Chinese Customs Topic of Talk At Rotary Meeting

The habits and customs of the Chinese people were the subject of an address by Ben H. Schmidt, Medford's new YMCA director, before the Medford Rotary club Tuesday. Speaking at the Hotel Medford, Schmidt suggested the question of whether the people of this country should criticize the seemingly primitive manners and ways of the Chinese—customs which have been employed in the Orient for thousands of years. The speaker questioned the long-range advantages of our hectic mode of living contrasted with the slower, quieter and often happier life of the Chinese. The food, apparel and religion of the Chinese were described by the new YMCA director whose experience in social work in Asia extended over 10 years. While in the Orient Schmidt visited the Philippines and Japan.
