

FIVE STARS HEAD CAST CRATERIAN THRILLER TODAY

"Mask of Dimitrios" Showing Three Days; Twin Bill On Rialto Screen.

Murder, international intrigue and espionage comprise the background for the new film opening today at the Craterian.
It's "The Mask of Dimitrios," and boasts a superlative cast, starring Sydney Green-street, Zachary Scott, Faye Emerson, Peter Lorre and Victor Francen.

Zachary Scott, a newcomer to the screen, plays the title role, while Greenstreet is seen as an unscrupulous Englishman and Peter Lorre as a Dutch writer of mystery stories. Faye Emerson supplies the love interest and Victor Francen plays the role of an international spy.

An excellent supporting cast includes Steven Geray, Edward Cianelli, Kurt Katch, Marjorie Hoshell, Georges Metaxa, Monte Blue and others.

The screenplay was adapted from the Eric Ambler novel, "A Coffin for Dimitrios," by mystery writer Frank Gruber.

"Mr. Winkle Goes to War" and "Pardon My Rhythm" are the two headline features on the Rialto's screen starting today.

Cooper On Stand Denies Wild Party

South Bend, Ind., Sept. 30.— UPI.—Jackie Cooper, 22 year old former film star, testified today that the July 22 hotel party, which resulted in his arrest on charges of contributing to the delinquency of two girl minors, consisted of talking, dancing and moderate drinking by the made guests.

The naval V-12 trainee at Notre Dame University held to a story that he observed nothing immoral about the party and flatly denied that a 16 year old girl witness for the state saw Pauline Frederick, 19, co-defendant with Cooper, lying nude on a bed.
