremony which took place Friday, Sept. 1, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Johnson, Route 2, Pvt. Poling is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Poling, Route 4.

The rites were read at eight o'clock in the evening by the Rev. Lawrence Mitchelmore, Jacksonville Presbyterian minister, with Mr. Johnson giving his daughter in marriage. The wedding march was played by Miss Gweneth Poling, cousin of the groom.

Miss Johnson's wedding costume was a two-piece navy blue dress, worn with white accessories. Her corsage was white gardenias. Her maid-of-honor, Miss Irma Minger, wore a tailored sky blue suit and a corsage of rosebuds.

Acting as best man for the groom was his brother, Sgt. Willard Poling.

Following the ceremony a reception was held. Wedding refreshments were served, with the bride and groom cutting the first slice of the traditional wedding cake.

Traveling to Medford for the wedding were Sgt. and Mrs. Willard O. Poling, who came from Tulare, Calif., and Mrs. Warren Poling, Long Beach, Wash.

Mrs. Poling, a graduate of Medford senior high school with the class of 1944, is making her home with her parents-in-law for the present. The groom recently returned from a year's service overseas and for the present is at the army hospital at Walla Walla, Wash.

DR. R. M. HOOD
OPTOMETRIST
Sparta Bldg. - Medford, Ore.
Appointment if Desired

Fur Remodeling and Repairing
Refining, Cleaning and Glazing
Frances Dallaire—Ph. 2526
Woodrow and Crater Lake

The least he asks is Buy Bonds

RECORDS OF

"Gay Gibson"

GLAMOUR

The Tunes you'll hear

I'll get by on every occasion—at every party—at all proms—because I know the flattering young lines of a Gay Gibson were chosen for those of young ideas.

$509

Black only 9-15

$1298

Include the following items in your back to school wardrobe.

- SUITS
- COATS
- DRESSES
- SWEATERS
- SKIRTS
- ACCESSORIES

SPECIAL GROUP of DRESSES
$5.00

1/2 OFF SUITS, COATS DRESSES

ADRIENNE'S
LADIES' READY-TO-WEAR

BEAUTY AT ITS BEST

Our experienced operators know just the hair do that will flatter your pretty face... Just the treatment that will make your skin glow... and just the shade of polish that will enhance your nails... Try this air cooled salon the next time you want beauty work... Operators at Mann's include Alberta McVeigh, Earl Herendene, Beverly Danielson, Lorraine Larsen, Lucille Nil, Maxine Hansen.

Dial 2434 For Appointment
MANN'S
Beauty Salon Second Floor

The Need of the World Is Jesus

"Come unto ME, and I will give you rest."

Hear the Gospel Proclaimed with Earnestness and Simplicity

Music—Testimonies—Soul-Stirring Preaching

THE APOSTOLIC FAITH CHURCH
(N. Central Ave. at 3rd St.)

Services: Sunday—Sunday School, 9:30 a. m.; Devotional, 11 a. m.; Young People's Meeting, 3 p. m.; Evangelistic Service, 7:45 p. m. Tuesday and Friday Evenings 8 p. m.

a church without a collection plate

GROCETERIA

NUMBER 1

Sixth and Central

OPEN

TODAY

9 a. m. to 7 p. m.