Invasion Scene, Act II

Yesterday was Act I.

Same beachhead scene. Same — except today there are no screaming bombs, no burning tanks, no convulsive shells tearing big holes in the ground. Same scene, but today the guys up there on the beach put on the show.

They're ready for Act II. They've pushed the enemy back a few miles. Here comes Act II. Here comes the U.S.O. Camp Show!

Our guys need this show. They need it desperately, like starving men need food. For an hour or two they'll go back to America... back to Broadway, Hollywood, Main Street... back a thousand miles from this beachhead. They need to laugh, to forget.

They need it, understand?

Thanks to the folks back home, U.S.O. Camp Show units have played in every combat zone, often immediately behind the front lines. More than 90 units are playing the "Foxhole"; more than 80 units appear regularly at camps and hospitals in the western hemisphere.

It costs money to operate the world's biggest theatrical circuit. Even though most stage and screen stars donate their services without charge, it still costs a lot of money to send hundreds of
