

Society and Clubs

Study Club Plans Opening Meeting; Is Oldest Group

Medford's Wednesday Study club, oldest women's club in the city, will have the first meeting of the 1944-45 season this coming week. The meeting is planned as a luncheon to be served at the Hotel Holland at one o'clock.

Following luncheon a social afternoon will be held and Mrs. Frances Cochran will give "Glimpses of Iceland" taken from booklets and snapshots furnished by Maj. O. W. Miller. Maj. Miller recently returned to this country after having been stationed at an Iceland base for a considerable time.

The Wednesday club is entering its 37th year of study and social activity. Three charter members are still active members of the group, these being Mrs. E. B. Pickel, Mrs. F. K. Deuel and Mrs. H. G. Workman.

Mrs. Mary Jacobs is president of the club.

Honor Corporal At Dinner Party

Cpl. M. A. Ring, Jr., recently returned to this country after two years of service in the South Pacific with the United States Marine corps, was honored at a dinner shortly after his return, the affair being given by Mr. and Mrs. John Walsh, Sr., at their home on Butte Creek. Covers were laid for 15, including the corporal's family.

Cpl. Ring is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Ring, Sr., of Bellevue. He has been entertained at a number of affairs given by friends and classmates to welcome him home.

Victory Club To Sew At Meeting Wednesday

Members of the Victory club will meet Wednesday at the Masonic hall here for luncheon and sewing. Luncheon is scheduled for one o'clock and will be followed by sewing. Anyone having apron patterns is asked to bring them, with needle, thread and thimbles. Members are also asked to bring rummage for the sale.

All Eastern Star members are welcome to attend. Mrs. L. S. Ettinger will be chairman for the day.

Arnold-Richter Rites Are Held At Church Here

Miss Luella Arnold, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Arnold, Route 4, and Adam Richter, USNR, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Richter of Ontario, Ore., were married Sept. 15 at Sacred Heart Catholic church here. The service was read by Father Henry Orth.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a blue dress and an orchid corsage for the service. She was attended by Miss Mary Lou Ryan.

Best man for the groom was Howard Richman, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Richter have gone to San Francisco, the groom reporting for duty there Sept. 29, and Mrs. Richter will return to Medford to make her home with her parents.

Mrs. Richter is a graduate of Medford high school and well known in the city. The groom, machinist's mate second class in the navy, recently returned to the United States after having been on duty in the South Pacific for 17 months.

Medford Lady Elks Resume Meetings Tuesday Afternoon

With the coming of the fall months Medford Lady Elks are resuming their twice monthly social gatherings at the Elks Temple. The first has been scheduled for Tuesday of this week, with Mrs. Charles Bottjer and Mrs. Fred Rehling as hostesses.

Meetings are held the first and third Tuesday afternoons of each month at the Elks Temple. Dessert is served at two o'clock and is followed by bridge and pool.

Mrs. R. E. Green is chairman of the group at present.

Mrs. Walker Trece Arrives From Texas

Mrs. Walker Trece and small daughter, Catherine, have arrived in Medford for an extended stay at the home of Mrs. Trece's parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Schuler, Medford Heights. Mrs. Trece came from Camp Hood, Texas, where her husband First Lt. Trece, is stationed at present with the army. En route home Mrs. Trece spent several days in Portland visiting with her husband's parents.

Miss Ann Luman Married Sunday To Gordon Corum

Miss Ann Luman became the bride of Gordon Corum at a ceremony at the First Baptist church in Medford Sunday, September 24. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Luman, 624 North Central avenue, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Corum of Eugene.

The Rev. Wolford A. Dawes read the ceremony before an altar banked with white gladioli and palms. Appropriate organ music was played by Miss Dorothy Wilder.

Miss Luman was attended by her sister, Mrs. Gerald Saunders of Eugene, the former Marguerite Luman, and Mr. Saunders was best man for Mr. Corum.

The bride wore a cactus green wool crepe suit with brown accessories. Her corsage was a spray of orchids. Mrs. Saunders was attired in a gold crepe suit with black accessories and wore a gardenia corsage. The bride's mother wore a brown and green ensemble while the groom's mother wore a brown velvet suit with turquoise blue trim. Both wore corsages of gardenias.

The reception following the ceremony was held at the Hotel Holland. Centerpiece for the bride's table was a four-tiered wedding cake topped with the traditional bride and groom figurines and encircled with white roses. The cake was first cut by the bride and groom after which Miss Betty Brown completed the serving. Mrs. Lloyd Franks presided at the punch bowl.

Following the reception Mr. and Mrs. Corum left for a trip along the Oregon coast. They will be at home at a residence on Norkenzie Drive, Eugene.

In Medford for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Corum, parents of the groom; Mrs. Sparks, Clatskanie, Ore., sister of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Gillespie, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Powell and daughter, Patricia, Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Morse Haley of Roseburg and Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Gilman of Portland, the latter couple an aunt and uncle of the bride.

Mrs. Corum is well known in the city. She graduated from the Medford high school and later from the Southern Oregon College of Education at Ashland. Last year she was on the teaching staff of the Central Point schools. The groom is a graduate of the University of Oregon, where he was affiliated with Sigma Phi Epsilon, social fraternity.

Medford Couple Hosts At Party Monday Evening

Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Glutsch entertained last Monday evening at their home on Glen Oak court, the affair honoring Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Loeffler. The Loefflers left Wednesday evening for Parkville, Mo., where Dr. Loeffler is stationed at Park college as a lieutenant-commander in the navy. The family formerly resided here and Dr. and Mrs. Loeffler were in the west to attend the wedding of their son which took place in Portland Saturday.

The visitors came down from Portland Sunday and while here were house guests of Dr. and Mrs. Glutsch. A number of the Loefflers' close friends were invited to the Monday evening party.

Mrs. Loeffler had made a longer visit in Oregon, having spent the first few weeks in Medford as a guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Bauman, 213 North Ivy street.

Jackson County Girls Leave For College

Miss Louise Hale, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Hale of Central Point and Miss Beverly Watson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Watson of this city, left Friday evening for La Grande, Ore., where they will enter the Eastern Oregon College of Education. Miss Hale graduated from Central Point high school and Miss Watson from Medford high school. The latter has been employed by the Red Cross office at Camp White for some time.

Garden Federation Meeting To Be Held Here October 17

Plans have been completed for the 1944 meeting of the Siskiyou district of the Oregon Federation of Garden clubs, which will be held at the Riverside USO auditorium in Medford October 17. Mrs. L. G. Gentner, 22 Groveland avenue, Medford, is district vice-president.

Mrs. Harry O. Smith, state president from Cave Junction, and Mrs. Gladys M. King, O'Brien, state secretary, will be guest speakers for the gathering. Four state chairmen will be present also, including Mrs. Stanton Rowell, Grants Pass, garden center chairman; Mrs. C. C. Sater, Medford, northwest gardens chairman; Mrs. Mornay Athey, Cave Junction, state press chairman, and Mrs. R. T. Nichol, Medford, of the horticultural awards committee.

A chrysanthemum exhibit has been planned as a special attraction and it is anticipated that a large number of the newest chrysanthemums on the market will be included. Members attending the meeting will also bring a plant, shrub or bulb from her garden for the plant exchange.

The district gathering is scheduled to open at 9:45 a. m. and delegates will have lunch together at a nearby cafe. An afternoon session will open at 1 p. m.

Thursday of this week the Medford Garden club will hold an all day meeting at the Girls' Community club. It is announced that a morning session has been arranged, to begin at 9:30 o'clock at which time those who wish will meet to make "tussie-mussies". These are small colonial-type bouquets with considerable historical background, being made after a fashion known to have been used as early as the 17th century. Members should bring flowers for the bouquets and other material necessary will be furnished.

In the afternoon John Gribble of the Keep Oregon Green committee will speak on cones and will display cones of various sorts. Social committee for the afternoon meeting will be Mrs. R. G. Beach, chairman, Mrs. O. H. Brennenman, Mrs. John Clark, Mrs. H. S. Cope and Mrs. H. L. Ekerson.

It is stated that those wishing to bring a sack lunch to the club may do so.

Sojourners' Club Annual Guest Day Is Held Thursday

Guest day was observed by Medford Sojourners' club last Thursday, club members entertaining at the Girls' Community club. Dessert was served at one o'clock from a buffet table centered with an arrangement of marigolds and each guest was presented with a boutonniere of the blossoms.

At bridge, Mrs. Nelson B. Childers was presented a guest prize and prizes were also won by Mrs. Wade Stuart and Mrs. John McCabe. Mrs. Robert Church won the guest pinocchio prize and Mrs. Fred Rehling was the member winner. Other prizes were won by Mrs. Philip Epstein, Mrs. John Preston, Mrs. Frank Little and Mrs. Nelson Childers.

During the afternoon Mrs. Herschel Morris sang three numbers, accompanied by Mrs. Herb Crain.

Prospective members in attendance were Mrs. Harry Anderson, a newcomer from West Virginia; Mrs. Bob Jarvice, who came to Medford from Los Angeles; Mrs. Wilbur A. Arnold, formerly of Klamath Falls; Mrs. Herman Roemer, Wisconsin; Mrs. C. A. Meunier, Gold Hill; Mrs. Nelson Childers, Reseda, Calif.; Mrs. Julius Hale, Vancouver, Wash.; and Mrs. Henry Pauls of North Carolina. Mrs. Donald Swecker was announced as a new active member.

Guests were Mrs. Sam Colton, Mrs. Frank Perl, Mrs. Ralph Markwert, Mrs. Harold Axland and Mrs. Clarence Meeker. Hostesses for the afternoon were the board members of the club, the Mesdames Wade Stuart, Philip Epstein, Leo Hazel, Vincent Smith, John Preston, Jack Lowe, Zane Kemler and Leo McCorkle.

Parents Announce Recent Marriage Of Shirley Angle

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fulton Angle of Medford have announced the marriage of their daughter, Shirley Lou, to Lt. Robert Harrison Watt, United States army. The wedding took place July 31 at a chapel of the army air base, Salinas, Calif.

The marriage vows were read by Chaplain Paul B. Nickens and attendants were Miss Muriel West of Sacramento, Calif., and Lt. Edward Traverse of Eureka, Calif. The bride was given in marriage by Lt. Spence Porter.

Miss Angle wore for her wedding a fuchsia suit with black accessories and a corsage of orchids. Mrs. Watt attended Ashland high school and graduated from Rogue River high school, later attending Sacramento Junior college in California where she was a member of Sigma Phi Kappa. Lt. Watt, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Watt of Dayton, Ohio, was a student at the University of Ohio before enlisting in the air corps.

The bride's family has resided in the Rogue River valley for many years and is widely known. She is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Earl C. Gaddis of Medford and a granddaughter of Mrs. E. D. Briggs of Ashland. Mr. and Mrs. Angle are at present residing a few miles north of Medford. Mrs. Angle went south for her daughter's wedding.

Friendship Night Observed Tuesday By Nevita Chapter

Central Point — "Friendship Night" was held by Nevita chapter No. 93 Tuesday night here. Among the honored guests were Beulah Faber, Grand Adah of the grand chapter of Oregon; Hope Wood, grand representative of South Carolina and worthy matron of Reames chapter No. 66; Jeanette Spencer, worthy matron of Adalee No. 3, and Arthur Peters, worthy patron of Alpha No. 1.

Special elections and installations were held to fill vacancies in office. Installed were: Violet Hamilton, conductress, Donna Brenner, associate conductress, Ruth Sawyer, Adah and Montella Freeland, Martha.

Welcomed during the evening were Lt. and Mrs. Ed Andren. Lt. Andren is home on leave from the navy.

Officers gave a brief addenda in honor of the occasion, and a pleasant social hour was held in the dining room at the close.

BPWC Members Are Entertained At Grants Pass

Members of the Medford Business and Professional Women's club were guests Tuesday evening, Sept. 26, of the Grants Pass club at a dinner at the library auditorium in celebration of the 25th anniversary of the founding of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs. Mrs. John Y. Richardson of Portland, addressed the group on women's privileges and rights, stressing the fact that it was not only a privilege but a duty of all women to vote.

A large birthday cake formed the dinner table centerpiece and officers of both clubs participated in the ceremony of lighting and cutting the cake. Members attending from Medford were Miss Maurine Shearer, president; Miss Hazel Swayne, second vice-president; Mrs. Ethel Tennant, secretary; Mrs. Kathryn Davidson, membership chairman; Mrs. Iva McHenry, director, and Miss Frieda Gersbers, past president.

Return From Portland

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred S. V. Carpenter, Old Stage Road, and their daughter, Mrs. Garland Jones, arrived in Medford Friday from Portland where they spent the past few weeks. Mr. Carpenter has recovered from surgical treatment undergone in Portland. Mrs. Jones' husband, Capt. Garland Jones, is now in England with an army unit, and Mrs. Jones will remain in Medford with her parents.

Giffords Hold Family Dinner Wednesday Eve

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Gifford entertained with a family dinner last Wednesday at their home on the Old Stage Road. This was the first time in over a year that all members of the family have been together. Randall Gifford, F2c, was home on furlough before reporting at San Bruno, Calif., for further training in the navy. Herbert Gifford and family are here from Glendale, Calif., and plan to take up residence here.

Present at the gathering were Mr. and Mrs. Randall M. Gifford and children, David and Martha, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert W. Gifford and son, Michael, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Byrne and daughters, Katherine and Rita, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Green who are also visiting at the Gifford home, and Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Wilson, grandparents of Randall and Herbert Gifford and Mrs. Byrne.

PERMANENT WAVE 59¢

Do it yourself. It's easy as putting your hair up in curlers. You'll find everything you need in the Western Thrift and all drug stores.

Piano Studio

Margaret Osenbrugge
711 E. Main. Phone 4256

Tempting Oven-Fresh
• BREAD
• Decorated CAKES
• PASTRIES
Tops In Goodness!

Sure—MEAL PLANNING CAN BE A LOT EASIER—

—if you will rely upon us for tasty desserts, luscious goodies and vitamin-enriched bread—the kind that makes golden-brown toast, too. You'll find it economical—and SO much easier—to let US help you prepare meals your family will like!

MODEL BAKERY

203 West Main St.

ADRIENNE'S

Mary Lynne

Hearts 'nd Flowers

Adrienne's special fur showing will continue all week.

ADRIENNE'S

GROCETERIA

NUMBER 1

Sixth and Central

OPEN

TODAY

9 a. m. to 7 p. m.

Something to Whistle at....

Sweaters

For free 'n easy living. Dreamy pastels to gay vibrant colors. Cardigans and slip-overs in all sizes up to 46.

$395

$495

$595

RAINCOATS

Box and Fitted types, lined and tackle twill.

$7.50 to $22.50

Rain Capes - $2.95

A three-point program for fall, for the young in size as well as age.

100% wool and in the colors you love.

M&M
DEPARTMENT STORE

PAY LESS AND DRESS BETTER

LAUNDRYMAN

In this picture from India, passed by Army censors, members of the U. S. Armed Forces are amused looking on as an Indian dhotie (public laundryman) quickly drubs a garment on his primitive "wash board." This is a far cry from the hygienic and scientific methods used by the American Laundry, here in Medford.

BUY WAR BONDS

