

Society and Clubs

Pauline Roberts And Sgt. Lewis Wed In Portland

Miss Pauline Roberts, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Frank Roberts, 1103 Queen Anne avenue, and Sgt. Jennings T. Lewis of Lubbock, Tex., were married Sept. 8 in Portland. The sergeant, stationed at the Medford army air base, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Lewis, also of Lubbock. The service took place at Centenary Wilbur Methodist church.

For her wedding Miss Roberts wore a brown dressmaker suit with an orchid corsage. She was attended by Mrs. Peter Miller of Portland and Cpl. James Ethridge, stationed at Portland, was best man for Sgt. Lewis.

Dr. and Mrs. Roberts were in Portland for the wedding. Sgt. and Mrs. Lewis are now at home at 215 North Ivy street. Mrs. Lewis is well known in Medford. The family has resided here for a number of years and the bride attended Medford senior high school and later was a student at Oregon State college.

Treasurer To Speak At Zonta Meeting

Ralph Sweeney, county treasurer, will speak at the meeting of Medford Zonta club, planned for Tuesday evening, Sept. 26. Members are asked to note the change in day from Monday. The meeting will be preceded by a dinner in the new dining room of the Holland Hotel at 6:30 o'clock.

Mr. Sweeney will speak on county affairs.

Piano Studio

Margaret Osenbrugge
711 E. Main. Phone 4256

Women Of Rotary To Hold Meeting At Philips Home

Women of Rotary will start the fall program of activities with a luncheon meeting Oct. 4, Wednesday, at the home of Mrs. Stanley E. Philips, Big Boulder Orchard. It is announced that all women whose husbands are members of the Medford Rotary club are eligible to membership in the women's group and a cordial invitation is extended to all to attend this first meeting.

Mrs. Melvin Plaskett, president of the group for the coming year, states that since some of the women attending the luncheons and meetings do not play cards, some other diversion will be planned for this group for future meetings. It is further pointed out that Women of Rotary, in addition to being a social group, carries on several philanthropic projects during the year, such as Red Cross work and other civic activities.

In addition to Mrs. Plaskett, officers are Mrs. Kenneth Denman, vice-president, and Mrs. Maynard Bush, secretary and treasurer.

It is suggested that women planning to attend the first luncheon meeting, which will be at one o'clock, should contact neighbors in the same district in order that cars may be pooled and no unnecessary trips made. Each woman attending is asked to provide her own service.

Former Medford Teacher Is Guest Of Watsons

Miss Laura Mitchell of McMinnville, Ore., arrived in Medford last week and is spending several days as a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Watson, 139 Kenwood avenue. Miss Mitchell formerly was a teacher at Medford senior high school. She is now on the staff of the Oregon Mutual Fire Insurance company of McMinnville.

Medford Officer, Member of WASP Married In Iowa

Dr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Burcham of Des Moines, Ia., have announced the marriage of their daughter, Madelon Margaret, to Lt. Jack V. Hill, son of Mrs. Hester Hill, Route 4, Medford.

The rites took place Sept. 15 at St. Augustin's chapel in Des Moines and were performed by the Rev. F. J. O'Connell. Both bride and groom were in uniform, the bride being a member of the WASP and the groom in the army air corps. Attendees were Mrs. Robert J. Tierman, matron-of-honor, and Bernard Huston, best man, of Ottumwa, Ia.

A supper at the Des Moines club for members of the wedding party followed the ceremony.

The bride was graduated from St. Mary's college of Notre Dame at South Bend, Ind., and has been a member of the WASPs since August of 1933. She is stationed at Las Vegas, Nev. Lt. Hill graduated from Medford senior high school with the class of 1933 and later attended Southern Oregon college of Education and Willamette university. He is stationed at Las Vegas also and the couple plan to reside there.

The bride's parents are well known in Des Moines, the doctor being a physician there.

New York Visitor Leaves For Home

Mrs. Donald W. Wright has been visiting in this city with relatives en route to New York from San Francisco where her husband, Donald W. Wright, storekeeper first class, embarked recently for overseas. He is the son of Capt. and Mrs. M. C. Wright of Hobbs, N. M., former residents of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Wright were married at the Little Church Around the Corner in New York April 12, of this year. Mrs. Wright being the former Thelma L. Beal of New York. Mr. Wright has served 21 months in the South Pacific and left again for overseas duty after spending the last six months in the states.

Lt. and Mrs. Harold R. Hartzell, married Sept. 12 at St. Mark's Episcopal church here, have gone to Pensacola, Fla., where the lieutenant will be an aviation instructor in the United States Marine Corps. Mrs. Hartzell, the former Beulah Stephenson, is the daughter of Mrs. Josie Stephenson, Pine Acres, and of R. O. Stephenson, also of Medford. Lt. Hartzell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Crawford, 306 Apple street. (Shangle photo)

Legion, Auxiliary Plan Installation Wednesday Evening

Reviving the old time joint installation of officers of southern Oregon legion and auxiliary posts, Medford Post No. 15 and Auxiliary will be hosts Wednesday evening at K. P. hall for joint installation of officers of Ashland and Medford posts and auxiliaries. Grants Pass members have previously installed but will be guests at the meeting.

Mrs. Marjorie Bonney of Grants Pass, past president of Grants Pass Auxiliary and past district president of District Four of the auxiliary, will be the installing officer for the women.

Jack S. Maris of Roseburg, present commander of District Four of the American Legion, will install the Ashland and Medford posts' newly elected officers.

Mrs. Herbert L. Alford, retiring president of Medford auxiliary, will open the auxiliary meeting promptly at 8 o'clock, and following this meeting the chair will be turned over to Walter Reinking, retiring commander of Medford Post who will introduce Jack Maris.

Mrs. J. Q. Adams of Ashland will be the new auxiliary president installed at the meeting and Mrs. Carol Parker will be installed as head of Medford Auxiliary. Harry Young of Medford will be the newly installed commander of Medford Post.

Following the installation Carl Tengwald, past commander of Medford Post, will conduct initiation ceremonies for the large group of new members of Medford Post and this will be followed by a dance with refreshments at midnight.

The entire meeting will be in honor of the large number of World War Two veterans who have joined Medford Post during the summer and they are especially invited to attend, with their ladies.

Epsilon Chapter Teacher's Group Resumes Meetings

Epsilon chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma held the first meeting of the fall Saturday, Sept. 16, at the Girls' Community club. This organization, national honor society for women in the teaching profession, has teachers from Ashland, Medford and Grants Pass in Epsilon chapter with Miss Delie Whisenant, Medford high school teacher, as head of the valley chapter.

During the session reports on the state convention, held last spring in Salem, were given by Mrs. Alice Willets of Ashland, Miss Ruth Ella Dickerson and Mrs. Maybelle Klemm. Miss Whisenant gave the "year's challenge", outlining the program for the coming months, and a roll call of all members, including those now in service and in other parts of the country, was given by Miss Lynetta Quinlan of Grants Pass. The roll call had been prepared by Miss Daphne Matthews of Grants Pass, unable to be present at the meeting.

During the social hour Mrs. H. L. Powell of Ashland, whose marriage took place recently, was especially honored and was presented with a wedding cake. Mrs. Powell is the former Miss Betty Heilman, Ashland teacher.

Californian Arrives For Stay In Medford

Herb Launsbach of Stockton, Calif., former Medford resident, arrived yesterday from the south and will visit his mother, Mrs. George Launsbach, 307 South Oakdale avenue, and his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Robbins and son, Herbert, 915 West Eleventh street.

GROWING BOYS—

—Dirty up a lot of clothes in the course of their strenuous existence. That means an added load upon "Mom"—unless she avails herself of American's laundry service. She'll be surprised how convenient and economical it is!

BUY WAR BONDS

American Laundry
PHONE 3534
132 SOUTH CENTRAL

Stenerson-Rice Marriage Rites Held In Nevada

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Corrine Ann Stenerson of Medford to Wallace M. Rice, also of this city. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. S. Stenerson, 816 West Tenth street, and the groom is the son of Mrs. John Eggers of South Front street.

The wedding took place September 10 at Reno, Nev., and after a brief wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Rice returned to Medford and are at home at 28 North Orange street.

Mrs. Rice attended Medford senior high school until last spring and Mr. Rice is a graduate of the school.

Rebekah Lodge Has Fun Party Monday Evening

Wearing ridiculous clothing, including hats fashioned from such items as paper plates and cheese cartons, members of Rebekah lodge enjoyed a fun fest following the regular business meeting of the group last Monday. The party had been planned by Mrs. Boss Dyer and a committee of helpers.

Mrs. Homer Harvey's fun hat was voted the prize winner after all had been displayed. A number of games were played during the evening and refreshments were served by Mrs. Marie Hansen, assisted by a committee. Carrying out the fun theme of the evening, members were served cake and potato chips from a table laid with funny papers and used pages from magazines for napkins. Table decorations were fashioned from vegetables.

Breakfast Party Given By Posse Following Ride

Another of the series of breakfast parties given during the late summer weeks by the Jackson County Sheriff's Posse was held last Sunday morning at the home of Dr. and Mrs. S. E. Phillips, Big Boulder Orchard, with members of the Ladies Mounted Troop as guests.

Members of the two troops enjoyed an early morning ride and upon arrival at the Phillips' home, breakfast was served from tables on the lawn. In charge of the breakfast were Dr. James C. Hayes, Dr. Phillips, Max Millhollin and Dr. G. C. Phetteplace.

About 65 riders were present for the ride and party.

Mrs. Gilstrap To Visit Relatives In North

Mrs. Ernest R. Gilstrap, 35 Geneva street, left Friday for Portland and Seattle to spend two weeks with relatives.

NATURAL LOOKING CURLS PERMANENT WAVE 59¢
Yes, it's true! You can now give yourself a marvelous permanent wave, cool, comfortable, at home, easy as putting your hair up in curlers. The amazing Charm-Kurl PERMANENT WAVE KIT contains everything you need. Accept no substitutes, but insist on the genuine Charm-Kurl. Complete, only 59 cents—pay no more. Over 5 million sold. Safe for every type of hair. At any Department, Drug or 5 & 10 cent store.

Charm-Kurl PERMANENT WAVE KIT
Western Thrift Store and All Drug Stores

Fur Remodeling and Repairing
Refining, Cleaning and Glazing
Frances Dallaire—Ph. 2526
Woodrow and Crater Lake

ADRIENNE'S Special Showing of FUR FAVORITES Starting Tuesday, Sept. 26

● Early Selections FROM SOUTHERN OREGON'S OLDEST ESTABLISHED FUR DEPT.

THERE is wisdom in selecting your fur coat now. Now you get the fresh, prime pelts . . . caught when the animal was at its healthiest best. The coat was made when furriers had ample time to give each detail the attention it deserved. Choosing now means larger stocks to choose from and more time to do it. So don't wait . . . come in tomorrow. Payments arranged.

ADRIENNE'S

For the Young Lady Going To School —

GABARDINE and WOOL JERSEY DRESSES

Plain colors and checks predominate in these cleverly styled gabardines and wool jerseys—they're just the frocks to make the young lady look her best in class and on the campus. They're real values, too, at these low M. M. Store prices!

$8.95 to $19.95

Rayon Gabardine SPORT SUITS

In Browns and Navy

$6.50

Sweaters

100% All Wool!

SLOPPY JOE'S and CARDIGAN Styles

Just look at the cable-stitched beauties, the turtle necked honeys, the rib-waisted cuties in this fine M. M. Store collection—and pick them in the colors that make your skin glow!

$4.95 To $6.50

M&M DEPARTMENT STORE

And Don't Forget—
We've everything else that well dressed school misses will need, moderately priced!

Episcopal Church Women's Groups Are Reorganized

Women's organizations of St. Mark's Episcopal church are being reorganized and in the future will meet in two groups, one in the daytime and one which will hold evening meetings.

The daytime group will hold all-day sessions, meeting at the new parish hall at 10:30 a. m. for Red Cross sewing to be followed by lunch at noon and an afternoon meeting. The name of this group and the schedule of meetings will be decided at a gathering Oct. 3. Mrs. Arthur G. McMillin and Mrs. H. Gates will serve as co-presidents of the daytime group, each president being responsible for one meeting a month.

Meeting in the evening will be the Evening Guild, with the next session scheduled for Monday, Sept. 25, at the home of Mrs. Margaret Fabrick, 106 Crater Lake avenue at 8 p. m. Mrs. Paul Selby is president of the Evening Guild. The group will meet the second and fourth Mondays of each month.

The Altar Guild, of which Mrs. John Moffat is chairman, will hold called meetings from time to time.

West Side School Holds Swim Party

Children of the West Side school, with their teachers and parents, were entertained at a swimming party the evening of Sept. 15 at the Alfred S. V. Carpenter home, Topsides, on the Old Stage Road. Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Clark acted as hosts to the group.

After the swimming party, the parents and school staff served a picnic supper, with watermelon furnished by Mr. Potter. Both the children and parents had an especially pleasant evening and extended their hearty thanks to the Carpenters for their invitation.

State Conference Children's Group Held In Portland

National and state officers of the Children of the American Revolution and the state regent, Mrs. Bert B. Lowry, Medford, of the Daughters of the American Revolution, sponsoring group, attended the state conference of the Oregon State society, Children of the American Revolution, held last Sunday in Portland at the Multnomah Hotel. Attending were Mrs. L. M. Heaton of Mississippi, national senior president, Mrs. Howard P. Arnest, Portland, national senior vice-president, and Mrs. E. F. Smith of Portland, state senior president.

During elections Larry Miller of Medford, grandson of Mrs. Lowry, was named to the office of chaplain. Larry is a member of Gen. Joseph Lane society, the Jackson county unit of the C.A.R. Other junior officers elected were Miss Evelyn Garbett, Portland, junior president; George Koch, Portland, junior vice-president; William Wallace, Newberg, junior treasurer; Miss Jacqueline Murray, Portland, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Robert J. O'Donnell, Portland, recording secretary; Diana Pratt, Portland, historian.

Mrs. Lowry left for the north about 10 days ago and has been visiting various chapters of the D.A.R.

Relatives Are Guests At Robinson Home

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Robinson, 104 King street, are entertaining as guests Mr. Robinson's sister, Mrs. Arthur Salinger of Portland and Mrs. Robinson's mother, Mrs. Kate Porter of Silverton, Ore. The visitors have been here for the past two weeks and will leave tomorrow. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson and their daughter, Janet, recently came to Medford from Klamath Falls to reside and purchased the former Wilson home on King street.

GROCETERIA

NUMBER 1

Sixth and Central

OPEN TODAY

9 a. m. to 7 p. m.