Annual Fall Tea To Honor Member National Board

Mrs. George H. Engels of Mill Valley, Calif., board member of the National League of Women Voters, will be in Medford this week on Wednesday and will be guest of honor at the annual fall membership tea of the Jackson County League to be held at the Girls' Community club, Mrs. Engels will come here from Klamath Falls, where she visits the Klamath Falls league, and will go north from Medford to visit other leagues in Oregon and Washington.

The fall tea is one of the few social affairs which the league plans each year and in past years has attracted a large number of women interested in the group's program. Members and guests are asked to note the change in date from Tuesday to Wednesday, the day having been changed to fit Mrs. Engels' traveling schedule. Hours will be from 3:30 to five o'clock.

A brief program on the theme of "Know Your League" has been planned. Mrs. Walter Inch will tell of the history, purpose and policy of the league as a whole. Mrs. Leonard Carpenter will present local league history and Mrs. Justin Smith will explain future plans of the local group. Mrs. H. D. Byington and Mrs. A. A. Seekatz are co-chairmen in charge of plans and Mrs. A. W. Aya has arranged the program.

Mrs. Engels is considered one of the leading club women of her district. She organized and held many offices in the Marin County League and has been finance chairman and northern vice-chairman of the California League. In addition to her league work, Mrs. Engels is active in the Outdoor Art club, the Mill Valley Women's Club and the Marin Tuberculosis association. She has been chairman of the Marin County Public Health commission and is now chairman of the county postwar planning council.

The committee has planned a receiving line for the tea in order that each woman attending may have the opportunity of meeting the guest of honor.

While here Mrs. Engels will conduct a special meeting of the Jackson county League board Thursday at the home of Mrs. Justin Smith, 21 Geneva street.

Miss Stephenson, Lieut. Hartzell Married Tuesday

St. Mark's Episcopal church was the scene Tuesday evening of the wedding of Miss Beulah Stephenson to Lt. Harold R. Hartzell, United States Marine Corps. The bride is the daughter of R. O. Stephenson, Medford, and Mrs. Josie Stephenson, Pine Acres, Route 1, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Crawford, 306 Apple street.

The Rev. George R. Turney, rector, read the candlelight service at 8:30 o'clock. Mrs. Ernest Conrad was at the organ for the wedding march and Miss Joanna Wyatt sang "Because" preceding the ceremony. Arrangements of white gladioli decorated the church.

Miss Stephenson's wedding gown was of white brocaded satin and designed with a train. The full length veil was held with a Juliet cap and her bouquet was two burgundy-throated white orchids arranged with stephanotis. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Maid-of-honor for the bride was Miss Margaret Avery of Santa Monica, Calif., and bridesmaids were Miss Carol Tengwald, Miss Anne Van Valzah, and the groom's two sisters, the Misses Jo-Ann and Kaye Crawford. Miss Avery's gown was fashioned with a bodice of white brocaded satin and net skirt and the four bridesmaids wore matching gowns of white faille, designed on princess lines. All carried bouquets of burgundy colored gladioli and wore clusters of the same blossoms in their hair.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Stephenson wore a gown of light blue with sequin trim and a corsage of lavender orchids. Mrs. Crawford was in black crepe, with sequin trim, and also wore lavender orchids.

Best man for the groom was his brother, Jack Crawford, and ushers were Lt. Robert Ballard, USMC, Portland; Lt. Clyde Holtenbeck, USMC, Pvt. Thomas Reames, USA, and Army Aviation Cadet Jack Six, Santa Ana, Calif.

The reception which followed was at the Holland Hotel. The traditional wedding cake was cut by the bride and groom and served by Mrs. Donald Galbreath. Mrs. Jack Six, the bride's sister, served the champagne punch and Mrs. George K. Goodrich, another sister of the bride, also assisted at the reception.

Lt. Hartzell and his bride made a brief wedding trip. Mrs. Hartzell wearing for traveling a three-piece suit of chartreuse and black with a corsage of white orchids. They have returned to Medford and will leave tomorrow for Pensacola, Fla., where the groom, who returned only recently from nearly a year's service in the South Pacific as a marine pilot, will be an aviation instructor.

Both the bride and groom are graduates of Medford senior high school. The bride attended Santa Monica Junior college for a year and for the past year has been on the staff of Technicolor Motion Picture company of Hollywood. Lt. Hartzell attended the University of Oregon, where he was a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity and has been in the marine corps about two years.

A number of relatives and friends came from distant points to attend the wedding. Among these were Mrs. Horace H. Taylor, Eugene, an aunt of the groom; Mrs. Frank Lednicki and son, Jack, of Junction City; Mr. and Mrs. J. Wallace Moffett and children, Patricia and Jamie of Marshfield and Charles A. Six of Los Angeles.

Preceding the wedding a number of parties were given for the bride and groom. Monday evening Jack Crawford was host at a dinner which honored his brother. The affair was at the Mansion on East Main street and guests included Mr. Crawford.

Sgt. and Mrs. Mark W. Hoeft were married this summer in Macclesfield, England, the bride being the former Miss Eva Grainger of Macclesfield. Sgt. Hoeft, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Hoeft of Lake Creek, has been stationed in England for two years, serving in a base hospital.

Dr. and Mrs. Bray To Leave For South

Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Bray, Lozier Lane, will leave tomorrow on the train for California to visit relatives. In Berkeley they will visit their daughter, Mrs. Dean Lundy, whose husband, First Sgt. Lundy, is in the South Pacific. In Oakland they will be with Mrs. Lee Bray, a daughter-in-law, whose husband is now confined to a naval hospital in the South Pacific after several months of service. The Brays will be absent about six weeks.

Church Council World Institute Is Held Friday

Representatives from many Medford churches attended the World Community Institute of the Council of Church Women, held Friday at the Markade. "We feel that the women who attended returned to the leadership of their local church missionary study groups with renewed purpose and inspiration," said Mrs. K. W. Brockhaus, president, in commenting on the meeting.

Following the opening worship service, Mrs. Brockhaus opened the program by speaking on the practical importance of missions today. Mrs. Fred M. Weatherford's review of C. M. Hallock's book, "West of the Date Line," gave a timely view of the Southwest Pacific. Discussing the "Indian in American Life," by G. E. E. Lindquist, Mrs. L. C. Kirby stressed the needs of this minority group in our own nation. A great many practical and valuable suggestions for leaders of missionary study groups were presented by Mrs. C. A. Meeker and received with enthusiasm by the delegates.

Picnic Luncheon Held By Circle

Sunny Sisters Circle of the Presbyterian church was entertained at the home of Mrs. A. R. Clement, 1223 West Main street, Tuesday for the annual picnic and covered dish luncheon. In the absence of the president, Mrs. A. A. Lausman, Mrs. F. Crouch, vice-president, presided. Twenty members answered to roll call. Plans were made for a cooked food and apron sale to be held in the near future.

Mrs. B. R. Elliott gave the devotions and Mrs. Frances Cochran reviewed "Grandma Calls It Carnal," by Bertha Daymon. Assisting the hostess were the Mesdames D. W. Luke and A. J. Hanby and Miss Elizabeth Burr.

Rebekah Lodge Plans Fun Fest

A "fun fest" is being planned for the social hour following the meeting of Olive Rebekah lodge tomorrow night at the I.O.O.F. hall, 221 West Sixth street. All members are asked to come in costume, and each is to bring a hat which she has made. The hats will be exhibited, and then put on sale, the resulting funds going to the lodge budget. Mrs. Bess Dyer is in charge of the program and Mrs. Marie Hansen and a committee will serve refreshments.

Miss Anne Carter Is Betrothed To Pvt. Thos. Reames

The betrothal of Miss Anne Carter to Pvt. Thomas Reames was announced by Miss Carter's mother, Mrs. Frances Carter, Eastlawn Court, last week. Pvt. Reames is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reames, 27 Geneva street.

The announcement was made at a dessert dinner given by Mrs. Carter Wednesday evening for a few close friends of her daughter, the message being attached to corsages presented to each guest. No date has been set for the wedding.

Miss Carter is a graduate of St. Helen's hall high school, Portland, having completed her course there last spring. She leaves next month for Stockton, Calif., where she will enter the College of the Pacific as a freshman. Pvt. Reames attended Hill Military Academy in Portland and graduated from Medford senior high school in January of 1944. He has been stationed recently at Camp Roberts, Calif., and left Friday of last week for Camp Robinson, Ark., after a leave en route which he spent here.

Auxiliary Plans Meeting and Tea For Mrs. Wilie

Mrs. Glenda Wilie of Marshfield, president of district four of the American Legion Auxiliary, will be honored at a special meeting and tea planned by the Medford unit for Saturday, Sept. 23. The meeting is scheduled for two o'clock at the Girls' Community club and will be followed by the tea hour.

Mrs. Wilie will be accompanied to Medford by Mrs. Paul Harnsen of Ashland, state child welfare chairman. The district officer is making her official visit to units of this district.

Mrs. Carol Parker will be installed president of the Medford unit at ceremonies planned for Sept. 27 and retiring head of the group is Mrs. H. L. Alford.

Plan Open House For Miss Grayson And Lt. Keaveny

Mr. and Mrs. John Keaveny will hold open house next Sunday, September 24, to honor their son, Lt. Jack F. Keaveny, and his fiancée, Miss Lucile Grayson, of Waco, Texas, who both arrived here several days ago to visit the lieutenant's parents. Hours will be from three to six o'clock and the Keavens are inviting friends of the family and of the lieutenant in order that they meet Miss Grayson.

Miss Grayson, Lt. Keaveny and his mother plan to leave September 25 for Texas and the wedding is scheduled for October 4. Miss Grayson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Grayson of Waco.

Lt. Keaveny's return to this country terminated several months of duty in Italy with the army air corps.

Opening Meeting Held By Chapter

A large number attended the first fall meeting of Reames chapter of the Eastern Star held in Medford last Thursday evening. Following the stated meeting, Mrs. Elsie Carlton Strang sang, accompanied by Fred Strang with the bass horn and Sebastian Appollo at the piano. Other musical numbers were also given.

The evening closed with the serving of refreshments by Mrs. Walter Nitzel and a committee of assistants.
